Lavergne,2001-11-19 Examines the life of serial killer Kenneth McDuff The Eternal Husband Fyodor Dostoevsky,2012-11-06 The most monstrous monster is the monster with noble feelings This remarkably edgy and suspenseful tale shows that despite being better known for his voluminous and sprawling novels Fyodor Dostoevsky was a master of the more tightly focused form of the novella The Eternal Husband may in fact constitute his most classically shaped composition with his most devilish plot a man answers a late night knock on the door to find himself in a tense and puzzling confrontation with the husband of a former lover but it isn't clear if the husband knows about the affair What follows is one of the most beautiful and piercing considerations ever written about the dualities of love a dazzling psychological duel between the two men over knowledge they may or may not share bringing them both to a shattering conclusion The Art of The Novella Series Too short to be a novel too long to be a short story the novella is generally unrecognized by academics and publishers Nonetheless it is a form beloved and practiced by literature's greatest writers In the Art Of The Novella series Melville House celebrates this renegade art form and its practitioners with titles that are in many instances presented in book form for the first time Natural Saints Mallory D. McDuff,2010 The urgent task of conserving our natural resources demands the work of many A large majority of the U S population is affiliated with Christian denominations At a time when the churches are becoming increasingly politically engaged this community represents an important potential source of environmental activism This book presents the concrete evidence that churches and faith organizations are reconnecting with conservation and working to save the natural world On a national level the National Council of Churches which represents 45 million people in a wide range of Protestant Anglican and Orthodox faith groups has instituted an Eco Justice Program The program sponsors such initiatives as Churches for the Chesapeake a consortium working to protect the resources of Chesapeake Bay On the local level individual churches like St Mark's Episcopal Cathedral in Seattle have integrated creation care into the core values of the congregation Through interviews and field visits across the country McDuff uses a framework of five bioregions in which to present the responses of churches to pressing environmental issues She shows that the local congregation is the right vehicle for connecting social and environmental justice in a community Despite the growth of this movement she argues most environmental professionals are unaware of the power of this partnership between Christians and conversation This book is meant to help bring churches faith organizations and environmental activists together in the service of this vital cause Bad Boy from Rosebud Gary M.
