Maya Vonmoos Threedimensional Color Color Organized In Space:

The Unbroken Thread Kathryn Klein, 1997-01-01 Housed in the former 16th century convent of Santo Domingo church now the Regional Museum of Oaxaca Mexico is an important collection of textiles representing the area's indigenous cultures. The collection includes a wealth of exquisitely made traditional weavings many that are now considered rare. The Unbroken Thread: Conserving the Textile Traditions of Oaxaca details a joint project of the Getty Conservation Institute and the National Institute of Anthropology and History INAH of Mexico to conserve the collection and to document current use of textile traditions in daily life and ceremony. The book contains 145 color photographs of the valuable textiles in the collection as well as images of local weavers and project participants at work. Subjects include anthropological research ancient and present day weaving techniques analyses of natural dyestuffs and discussions of the ethical and practical considerations involved in working in Latin America to conserve the materials and practices of living cultures. Artists' Magazines Gwen Allen, 2015-08-21

How artists magazines in all their ephemerality materiality and temporary intensity challenged mainstream art criticism and the gallery system. During the 1960s and 1970s magazines became an important new site of artistic practice functioning as an alternative exhibition space for the dematerialized practices of conceptual art. Artists created works expressly for these mass produced hand editioned pages using the ephemerality and the materiality of the magazine to challenge the conventions of both artistic medium and gallery. In Artists Magazines Gwen Allen looks at the most important of these magazines in their heyday the 1960s to the 1980s and compiles a comprehensive illustrated directory of hundreds of others. Among the magazines Allen examines are Aspen 1965 1971 a multimedia magazine in a box issues included Super 8 films flexi disc records critical writings artists postage stamps and collectible chapbooks Avalanche 1970 1976 which expressed the countercultural character of the emerging SoHo art community through its interviews and artist designed contributions and Real Life 1979 1994 published by Thomas Lawson and Susan Morgan as a forum for the Pictures generation. These and the other magazines Allen examines expressed their differences from mainstream media in both form and content they cast their homemade do it yourself quality against the slickness of an Artforum and they created work that defied the formalist orthodoxy of the day. Artists Magazines featuring abundant color illustrations of magazine covers and content offers an essential guide to a little explored medium. The Language of Architecture Andrea Simitch, Val
