Son of Svea Lena Andersson,2022-02-01 From one of Sweden's most astute cultural critics a razor sharp comedy of the progress and ruin of the industrial welfare state told through the story of a single family Ragnar Johansson is born in 1932 a transformative moment in Swedish history He has Swedish social democracy flowing through his veins convinced it lifted humankind out of the dark ages and into modernity he cherishes it At times Ragnar despises his mother Svea whose perpetual baking scrubbing and canning represent the poverty of the peasantry Ragnar for his part hails the efficiency of washing machines and prefab food Once he has children himself he raises them in accordance with his values standing in the ski track supporting his daughter Elsa as she works hard to become one of the best skiers in the country While Svea is a relic of the past Elsa represents hope for the future In time however Ragnar realizes that the world is changing Is his golden age coming to an end In Son of Svea Lena Andersson offers a characteristically funny wise and moving family chronicle about the social transformations that unite and divide us and about finding the courage to be true to oneself

French Feminism Reader Kelly Oliver, 2000 French Feminism Reader is a collection of essays representing the authors and issues from French theory most influential in the American context The book is designed for use in courses and it includes illuminating introductions to the work of each author These introductions include biographical information influences and intellectual context major themes in the author's work as a whole and specific introductions to the selections in this volume The contributors represent the two trends in French theory that have proven most useful to American feminists social theory and psychoanalytic theory Both of these trends move away from any traditional discussions of nature toward discussions of socially constructed notions of sex sexuality and gender roles While feminists interested in social theory focus on the ways in which social institutions shape these notions feminists interested in psychoanalytic theory focus on cultural representations of sex sexuality and gender roles and the ways that they affect the psyche This collection includes selections by Simone de Beauvoir Christine Delphy Colette Guillaumin Monique Wittig Michele Le Doeuff Julia Kristeva Luce Irigaray and Helene Cixous

The Girl and the Game M. Ann Hall, 2016-01-01 In this new edition of her groundbreaking social history The Girl and the Game 2002 M Ann Hall updates her lively narrative of how women resisted masculine hegemony in Canadian sport and in turn how their efforts were opposed and sometimes supported by men The second edition of The Girl and the Game begins with an important new chapter on aboriginal women and their interaction with early sport and ends with a new chapter on how trends and issues facing contemporary women in Canadian sport have their origins in the past Other new sections focus on gender and the residential school system the promotion of women's track and field the 1928 summer Olympics and the Matchless Six and aboriginal sportswomen As in the first edition Hall introduces her audience to more obscure Canadian female athletes rather than focusing her discussion on household names The introduction to the new edition has been updated to reflect the content changes in the narrative To increase appeal to the course market chapter titles are more descriptive the text has been revised to include more subsections and the 52 black and white images are placed throughout the text

The Prisoner of Sex Norman Mailer, 1971      Flight and Metamorphosis Nelly

Sachs, 2021-10-19 This central collection by the poet dramatist and Nobel laureate Nelly Sachs newly translated from the German by Joshua Weiner with Linda B Parshall reveals the visionary poet's remarkable power of creation and transformation So far out in the open cushioned in sleep In flight from the land with love's heavy luggage A butterfly zone of dreams like an open parasol held up against the truth Flight and Metamorphosis marks the culmination of Nelly Sachs's development as a poet Sachs who was awarded the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1966 speaks from her own condition as a refugee from Nazi Germany her loneliness while living in a small Stockholm flat with her elderly mother her exile her alienation her feelings of romantic bereavement and her search for the divine Forced onto a journey of endless change Sachs created her own path forward From these sublime poems she emerges as a visionary one who harnesses language's essential power to create and transform our world Joshua Weiner's translations are the first in more than half a century to elucidate Sachs's enduring poetic power and relevance

The Music of Franz Schmidt: The orchestral music Harold Truscott, 1984 A major step in the rediscovery of one of the towering composers of the twentieth century this brings to Schmidt's music the scholarship it so richly merits Franz Schmidt is increasingly being recognised as a major composer His music covers symphonies quartets opera and oratorio and works and organ In all of these genres he proves himself a master of large scale symphonic form and one of the most substantial lyric geniuses of all time Schmidt spent most of his life in Austria he died in Vienna in 1939 where his importance was universally agreed Here Harold Truscott the outstanding authority on Schmidt in the English speaking world examines the orchestral works taking the reader and listener through each of these mighty scores Introduced by the Personal Recollections of Hans Keller who knew Schmidt well in pre World War II Vienna the book also features the first ever translation into English of Schmidt's Autobiographical Sketch where the composer tells of his early childhood in Hungary his teenage years near Vienna and his life as a cellist in the Vienna Philharmonic HAROLD TRUSCOTT is a composer and writer He was Principal Lecturer in Music at Huddersfield Polytechnic and has performed widely as a pianist in recital broadcast and concert work

Being and Nothingness Jean-Paul Sartre, 1969 This monumental book regarded by many as Sartre's greatest achievement is one of the most influential philosophical works of the 20th century In it Sartre set out his fundamental views on philosophy and laid the foundations of existentialism

The Shadow of Marriage Katherine Holden, 2010 Newly available in paperback this book examines representations and experiences of men and women who never married between 1914 and 1960 drawing upon an exceptionally wide range of sources including biographies oral histories novels films government statistics and social surveys The book discusses the significance of age generation and gender in work and non familial lifestyles and unmarried men and women's intimate sexual familial and professional relationships Important questions are raised as to how these categories have been defined and power relations between married and single people are exposed Examining the boundaries of the nuclear family in the mid twentieth century the book highlights the high level of involvement in children's care and education by unmarried women as well as largely invisible relationships between children and unmarried men As the first major study of the history of single people in England this will be a valuable resource for researchers and students in social history gender studies women s studies social policy and sociology
