Njinga of Angola Linda M. Heywood,2017-02-27 The fascinating story of arguably the greatest queen in sub Saharan African history who surely deserves a place in the pantheon of revolutionary world leaders Henry Louis Gates Jr Though largely unknown in the West the seventeenth century African queen Njinga was one of the most multifaceted rulers in history a woman who rivaled Queen Elizabeth I in political cunning and military prowess In this landmark book based on nine years of research and drawing from missionary accounts letters and colonial records Linda Heywood reveals how this legendary queen skillfully navigated and ultimately transcended the ruthless male dominated power struggles of her time Queen Njinga of Angola has long been among the many heroes whom black diasporians have used to construct a pantheon and a usable past Linda Heywood gives us a different Njinga one brimming with all the qualities that made her the stuff of legend but also full of all the interests and inclinations that made her human A thorough serious and long overdue study of a fascinating ruler Njinga of Angola is an essential addition to the study of the black Atlantic world Ta Nehisi Coates This fine biography attempts to reconcile her political acumen with the human sacrifices infanticide and slave trading by which she consolidated and projected power New Yorker Queen Njinga was by far the most successful of African rulers in resisting Portuguese colonialism Tactically pious and unhesitatingly murderous a commanding figure in velvet slippers and elephant hair ripe for big screen treatment and surely as our social media age puts it one badass woman Karen Shook Times Higher Education

Memorializing the Unsung Elochukwu Uzukwu, C.S.Sp., 2024-06-05 By the time the Capuchins arrived in the seventeenth century Kongo had been Catholic for nearly two hundred years The European mission could not be conversion then but reinforcement the Capuchins sought to establish the sacraments and a line to Rome in a lay led church already suffused with an enduring creative and complex theological culture In Memorializing the Unsung Elochukwu Uzukwu uses the framework of this ancient Kongo Catholicism to explore European dependence on enslaved Kongo Catholics and the unconscionable Capuchin and Spiritan participation in the slave trade at large a practice denounced by the lone voices of Capuchin Epifanio de Moirans and Spiritan Alexandre Monnet Reconstructing the church that missionaries and Kongo Catholics built together on the foundations of local religion Memorializing the Unsung contrasts the dignity denied the Kongo Catholics with the freedom they nonetheless performed Uzukwu is particularly deft in tracing the agency of Kongo elites and laypeople from the fifteenth century through the nineteenth carefully evaluating their deliberate engagements with southern Europeans the role of the maestri translator catechists in guiding the faithful and the ultimate development of a unique theological vocabulary endorsed by the Kikongo catechism Without the support and creativity of these unsung lay Catholics across west central and eastern Africa Uzukwu shows the European missions in the region would have failed Even while enslaved the Kongo Slaves of the Church and the eastern African Slaves of the Mission served as mediators co creators and reinventors of their world The Report of the British and Foreign Bible Society British and Foreign Bible Society, 1901 Vols 1 64 include extracts from correspondence Man, Know Thyself Rick Duncan, 2013-07-09 Man Know Thyself is perhaps one of the world s oldest and most important sayings This adage was originally coined by Imhotep the world s first multi genius and perhaps the greatest creative mortal individual who ever lived Imhotep lived over five and a half thousand years ago from our present age It must be said immediately that Imhotep was an African He is among our first Notable Ancestors Considering Imhotep s instruction it means that as individuals as a family collectively as a people a community a society or a nation we should know ourselves that is who we are This includes knowledge of who spawned us where we have been and where we currently are Knowing this as our Notable Ancestor and Grandmaster Teacher Baba Dr John Henrik Clarke has said will tell us who we are and where we must get to Who we are is dependent on who we were Who we were should determine who we should be To emphasise the point Marcus Garvey another of our most important Notable Ancestors frequently reiterated this advice when he reminded us that our first obligation is to know ourselves He told us that we should make our knowledge about us so complete so as to make it impossible for others to take advantage of us He told us that in order to know ourselves we must know who our Ancestors were and what they achieved We would then realize who we are and what we are capable of achieving This is the meaning of the African adage and Sankofa symbol of looking back in order to go forward The importance of knowing our ancestors has been summed up in an old Native American saying that It is the spirit of our ancestors that should guide our path There is a sense however that Africans have forgotten our ancestors Because of this there is no spirit to guide us and so Africans are lost and confused The roots of African spirituality and culture have been made redundant Yet as Dr Clarke points out the umbilicord that tied Africans to our spiritual and cultural roots have only been stretched It has never been broken It is for Africans to come to this realization and to rediscover the spirit of our ancestors This volume lists some of our Notable Ancestors in the hope that knowledge about them and their achievements will aid some of us in understanding where we have been who we presently are and consequently who we must become Ultimately it is hoped that we may use this knowledge to reconnect with the spirit of our Ancestors and let them be our guide This volume is based on the truth about Africans and therefore correcting what is told about us This corrective knowledge of us is important because as Imhotep said Know the truth and the truth shall set you free This means being free to interpret our own story and to define who we are This is crucial because although history is a witness to the truths history has been stolen by others who have hidden the truths about us History has never been true or kind to Africans and therefore it cannot tell us about us Yet as Peter Tosh intimated we cannot come to a consciousness of ourselves of who we are if we do not know the truths about us History has been described as the Queen of the academic subjects So important is History that it is said that whoever controls history controls the future In one sense education in general and history in particular is about teaching us who we are History teaches who we are so as to help us to know where we belong in our community or society Africans cannot know where we belong in society however because our story has been told by others those who own history Africans are therefore unaware of who we are because what is known about us is not the truth about us The story of Africans the oldest people on earth like the history of the world is taught by others Yet these others came into the world thousands of years after Africans had already established great civ
