Head First Java Kathy Sierra,Bert Bates,2005-02-09 Learning a complex new language is no easy task especially when it s an object oriented computer programming language like Java You might think the problem is your brain It seems to have a mind of its own a mind that doesn t always want to take in the dry technical stuff you re forced to study The fact is your brain craves novelty It s constantly searching scanning waiting for something unusual to happen After all that s the way it was built to help you stay alive It takes all the routine ordinary dull stuff and filters it to the background so it won t interfere with your brain s real work recording things that matter How does your brain know what matters It s like the creators of the Head First approach say suppose you re out for a hike and a tiger jumps in front of you what happens in your brain Neurons fire Emotions crank up Chemicals surge That s how your brain knows And that s how your brain will learn Java Head First Java combines puzzles strong visuals mysteries and soul searching interviews with famous Java objects to engage you in many different ways It s fast it s fun and it s effective And despite its playful appearance Head First Java is serious stuff a complete introduction to object oriented programming and Java You ll learn everything from the fundamentals to advanced topics including threads network sockets and distributed programming with RMI And the new second edition focuses on Java 5 0 the latest version of the Java language and development platform Because Java 5 0 is a major update to the platform with deep code level changes even more careful study and implementation is required So learning the Head First way is more important than ever If you ve read a Head First book you know what to expect a visually rich format designed for the way your brain works If you haven t you re in for a treat You ll see why people say it s unlike any other Java book you ve ever read By exploiting how your brain works Head First Java compresses the time it takes to learn and retain complex information Its unique approach not only shows you what you need to know about Java syntax it teaches you to think like a Java programmer If you want to be bored buy some other book But if you want to understand Java this book s for you Imperial Bancorp George L. Graziadio,1998 Loudermilk Lucy

Ives,2019-05-07 This New York Times Book Review Editors Choice is hilarious a riotous success Equal parts campus novel buddy comedy and meditation on art making under late capitalism the novel is a hugely funny portrait of an egomaniac and his nebbish best friend The Washington Post It s the end of summer 2003 George W Bush has recently declared the mission in Iraq accomplished the unemployment rate is at its highest in years and Martha Stewart has just been indicted for insider trading Meanwhile somewhere in the Midwest Troy Augustus Loudermilk fair haired statuesque charismatic and his companion Harry Rego definitely none of those things step out of a silver Land Cruiser and onto the campus of The Seminars America s most prestigious creative writing program to which Loudermilk has recently been accepted for his excellence in poetry Loudermilk however has never written a poem in his life Wickedly entertaining beguiling layered and sly Loudermilk is a social novel for our time a comedy of errors that deftly examines class gender and inheritance and subverts our pieties about literature authorship art making and the institutions that sustain them The Emperor of All Maladies Siddhartha Mukherjee, 2011-08-09 Selected as One of the Best Books of the 21st Century by The New York Times Winner of the Pulitzer Prize adapted as a documentary from Ken Burns on PBS this New York Times bestseller is an extraordinary achievement The New Yorker a magnificent profoundly humane biography of cancer Physician researcher and award winning science writer Siddhartha Mukherjee examines cancer with a cellular biologist's precision a historian's perspective and a biographer's passion The result is an astonishingly lucid and eloquent chronicle of a disease humans have lived with and perished from for more than five thousand years The story of cancer is a story of human ingenuity resilience and perseverance but also of hubris paternalism and misperception Mukherjee recounts centuries of discoveries setbacks victories and deaths told through the eyes of his predecessors and peers training their wits against an infinitely resourceful adversary that just three decades ago was thought to be easily vanquished in an all out war against cancer The book reads like a literary thriller with cancer as the protagonist Riveting urgent and surprising The Emperor of All Maladies provides a fascinating glimpse into the future of cancer treatments It is an illuminating book that provides hope and clarity to those seeking to demystify cancer

Artificial Hells Claire Bishop, 2012-07-24 This searing critique of participatory art from its development to its political ambitions is an essential title for contemporary art history scholars and students as well as anyone who has thought Now that's art or That's art Library Journal Since the 1990s critics and curators have broadly accepted the notion that participatory art is the ultimate political art that by encouraging an audience to take part an artist can promote new emancipatory social relations Around the world the champions of this form of expression are numerous ranging from art historians such as Grant Kester curators such as Nicolas Bourriaud and Nato Thompson to performance theorists such as Shannon Jackson Artificial Hells is the first historical and theoretical overview of socially engaged participatory art known in the US as social practice Claire Bishop follows the trajectory of twentieth century art and examines key moments in the development of a participatory aesthetic This itinerary takes in Futurism and Dada the Situationist International Happenings in Eastern Europe Argentina and Paris the 1970s Community Arts Movement and the Artists Placement Group It concludes with a discussion of long term educational projects by contemporary artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Tania Bruguera Pawel Althamer and Paul Chan Since her controversial essay in Artforum in 2006 Claire Bishop has been one of the few to challenge the political and aesthetic ambitions of participatory art In Artificial Hells she not only scrutinizes the emancipatory claims made for these projects but also provides an alternative to the ethical rather than artistic criteria invited by such artworks Artificial Hells calls for a less prescriptive approach to art and politics and for more compelling troubling and bolder forms of participatory art and criticism Spaces Speak, Are You Listening? Barry Blesser, Linda-Ruth Salter, 2009-09-18 How we experience space by listening the concepts of aural architecture with examples ranging from Gothic cathedrals to surround sound home theater We experience spaces not only by seeing but also by listening We can navigate a room in the dark and hear the emptiness of a house without furniture Our experience of music in a concert hall depends on whether we sit in the front row or under the balcony The unique acoustics of religious spaces acquire symbolic meaning Social relationships are strongly influenced by the way that space changes sound In Spaces Speak Are You Listening Barry Blesser and Linda Ruth Salter examine auditory spatial awareness experiencing space by attentive listening Every environment has an aural architecture The audible attributes of physical space have always contributed to the fabric of human culture as demonstrated by prehistoric multimedia cave paintings classical Greek open air theaters Gothic cathedrals acoustic geography of French villages modern music reproduction and virtual spaces in home theaters Auditory spatial awareness is a prism that reveals a culture's attitudes toward hearing and space Some listeners can learn to see objects with their ears but even without training we can all hear spatial geometry such as an open door or low ceiling Integrating contributions from a wide range of disciplines including architecture music acoustics evolution anthropology cognitive psychology audio engineering and many others Spaces Speak Are You Listening establishes the concepts and language of aural architecture These concepts provide an interdisciplinary guide for anyone interested in gaining a better understanding of how space enhances our well being Aural architecture is not the exclusive domain of specialists Accidentally or intentionally we all function as aural architects

