Secondary Textbook Review ,1988 This book is intended as a resource for teachers and curriculum developers who select textbooks for secondary English courses It includes a compilation of 32 factual textbook reviews obtained from the application of a review instrument which was based on the California Model Curriculum Standards Grades Nine through Twelve English Language Arts and the English Language Arts Framework for California Public Schools Kindergarten through Grade Twelve The instrument described in the book was applied to selected English composition grammar and reading literature textbooks The book suggests that the resulting reviews can be used by teachers as a screening device to reduce the number of books they review and pilot studies they conduct thus educators will have more time to do in depth reviews of two or three textbooks which appear to match their course requirements and their students academic needs The book also states that the review instrument can be adapted by districts to reflect their own English objectives and test results Every review in the book includes two parts and a publisher s description which appears in the Appendix a section which depicts the extent to which the emphasis on content and process is given to each of the topics in the textbooks reviewed and a section which includes topics on content and processes which might be found only in teachers editions The book does not make assessments regarding the quality of the books reviewed but rather provides information which teachers may find useful in making quality judgments and selecting specific textbooks for English programs SR Vocabulary Workshop Lee Odell,2000-07 Fifth course John E. Warriner,1982 English Composition and Grammar John E. Warriner,1988 A Natural History of Nature Writing Frank Stewart,2012-07-11 A Natural History of Nature Writing is a penetrating overview of the origins and development of a uniquely American literature Essayist and poet Frank Stewart describes in rich and compelling prose the lives and works of the most prominent American nature writers of the 19th and 20th centuries including Henry D Thoreau the father of American nature writing John Burroughs a schoolteacher and failed businessman who found his calling as a writer and elevated the nature essay to a loved and respected literary form John Muir founder of Sierra Club who celebrated the wilderness of the Far West as few before him had Aldo Leopold a Forest Service employee and scholar who extended our moral responsibility to include all animals and plants Rachel Carson a scientist who raised the consciousness of the nation by revealing the catastrophic effects of human intervention on the Earth's living systems Edward Abbey an outspoken activist who charted the boundaries of ecological responsibility and pushed these boundaries to political extremes Stewart highlights the controversies ignited by the powerful and eloquent prose of these and other writers with their expansive and often strongly political points of view Combining a deeply felt sense of wonder at the beauty surrounding us with a rare ability to capture and explain the meaning of that beauty nature writers have had a profound effect on American culture and politics A Natural History of Nature Writing is an insightful examination of an important body of American literature
