Five Years in the Royal Flying Corps James Thomas Byford McCudden, 1919 Forfatteren beretter om sin tid i Royal Flying Corps herunder oplevelserne som pilot under 1 verdenskrig VCs of the First World War: The Air VCs Peter G. Cooksley, Peter F. Batchelor, 2014-04-07 Of more than 600 Victoria Crosses awarded to British and Empire servicemen during the First World War nineteen were awarded to airmen of the newly formed Royal Flying Corps and Royal Naval Air Service Of these four were posthumous awards and all but one of the total were to officers Some of these valorous airmen were from humble backgrounds and with limited education others were collegiate men from wealthy families but in the words of one senior officer they all had in common the guts of a lion McCudden, V. C. Christopher Cole, 1967 Kent VCs Roy Ingleton, 2011-12-01 As one might expect from a county with the motto Invicta Unconquered Kent has produced her fair share of military heroes Here Roy Ingleton honors 50 of those who have been awarded the nation's highest decoration for valor in the line of duty The book is divided into sections according to the conflicts in which the awards were earned each beginning with a concise historical overview to set the context for these acts of heroism From the Crimea thus some of the earliest VCs ever awarded through to the Second World War the entries encompass many of the most famous episodes in British military history and are drawn from all three services Meet heroes such as Sergeant Major Wooden of the 17th Lancers and surgeon Sir James Mouat who were granted VCs for their part in the Charge of the Light Brigade Battle of Balaclava 1857 Captain Walter Norris Congreve who helped to save the guns at Colenso 1899 Lieutenant Philip Neame scion of Kent's famous brewing family and the only man to win both an Olympic gold medal and a VC Neuve Chapelle 1914 Major James McCudden the leading British fighter ace of WWI and probably Kent's most famous VC winner France 1917 18 Lieutenant Commander George Bradford RN Zeebrugge Raid 1918 Sergeant Thomas Durrant No 1 Commando St Nazaire 1942 and Lance Corporal John Harman Battle of Kohima 1944 The nation holds a special place in its heart for winners of the Victoria Cross and this book is sure to inspire not only those who are lucky enough to call Kent home but anyone interested in British military history Forgotten Voices of the Victoria Cross Roderick Bailey, The Imperial War Museum, 2010-10-14 It wasn't until after he was safely back in the aircraft again that I heard that he'd actually been out on the wing to try to put the fire out Remember that we were flying at about 90 miles an hour at a height of 13 000 feet Squadron Leader RP Widdowson on Sergeant James Ward who earned his VC in 1941 The Victoria Cross awarded to the most courageous and determined servicemen is the highest military decoration that can be bestowed In Forgotten Voices Victoria Cross first hand accounts of soldiers sailors and airmen describe the incredible events that earned these extraordinary men the VC in the last century Captivating and often humbling these stories depict exceptional acts of bravery in unimaginable situations of men who would say they were just doing their duty Introduction by General Sir Richard Dannatt Aeronautics, 1918 Report Commonwealth Shipping Committee, 1920 Aeroplane, 1918 The Aeroplane and

McInnes,J. V. Webb,2012-03-30 Many books have been written about pilots of the Royal Flying Corps but the men on the ground who kept the planes in the air and the guns firing have been sadly neglected and yet their role was a vital one This truly remarkable book the production of which must have seemed an impossible task has more than remedied the situation The authors have managed to locate all the non commissioned airmen who enlisted in the RFC prior to the outbreak of war in August 1914 and for each one they have provided a mini biography The length of each entry varies available records being what they are but detail is provided for over 1 400 men For those who became pilots details of their certificates are given Statistics include the establishment of the Corps at various times and there is a list of non commissioned ranks as well as notes on uniforms badges etc There is a full record of works consulted at the Public Record Office and an excellent bibliography The Outlook ,1919 German and Austro-Hungarian Aircraft Manufacturers 1908-1918 Terry C. Lost Gillingham Philip MacDougall, 2024-11-15 Fully illustrated description of Gillingham's well known and lesser known places that have been lost over the years

Fighter Aces John Sadler, Rosie Serdiville, 2017-08-19 A readable and entertaining introduction to aerial combat in the series that would be excellent for someone with an early interest in military history Army Rumour Service Just over a decade after the first successful powered flight fearless pioneers were flying over the battlefields of France in flimsy biplanes Though the infantry in their muddy trenches might see aerial combat as glorious and chivalric the reality was very different and undeniably deadly new Royal Flying Corps subalterns in 1917 had a life expectancy of eleven days In 1915 the term ace was coined to denote a pilot adept at downing enemy aircraft and top aces like the Red Baron Ren Fonck and Billy Bishop became household names The idea of the ace continued after the 1918 Armistice but as the size of air forces increased the prominence of the ace diminished But still the pilots who swirled and danced in Hurricanes and Spitfires over southern England in 1940 were and remain feted as the Few who stood between Britain and invasion Flying aircraft advanced beyond the wildest dreams of Great War pilots the top fighter aces of World War II would accrue hundreds of kills though their life expectancy was still measured in weeks not years World War II cemented the vital role of air power and postwar innovation gave fighter pilots jet powered fighters enabling them to pursue duels over huge areas above modern battlefields This entertaining introduction explores the history and cult of the fighter ace from the first pilots through late twentieth century conflicts which leads to discussion of whether the era of the fighter ace is at an end Collision of Empires A. D. Harvey, 1993-07-01 The only previous war to match the world wars of the twentieth century in scale and impact was the French War of 1793 1815 This book is the first book to compare these conflicts which together shaped the history of the modern world A D Harvey relates the causes conduct and outcome of these wars to the fundamental nature of the societies which fought them Political decisions economic power and social attitudes interfaced with the demands of military technology to determine the outcome of each case Britain is the centre of focus but is seen against a background of the other combatants Harvey s ability to make large scale generalisations is backed up by a wealth of fascinating and carefully documented detail making this outstanding and exceptionally well written book a pleasure to read The author has tackled a huge subject and has not been afraid to face up to either its complexities or its implications By asking new questions and using a range of unfamiliar sources this book provides an unusually profound analysis not only of these wars but also of the nature of modern society and of our understanding of the past
