Max On View An Exhibition:

Max Bill's View of Things Jakob Bill, 2015 The international touring exhibition Die gute Form was conceived by Max Bill on behalf of the Swiss Werkbund and was shown for the first time in 1949 at the Basel Mustermesse trade fair This publication documents Bill's initiative in reproductions of the original display panels and layout plans for the venues visited by the exhibition and places Die gute Form in a theoretical context that considers its reception and impact within the history of design Reconstructing Exhibitions in Art Institutions Natasha Adamou, Michaela Giebelhausen, 2023-07-13 Reconstructing Exhibitions in Art Institutions spans exhibition histories as anti apartheid activism within South African community arts collectivities and trade unions in Argentina Civil Rights movements and Black communities in Baltimore institutional self critique within the neoliberal museum reframing feminisms in USA and revisiting Cold War Modernisms in Eastern Europe among other themes An interdisciplinary project with a global reach this edited volume considers the theme of exhibitions as political resistance as well as cultural critique from global perspectives including South Africa Latin America Eastern Europe USA and West Europe The book includes contributions by ten authors from the fields of art history social sciences anthropology museum studies provenance research curating and exhibition histories The edited volume finally examines exhibition reconstructions both as a symptom of advanced capitalism geopolitical dynamics and social uprisings and as a critique of imperial and capitalist violence Art historical areas covered in the book include conceptualism minimalism modern painting global modernisms archives and community arts This volume will be of interest to a wide range of audiences including art historians curators gallery studies and museum professionals and also to scholars and students from the fields of anthropology ethnography sociology and history It would also appeal to a general public with an interest in modern and contemporary art exhibitions Max on View John O. Kirkpatrick, 1978-01-01 Echoing Exhibition Views Ann Richter, Agnieszka Roguski, 2021 When the exhibition enters the digital realm as it is increasingly happening now when the display of art and culture can be enjoyed individually behind screens then how does the exhibition view diffuse optically technically and culturally And how does this transformation echo the new understanding of subjectivity Echoing Exhibition Views Subjectivity in Post Digital Times explores the different medialities and intersubjective shifts that follow the moment of seeing a physical exhibition today It takes the digitized exhibition view as starting point for artistic and theoretic reflections on post digital culture hyperreality and its relation to subjectivity Focusing on the transformative potential of the exhibition as circulating view this publication asks how it transfers again into a subjective mode of perspective through the artistic lens So what is at stake when an exhibition circulates as a digital view And how does its digital presence in turn affect and transform the subjective experience of seeing a physical exhibition With images from Jo o Enxuto Erica Love Calla Henkel Max Pitegoff New Noveta Yair Oelbaum SANY Hannah Stiegeler Jasmin Werner and Jonas Paul Willis as well as texts by Melanie B hler Erika Landstr m and Agnieszka Roguski this publication gathers artists curators and writers that frame these questions through a variety of practices and media It thus addresses a self reflexive and critical approach on medium and format understanding the exhibition as a fluid and diverse view Self-Portrait in Words Max Beckmann,1997-03-15 One of the most important German artists of the twentieth century Max Beckmann was labeled a degenerate artist by the Nazis and chose exile His artistic production encompassed the realism and figural themes of his early works to the provocatively blunt portraiture critical urban views and richly layered symbolic works for which he is now universally recognized Although he was a prolific writer his written work has never before been collected and translated into English Beckmann is known for the depth pungency and tremendous sensuous force of his works only in the last twenty years have we come to learn more about his personal life Self Portrait in Words maps out Beckmann s life and draws attention to the occasions on or for which he produced his writings to the importance writing had for him as a form of expression and to both the contemporary and personal references of his ideas and images The Architectural Review ,1908 The Studio ,1913 Academy Notes Buffalo Fine Arts Academy,1905 Max Liebermann and International Modernism Marion Deshmukh,Françoise Forster-Hahn,Barbara Gaehtgens,2011-05 Although Max Liebermann 1847 1935 began his career as a realist painter depicting scenes of rural labor Dutch village life and the