Max Horkheimer A New Introduction:

Max Horkheimer Peter M. R. Stirk,1992 This work offers an introduction to and an interpretation of the thought of Max Horkheimer a leading figure of the Frankfurt School Towards a New Manifesto Theodor Adorno,Max Horkheimer,2019-03-12 Theodor Adorno and Max Horkheimer wrote the central text of critical theory Dialectic of Enlightenment a measured critique of the Enlightenment reason that they argued had resulted in fascism and totalitarianism Towards a New Manifesto shows the two philosophers in a uniquely spirited and free flowing exchange of ideas This book is a record of their discussions over three weeks in the spring of 1956 recorded with a view to the production of a contemporary version of The Communist Manifesto A philosophical jam session in which the two thinkers improvise freely often wildly on central themes of their work theory and practice labor and leisure domination and freedom in a political register found nowhere else in their writing Amid a careening flux of arguments aphorisms and asides in which the trenchant alternates with the reckless the playful with the ingenuous positions are swapped and contradictions unheeded without any compulsion for consistency A thrilling example of philosophy in action and a compelling map of a possible passage to a new world

Introduction to Critical Theory David Held,2013-05-02 The writings of the Frankfurt school in particular of Horkheimer Adorno Marcuse and Jurgen Habermas caught the imagination of the radical movements of the 1960s and 1970s and became a key element in the Marxism of the New Left Partly due to their rise to prominence during the political turmoil of the 1960s the work of these critical theorists has been the subject of continuing controversy in both political and academic circles However their ideas are frequently misunderstood In this major work now available from Polity Press David Held presents a much needed introduction to and evaluation of critical theory Some of the major themes he considers are critical theory s relation to Marx s critique of political economy Freudian psychoanalysis aesthetics and the philosophy of history There is also an extended discussion of critical theory s substantive contribution to the analysis of capitalism culture the family the individual as well as its contribution to epistemology and methodology EPZ Eclipse of Reason Max Horkheimer,2004-01-25 In this book Horkheimer surveys and demonstrates the gradual ascendancy of Reason in Western philosophy its eventual total application to all spheres of life and what he considers its present reified domination On Max Horkheimer Seyla Benhabib,Wolfgang Bonss,John McCole,1993 This collection of essays by German and American scholars will help familiarize English speaking readers with the most important results of this recent work and in conjunction with a companion volume of Horkheimer s essays Between Philosophy and Social Science should provide a much fuller and deeper picture of his role in the history of modern social theory Max Horkheimer 1895 1973 one of the founders of critical theory and a sometime colleague of Herbert Marcuse Theodor Adorno and Walter Benjamin has become a subject of renewed attention and appreciation in Germany in the last decade This collection of essays by German and American scholars will help familiarize English speaking readers with the most important results of this recent work and in conjunction with a companion volume of Horkheimer's essays Between Philosophy and Social Science should provide a much fuller and deeper picture of his role in the history of modern social theory. Toward a Concrete Philosophy Mikko Immanen, 2020-11-15 Toward a Concrete Philosophy explores the reactions of Theodor Adorno, Max Horkheimer and Herbert Marcuse to Martin Heidegger prior to their dismissal of him once he turned to the Nazi party in 1933. Mikko Immanen provides a fascinating glimpse of the three future giants of twentieth century social criticism when they were still looking for their philosophical voices. By reconstructing their overlooked debates with Heidegger and Heideggerians, Immanen argues that Adorno, Horkheimer and Marcuse saw Heidegger's 1927 magnum opus Being and Time as a serious effort to make philosophy relevant for life again and as the most provocative challenge to their nascent materialist diagnoses of the discontents of European modernity. Our knowledge of Adorno's Frankfurt discussion with Frankfurt Heideggerians remains anecdotal even though it led to a proto version of Dialectic of Enlightenment's idea of the entwinement of myth and reason. Similarly, Horkheimer's enthusiasm over Heidegger's legendary post World War I lectures and criticism of Being and Time have escaped attention almost entirely. And Marcuse's intriguing debate with Heidegger over Hegel and the origin of the problematic of being and time has remained uncharted until now. Reading these debates as fruitful intellectual encounters rather than hostile confrontations, Toward a Concrete Philosophy offers scholars of critical theory a new thought provoking perspective on the emergence of the Frankfurt School as a rejoinder to Heidegger's philosophical revolution.

Max Horkheimer and the Foundations of the Frankfurt School John Abromeit, 2011-10-10 This book is the first comprehensive intellectual biography of Max Horkheimer during the early and middle phases of his life 1895-1941. Drawing on unexamined new sources, John Abromeit describes the critical details of Horkheimer's intellectual development. This study recovers and reconstructs the model of early Critical Theory that guided the work of the Institute for Social Research in the 1930s. Horkheimer is remembered primarily as the co author of Dialectic of Enlightenment which he wrote with Theodor W. Adorno in the early 1940s. But few people realize that Horkheimer and Adorno did not begin working together seriously until the late 1930s or that the model of Critical Theory developed by Horkheimer and Erich Fromm in the late 1920s and early 1930s differs in crucial ways from Dialectic of Enlightenment. Abromeit highlights the ways in which Horkheimer's early Critical Theory remains relevant to contemporary theoretical discussions in a wide variety of fields.

Dialectic of Enlightenment Max Horkheimer, Theodor W. Adorno, 1993 A major study of modern culture, Dialectic of Enlightenment for many years led an underground existence among the homeless Left of the German Federal Republic until its definitive publication in West Germany in 1969. Originally composed by its two distinguished authors during their Californian exile in 1944, the book can stand as a monument of classic German progressive social theory in the twentieth century.

Grand Hotel Abyss Stuart Jeffries, 2017-09-26 Marvelously entertaining, exciting and informative. Guardian. An engaging and accessible history. New York Review of Books. This group biography is an exhilarating page turner and outstanding critical introduction to the work and legacy of the Frankfurt School and the great

20th century thinkers who created it Washington Post In 1923 a group of young radical German thinkers and intellectuals came together to at Victoria Alle 7 Frankfurt determined to explain the workings of the modern world Among the most prominent members of what became the Frankfurt School were the philosophers Walter Benjamin Theodor Adorno Max Horkheimer and Herbert Marcuse Not only would they change the way we think but also the subjects we deem worthy of intellectual investigation Their lives like their ideas profoundly sometimes tragically reflected and shaped the shattering events of the twentieth century Grand Hotel Abyss combines biography philosophy and storytelling to reveal how the Frankfurt thinkers gathered in hopes of understanding the politics of culture during the rise of fascism Some of them forced to escape the horrors of Nazi Germany later found exile in the United States Benjamin with his last great work the incomplete Arcades Project in his suitcase was arrested in Spain and committed suicide when threatened with deportation to Nazi occupied France On the other side of the Atlantic Adorno failed in his bid to become a Hollywood screenwriter denounced jazz and even met Charlie Chaplin in Malibu After the war there was a resurgence of interest in the School From the relative comfort of sun drenched California Herbert Marcuse wrote the classic One Dimensional Man which influenced the 1960s counterculture and thinkers such as Angela Davis while in a tragic coda Adorno died from a heart attack following confrontations with student radicals in Berlin By taking popular culture seriously as an object of study whether it was film music ideas or consumerism the Frankfurt School elaborated upon the nature and crisis of our mass produced mechanized society Grand Hotel Abyss shows how much these ideas still tell us about our age of social media and runaway consumption
