roaming Tom has grown tired of his vagabond lifestyle and he concludes that there might be some appeal after all in giving up the freedom of street life for a loving home It will take just the right human companion however to make his transformation from Cat About Town to genuine Fur Person possible Sarton s book is one of the most beloved stories ever written about the joys and tribulations inherent in sharing one s life with a cat May Sarton Selected Letters 1955 To 1995 May Sarton,2002-06-04 All her life May Sarton carried on a voluminous private correspondence with family friends and lovers Early childhood into middle age covers topics of theater study travel teaching and the anguish as World War II approaches Later joys of flowers affection for animals and illustrious acquaintances and intimates both here and abroad are shown May Sarton Margot Peters,2011-05-04 The first biography of May Sarton a brilliant revelation of the life and work of a literary figure who influenced her thousands of readers not only by her novels and poetry but by her life and her writings about it May Sarton s career stretched from 1930 early sonnets published in Poetry magazine to 1995 her journal At Eighty Two She wrote more than twenty novels and twenty five books of poems and journals The acclaimed biographer Margot Peters was given full access to Sarton s letters journals and notes and during five years of research came to know Sarton herself the complex woman and artist She gives us a compelling portrait of Sarton the actress the poet the novelist the feminist the writer who struggled for literary acceptance She shows us beneath Sarton s exhilarating irresistible spirit the needy courtier and seducer the woman whose creativity was propelled by the psychic drama she created in others We watch young May at age two as she is abruptly uprooted from her native Belgium by World War I a child ignored both by her mother who was intent on her own artistic vision and reluctant to cope with a child and by her father obsessed with his academic research We see Sarton as a young girl in America and then later at nineteen choosing a life in the theatre landing a job in Eva Le Gallienne s Civic Repertory and gathering what would become a tight knit coterie of friends and lovers Sarton beginning to write poetry and novels Sarton making friends with Elizabeth Bowen and Julian Huxley Erika and Klaus Mann Virginia Woolf the poet H D charming and enlisting them with her work her vitality her hunger for love driven by her need to conquer among her conquests Bowen Huxley and later his wife Juliette We see her intense friendships with literary pals including Muriel Rukeyser her lover and Louise Bogan Sarton s literary sibling who at once encouraged her and excluded her from a world in which Bogan was a central figure We see Sarton begin to create in the spiritual journals that inspired the devotion of readers the image of a strong independent woman who lived peacefully with solitude an image that contradicted the reality of her neediness loneliness and isolation as she pushed away loved ones with her demands and betrayals A fascinating portrait of one of our major literary figures a book that for the first time reveals the life that she herself kept hidden The House by the Sea May Sarton,2014-07-22 The author and poet s graceful elegy about life love work and growing older The most moving and the most thoughtful of her journal memoirs The Plain Dealer Cleveland When May Sarton uprooted her life after fifteen years in the refurbished New Hampshire house with the garden she tended so lovingly

she relied solely on instinct And something told her it was time to move on Accompanied by her wild cat Bramble and Tamas a Shetland shepherd puppy the first dog she ever owned Sarton embarked on the next chapter of her life The house she chose by the sea in the Maine village of York is completely isolated except during the summer months Surrounded by nothing but endless ocean woods and vast skies Sarton experiences a rare sense of peace She creates a new garden and fears that in this tranquil state she may never write again But in her solitude with its occasional interruptions for trips away and visits from friends she realizes that creativity is constantly renewing itself This journal offers fascinating insight into a remarkable woman and the work and friendships that form the twin pillars of her life This ebook features an extended biography of May Sarton

Faithful Are the Wounds May Sarton, 2015-08-18 A professor's suicide is the catalyst for this novel about politics and ideals set at Harvard during the 1950s When Harvard professor Edward Cavan commits suicide by throwing himself under a subway train his death sets off shock waves both across campus and in the hearts of his loved ones To Edward's estranged sister Isabel her brother represented the dangers she sought to escape through the security of marriage His student George Hastings saw in Edward the father he wished he had Damon Phillips shared Edward's idealistic beliefs until his fear of being branded a Communist caused him to betray his friend And Ivan Goldberg knew Edward as a man who would rather die than compromise his beliefs Through the eyes of those he touched Edward comes alive again and we begin to understand who he is and what he stands for With a title that is a metaphor for the embattled lives of 1950s liberals Faithful Are the Wounds is about what it means to be American and human in a world that can affect us on the most profound spiritual and ideological levels It is about how much we are willing to sacrifice for our freedom and what happens when our values are destroyed

