The Cult of Quick Repair Dede Crane, 2014-09-16 A sassy collection of vivid and moving stories portraying edgy modern lives in highly charged relationships. Not for the faint of heart, Crane's humour has a dark almost sinister edge. However, her tired pessimism is tempered with grace and frequent avenues of hope. A profusion of sex delivers surprises not all of them pleasant. A new father shopping for groceries with his baby and a hangover worries that the child may not actually be his. An ultrasound technician envious of her co-worker's sex life has an unexpected second encounter with a creepy male patient. The wife of a hockey player is faced with his ambiguous sexuality. A young woman waits her turn at an abortion clinic harbouring the secret that the baby's father might not be the boyfriend sitting beside her. These wonderfully drawn characters sweep the reader into their anxious and often funny lives. Sophisticated story telling makes the most complicated situations crystal clear and a pleasure to read. Crane's male points of view are as effective as the female. Her endings are just right and satisfying. Joint the Cult of Quick Repair and prepare to see another side of all too familiar contemporary life in all its fraught and aching glory. In on the Great Joke Laura Broadbent, 2016-10-10 What do you get when you cross Lao Tzu and an application for a university teaching application? What do you get when you give W.G. Sebald and Clarice Lispector the ability to speak from the afterlife? What happens if a girl is stopped at a red light for an entire year? In On the Great Joke is a palace of hybridity where film structure informs poetry, poetry alters the essay, the essay recalibrates the joke. Broadbent has lent her ear to the dead, the living, the voiceless to give us the punchline of what it means to be intellectually alive. Laura Broadbent is the author of Oh There You Are, I Can't See You, Is It Raining which won the 2012 Robert Kroetsch Award for Innovative Poetry. She lives in Montreal, Quebec where she is working on her PhD in Literature.

Mission: Hollywood Deborah Abela, 2007-07-10 Eleven year old Max and other Spy Force agents investigate a dark plot involving the movie industry as Max Linden and an unexpected guest work as extras on her father's latest film. Children's Books in Print R.R. Bowker Publishing, Bowker, 1999-12. Books in Print Supplement, 2002. The Publishers Weekly, 2002. The Tin Box Holly Kennedy, 2006-10-31 Kenly Alister is a Grownup. Unlike those who sail through life taking what they want regardless of how their actions affect others, Kenly cleans up other people's messes, picks up the pieces and is the one who others turn to for solace. As the child of an alcoholic, she weathered abuse and sadness and emerged from childhood determined to bring comfort and happiness to those she loves. While in college, she fell for Ross Lowen. Ross wasn't looking for someone to take care of him; he wanted a lover, a friend, and a partner. In Kenly, he found not only all that but a woman whose capacity for love and kindness bowled him over. The last fifteen years have been good to them and Kenly basks in the glow of a wonderful marriage. And as an extra bonus she revels in their son who even in his most arrogant adolescent moments still has the ability to take Kenly's breath away. This happy life is threatened when her dearest childhood friend dies and Kenly receives an old battered tin box, a relic of her childhood. Inside are the remnants of Kenly's past and a secret she has sheltered for decades. To reveal the secret means the destruction of her happy family but can she continue to shoulder the weight of years of silence? The Tin Box is an achingly beautiful novel of one woman's desire to save all that she loves while honoring the past that made her into the woman she is. At the Publisher's request, this title is being sold without Digital Rights Management Software (DRM) applied.

Recently divorced author Maxwell August has a book due and his muse has gone into hiding. With a chip on his shoulder, his writing in stuck mode, he heads to the lake only to encounter a monumental distraction with blonde hair and hazel eyes. Will these two right-brainers allow the off-the-charts attraction brewing between them to grow? Or deny it to focus on the things they think are more important and miss a chance at forever?

When Zoe is stuck working with her arch enemy Max in Santa's Village over the holidays, she thinks things can't get any worse. But when Max convinces her to pretend that they're a couple, Zoe quickly realizes that this is going to go down in the books as the worst Christmas ever. Having to fake being Max's girlfriend isn't easy, especially when he's constantly flirting with every other woman beside her. All Zoe wants to do is clobber him over the head with a giant candy cane. But as they spend more time together, Zoe sees a more vulnerable side of Max that almost makes her forget why she hates him so much. Will the spirit of the Christmas season soften Zoe's heart and help her realize that what she feels for Max isn't fake after all?
