Western Voices in Canadian Art Patricia Bovey, 2023-02-03 The story of artists in Western Canada and how they changed the face of Canadian art Listen to the visual voices of artists They tell us so poignantly who we are what we must cherish and what we must address as a society Patricia Bovey Throughout her remarkable career as a gallery director curator and author Patricia Bovey has tirelessly championed the work of Western Canadian artists Western Voices in Canadian Art brings this lifelong passion to a crescendo delivering the most ambitious survey of Western Canadian art to date Beginning with the earliest European trained artists in Western Canada and moving up to present day Bovey amplifies the depth scope and importance of the diverse artists both settler and Indigenous whose distinct voices have contributed to the Western Canadian artistic tradition Bovey then adopts a thematic approach richly informed by her knowledge and experience connecting art and artists through time and across provincial boundaries Insights from Bovey s studio visits and conversations with artists enhance our understandings of the history and trajectory of and impetus for Canadian artistic creation Lavishly illustrated with over 250 works reproduced in full colour Western Voices in Canadian Art is a book that needs to be seen and its artists and art celebrated Maxwell Bates Maxwell Bates, Nancy Townshend, Medicine Hat Museum and Art Gallery, 1982 A History of Art in Alberta, 1905-1970 Nancy Townshend, 2005

Les Graff describes this book as championing two essential ingredients Alberta s fierce independence and individuality of the foundation for Alberta s visual arts while exploring in depth and detail the tremendously broad base of that foundation Townshend s book will serve as a major reference for years to come and be pivotal regarding all future writing in the visual arts of Alberta Maxwell Bates Art Gallery of Greater Victoria, 1966* Journey with No Maps Sandra Djwa, 2012-10-01 Journey with No Maps is the first biography of P K Page a brilliant twentieth century poet and a fine artist The product of over a decade s research and writing the book follows Page as she becomes one of Canada s best loved and most influential writers A borderline being as she called herself she recognized the new choices offered to women by modern life but followed only those related to her quest for self discovery Tracing Page s life through two wars world travels the rise of modernist and Canadian cultures and later Sufi study biographer Sandra Djwa details the people and events that inspired her work Page s independent spirit propelled her from Canada to England from work as a radio actress to a scriptwriter for the National Film Board from an affair with poet F R Scott to an enduring marriage with diplomat Arthur Irwin Page wrote her story in poems fiction diaries librettos and her visual art Journey with No Maps reads like a novel drawing on the poet s voice from interviews diaries letters and writings as well as the voices of her contemporaries With the vividness of a work of fiction and the thoroughness of scholarly dedication Djwa illustrates the complexities of Page s private experience while also documenting her public emergence as an internationally known poet It is both the captivating story of a remarkable woman and a major contribution to the study of Canada s literary and artistic history

Suburban Modern Robert M. Stamp, 2004 While avant garde modernism disrupted the art salons architecture schools and design studios of the world s more sophisticated urban centres in the 20th century Calgary slept through the cultural upheavals as a provincial backwater Calgary s initiation to modernism might be dated to February 13 1947 when Imperial Oil blew in its famous well at Leduc Or the 1948 football season when Tom Brooks and Les Lear wrapped the Calgary Stampeders football team around an innovative and modernist looking T formation backfield to win the Grey Cup Calgarians embraced the modern age after the Second World War taking modernism into the streets and into the suburbs They went beyond art architecture and design and redefined modernism to include homes furniture appliances and cars In the process Calgarians democratized feminized and suburbanized modernism Suburban Modern examines controversies over coloured margarine and mixed drinking in post war Calgary It shows how new petro office buildings transformed the downtown skyline during the 1950s and 1960s and how new bus lines roads and bridges changed the city s transportation network As the city sprawled horizontally to engulf its ever expanding suburbs shoppers deserted downtown for suburban malls The book follows young couples into their post war dream homes with modern furnishings and barbecue appointed patios Suburban Modern argues that the suburbs rather than the downtown defined Calgary s approach to modernism

The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two George Melnyk, 1998 In this the companion to the landmark volume The Literary History of Alberta Volume One From Writing on Stone to World War Two

George Melnyk examines Alberta literature in the second half of the twentieth century At last Melnyk argues Alberta writers have found their voice and their accomplishments have been remarkable The contradictory landscape the stereotypes of the Indian the Mountie and the Cowboy and the language of the Other speaking from the margins these elements all left their impressions on the consciousness of early Alberta But writers in the last few decades have turned this inheritance to their advantage to create compelling stories about this place and its people Today Melnyk discovers Alberta writers can appreciate not only this achievement but also its essential source the symbolic communication of Writing on Stone The Literary History of Alberta Volume Two extends the study of Alberta s cultural history to the present day It is a vital text for anyone interested in Alberta s vibrant literary culture

The Logic of Ecstasy Ann Davis,1992-01-01 None of these painters was motivated solely by mystical concerns each of them also painted works which were of a secular or non spiritual nature None the less they were all deeply interested in and concerned about matters mystical Through a careful examination of the primary documentation Ann Davis looks at the sources of their beliefs in Christianity transcendentalism and theosophy and theories of the fourth dimension and attempts to put some of their major works into new contexts so that familiar paintings can be seen in a new and revealing mystical way