countryside by the turn of the century his paintings had evolved into colorful images of bourgeois life and leisure that critics associated with French impressionism During a time of increasing German nationalism his paintings and cultural politics sparked numerous aesthetic and political controversies His eminent career and his reputation intersected with the dramatic and violent events of modern German history from the Empire to the Third Reich The Nazis persecution of modern and Jewish artists led to the obliteration of Liebermann from the narratives of modern art but this volume contributes to the recent wave of scholarly literature that works to recover his role and his oeuvre from an international perspective We Represent Ourselves to the World Jenelle Porter,Stephen Prina,James Meyer,Wilhelm Schürmann,2004 This distinctive book centers around an installation by Stephen Prina as a frame within which to explore themes vital to its making including artistic production site specificity curatorial practice photography architecture and institutional critique This multi layered work is reevaluated by the curator Jenelle Porter She begins with Prina s single image documentation of the 16 year exhibition schedule at the Heitzler Gallery 1975 1991 This final set of 163 photographs was then installed in the Heitzler Gallery along with assorted elements as part of Prina s complete exhibition Essays by James Meyer and Wilhelm Schurmann Monographic Exhibitions and the History of Art Maia Wellington Gahtan,Donatella Pegazzano,2018-02-19 This edited collection traces the impact of monographic exhibitions on the discipline of art history from the first examples in the late eighteenth century through the present Roughly falling into three genres retrospectives of living artists retrospectives of recently deceased artists and monographic exhibitions of Old Masters specialists examine examples of each genre within their social cultural political and economic contexts Exhibitions covered include Nathaniel Hone s 1775 exhibition the Holbein Exhibition of 1871 the Courbet retrospective of 1882 Titian s exhibition in Venice Poussin's Louvre retrospective of 1960 and El Greco's anniversary exhibitions of 2014 A Subversive Gleam:

Max Bill and His Time: 1908-1939, 2021-11-23 The early life of a modernist polymath and concrete art pioneer the first of a new two volume biography by Bill's widow art historian Angela Thomas Swiss artist Max Bill 1908-94 was a master of many trades during his lifetime he was at once an architect graphic designer painter industrial designer and typeface designer A student of greats such as Wassily Kandinsky and Paul Klee at the Bauhaus in Dessau Bill developed his own unique practice of integrated design under their tutelage cultivating a more contemporary interpretation of more traditional Bauhaus sensibilities He went on to become one of the main advocates of the concrete art movement joining the Allianz group of Swiss artists in 1937 In this first volume of a major new biography Bill's widow art historian Angela Thomas recounts the formative years of Bill's life from his childhood in a small Swiss town to his time at the Bauhaus With a lively cadence that speaks to her intimate knowledge of the architect himself Thomas details Bill's beginnings in Zurich as a young independent designer as part of a larger portrait of Europe's political and artistic world in the decades before World War II Originally written in German and now translated into English for the first time A Subversive Gleam provides readers with an in depth account of the origins of one of Europe's most influential designers Before the Bauhaus John V. Maciuika, 2005-05-05 Publisher Description Surreal Spaces Joanna Moorhead, 2023-06-01 An evocative visual chronicle on the life of Leonora Carrington as seen through interiors international locations and vintage photographs this book leads the reader on a personal journey through the many spaces she inhabited and which infused and haunted her art and the people she knew Long underrated Carrington is now considered as one of the vanguard not only in histories of women artists but also Surrealism her interests feminism ecology and life enhancing art are now shared by many Challenging the conventions of her time Carrington abandoned family society and England to embrace new experiences and mix with artists in Europe and America and to forge her own unique artistic style From Lancashire to London Cornwall to France and Spain then to Mexico New York and finally back to Mexico each place and interior became etched in her memory whether her grandmothers kitchen with its giant stove Parisian cafés a rural French hideaway the sanatorium in Santander or her Mexican sanctuary only to be echoed sometimes decades later in her paintings and writings Houses are really bodies she wrote in her novella The Hearing Trumpet 1974 We connect ourselves with walls roofs and objects just as we hang on to our livers skeletons flesh and blood streams