Governing Africa's Forests in a Globalized World Laura A. German, Alain Karsenty, Anne-Marie Tiani, 2009-12 Many countries around the world are engaged in decentralization processes and most African countries face serious problems with forest governance from benefits sharing to illegality and sustainable forest management This book summarizes experiences to date on the extent and nature of decentralization and its outcomes most of which suggest an underperformance of governance reforms and explores the viability of different governance instruments in the context of weak governance and expanding commercial pressures over forests Findings are grouped into two thematic areas decentralization livelihoods and sustainable forest management and international trade finance and forest sector governance reforms The authors examine diverse forces shaping the forest sector including the theory and practice of decentralization usurpation of authority corruption and illegality inequitable patterns of benefits capture and expansion of international trade in timber and carbon credits and discuss related outcomes on livelihoods forest condition and equity The book builds on earlier volumes exploring different dimensions of decentralization and perspectives from other world regions and distills dimensions of forest governance that are both unique to Africa and representative of broader global patterns Authors ground their analysis in relevant theory while attempting to distill implications of their findings for policy and practice The 2030 Spike Colin Mason, 2003 The clock is relentlessly ticking Our world teeters on a knife edge between a peaceful and prosperous future for all and a dark winter of death and destruction that threatens to smother the light of civilization Within 30 years in the 2030 decade six powerful drivers will converge with unprecedented force in a statistical spike that could tear humanity apart and plunge the world into a new Dark Age Depleted fuel supplies massive population growth poverty global climate change famine growing water shortages and international lawlessness are on a crash course with potentially catastrophic consequences In the face of both doomsaying and denial over the state of our world Colin Mason cuts through the rhetoric and reams of conflicting data to muster the evidence to illustrate a broad picture of the world as it is and our possible futures Ultimately his message is clear we must act decisively collectively and immediately to alter the trajectory of humanity away from catastrophe Offering over 100 priorities for immediate action The 2030 Spike serves as a guidebook for humanity through the treacherous minefields and wastelands ahead to a bright peaceful and prosperous future in which all humans have the opportunity to thrive and build a better civilization This book is powerful and essential reading for all people concerned with the future of humanity and planet earth

Adaptive Social Protection Thomas Bowen, Carlo del Ninno, Colin Andrews, Sarah Coll-Black, Kelly Johnson, Yasuhiro Kawasoe, Adea Kryeziu, Barry Maher, Asha Williams, 2020-06-12

Adaptive social protection ASP helps to build the resilience of poor and vulnerable households to the impacts of large covariate shocks such as natural disasters economic crises pandemics conflict and forced displacement Through the provision of transfers and services directly to these households ASP supports their capacity to prepare for cope with and adapt to the shocks they face before during and after these shocks occur Over the long term by supporting these three capacities ASP can provide a pathway to a more resilient state for households that may otherwise lack the resources to move out of chronically vulnerable situations Adaptive Social Protection Building Resilience to Shocks outlines an organizing framework for the design and implementation of ASP providing insights into the ways in which social protection systems can be made more capable of building household resilience By way of its four building blocks programs information finance and institutional arrangements and partnerships the framework highlights both the elements of existing social protection systems that are the cornerstones for building household resilience as well as the additional investments that are central to enhancing their ability to generate these outcomes In this report the ASP framework and its building blocks have been elaborated primarily in relation to natural disasters and associated climate change Nevertheless many of the priorities identified within each building block are also pertinent to the design and implementation of ASP across other types of shocks providing a foundation for a structured approach to the advancement of this rapidly evolving and complex agenda

Escape Into Art? Aya Soika, Meike Hoffmann, 2019 In 1937 thousands of works by the Brücke artists were confiscated from German museums by the National Socialist authorities and numerous icons of Expressionism were shown in the traveling exhibition Degenerate Art The volume takes a critical look at the fates and the artistic praxis of the former Brücke members in the years after 1933 On the basis of numerous sources which have hitherto not been analyzed today's popular image of Expressionism its vilification as degenerate and the creation of the legend after the end of the Second World War are examined how much scope for action was there and how should we evaluate the narratives of inner emigration and the zero hour today Based on the extensive stocks of the Brücke Museum the publication discusses in detail the everyday reality of the artists under the National Socialists The measures carried out against the former Brücke Based on the extensive stocks of the Brücke Museum the publication discusses in detail the everyday reality of the artists under the National Socialists The measures carried out against the former Brücke members as a result of Nazi art policy are explained together with the direct effects on their creative work and the self image of the painters within the context of the times