Encounter in April May Sarton, 2014-12-23 The debut work of a literary legend May Sarton's career spanned sixty years and included novels poetry memoirs and even children's books but it was poetry that provided the world's first look at her wondrous talent Encounter in April is a fitting starting point for readers wishing to familiarize themselves with one of the twentieth century's most lyrical and eloquent authors In this anthology Sarton describes womanhood devastatingly and unforgettably deftly matching serene imagery with powerful emotion Her sonnets are to be savored Encounter in April is a thesis statement for a lengthy and profound career and Sarton's talent is readily evident from the beginning

Endgame May Sarton, 2015-08-18 A testament to the joys of nature from a courageous and loving woman her cats birds garden and visitors keep her ecstatically anchored in life Publishers Weekly I always imagined a journal that would take me through my seventy ninth year May Sarton writes the doors opening out from old age to unknown efforts and surprises Instead of musing calmly on the philosophical implications of aging the writer found herself spending most of her energy battling for her health Coping with constant pain and increasing frailty Sarton fears that the end is not far off The story of what she calls the last laps of a long distance runner this yearlong journal addresses such familiar Sarton topics as her beloved garden the harshness of Maine winters and the friendships and intimate relationships that have nurtured and sustained her She settles some old literary scores and paints a generous portrait of Virginia Woolf who often shared tea with Sarton during the late 1930s When illness saps Sarton's ability to type she dictates into recorders and has the tapes transcribed by devoted assistants In spite of the loss of independence and the fear that she will never fully recover she does her best to soldier on taking pleasure in small things like a good meal her cat Pierrot who loves the rain and being able to sleep through the night An enduring inspiration to millions of women Sarton even finds the courage to achieve again

Anger May Sarton, 2014-12-16 May Sarton's sharp exploration of how men and women love and how they clash as shown through one tempestuous relationship Ned Fraser has never seen himself as a husband His distinguished job at a Boston bank has kept him satisfied while a string of failed love affairs has concerned him little But no woman has ever affected him the way Anna Lindstrom does A concert singer of immense charm and beauty Anna is possessed of a vibrant presence that stands in stark contrast to Ned's diffidence And yet despite herself she can't help but be drawn to the persistent suitor who plies her with flowers Their courtship is short and intense and the spark that brought them together fuels not only their love but also a needling undercurrent of volatility Her passion and narcissism agitate him while his tempered restraint bores her into resentment Their opposing personalities lead to anger and conflict and ultimately to a crossroads that will either tear their young marriage apart or weave it back together stronger than ever After the Stroke May Sarton, 1988 Author and poet May Sarton chronicles her battles for real life and health after suffering a stroke

Small Room May Sarton, 1976 Beginning her first teaching job at a New England women's college Lucy Winter is embroiled in a scandal that tests the personal and academic lives of teachers and students alike Inner Landscape May Sarton, 2014-12-23 A strong-willed and emotional collection hidden under a well-groomed landscape of words With her debut collection of poems Encounter in April May Sarton made an incredible splash in the world of poetry Her work is impossible to imitate a mix of stately verse and depth of emotion that lurks beneath every line creating a tantalizing magnetically charged distance between reader and poet With Inner Landscape Sarton beckons us forth while eluding easy understanding in a volume that brilliantly walks the line between enticing and satisfying A Reckoning May Sarton, 2014-07-22 In this poignant novel by a New York Times bestselling author a dying woman looks back on the great relationships of her life When she learns that she is dying Laura Spelman vows to spend her final year only on what matters most As she quickly realizes this means coming to terms with her most fruitful and important bonds her real connections all of which have been with women From her tempestuous daughter and beloved aunt to a promising lesbian writer she is mentoring and a cherished friend from her youth Laura revisits her most significant relationships each fraught with its own history and meaning Insightful and witty A Reckoning is an unforgettable portrait of one woman's journey to seize life before it ends and of the power in embracing the fact that the most challenging interactions are often the most rewarding This ebook features an extended biography of May Sarton
