McLuhan Or Modernism In Reverse:

McLuhan, Or Modernism in Reverse Glenn Willmott, 1996-04-26 The book is divided into two parts representing modern and postmodern periods Willmott examines McLuhan's relationship to critical and aesthetic modernism and political and historical sense of modernity in North America from the early 1930s to the 1950s

Modernism and Its Media Chris Forster, 2021-11-18 From cinema and radio broadcasting to the growth of new communication technologies Modernism and Its Media is the first critical guide to key issues and debates on the changing media contexts of modernist writing Topics covered include Key thinkers including Walter Benjamin Theodor Adorno and Marshall McLuhan Modernist film from Eisenstein to the French New Wave cinema Modernism and mass culture The history of modernist media and communication technologies Modernism's legacies for contemporary new media art With case studies covering such topics as the film writings of Joyce Woolf and Eliot popular art and kitsch the Frankfurt School and the rise of the gramophone this is an essential guide for students and scholars researching the relationship between modernism and mass media

Digital Modernism Jessica Pressman, 2014-01-03 While most critical studies of born digital literature celebrate it as a postmodern art form with roots in contemporary technologies and social interactions Digital Modernism provides an alternative genealogy Grounding her argument in literary history media studies and the practice of close reading Jessica Pressman pairs modernist works by Ezra Pound James Joyce and Bob Brown with major digital works like William Poundstone's Project for the Tachistoscope Bottomless Pit Young hae Chang Heavy Industries's Dakota and Judd Morrissey's The Jew's Daughter to demonstrate how the modernist movement of the 1920s and 1930s laid the groundwork for the innovations of electronic literature Accordingly Digital Modernism makes the case for considering these digital creations as literature and argues for the value of reading them carefully closely and within literary history

Marshall McLuhan's Mosaic Elena Lamberti, 2012-02-28 One hundred years after Marshall McLuhan's birth Elena Lamberti explores a fundamental yet neglected aspect of his work the solid humanistic roots of his original mosaic form of writing In this investigation of how his famous communication theories were influenced by literature and the arts Lamberti proposes a new approach to McLuhan's thought Lamberti delves into McLuhan's humanism in light of his work on media and culture exploring how he began to perceive literature not just as a subject but a function inseparable from communal existence Lamberti pays particular attention to the central role played by Modernism in the making of his theories including the writings of Ford Madox Ford James Joyce Ezra Pound and Wyndham Lewis Reconnecting McLuhan with his literary past Marshall McLuhan's Mosaic is a demonstration of one of his greatest ideas that literature not only matters but can help us understand the hidden patterns that rule our environment

Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye B.W. Powe, 2014-04-30 Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye are two of Canada's central cultural figures colleagues and rivals whose careers unfolded in curious harmony even as their intellectual engagement was antagonistic Poet novelist essayist and philosopher B W Powe who studied with both of these formidable and influential intellectuals presents an exploration of their lives and work in Marshall McLuhan and Northrop Frye Apocalypse and Alchemy Powe considers the existence of a unique visionary tradition of Canadian humanism and argues that McLuhan and Frye represent fraught but complementary approaches to the study of literature and to the broader engagement with culture Examining their eloquent but often acid responses to each other Powe exposes the scholarly controversies and personal conflicts that erupted between them and notably the great commonalities in their writing and biographies Using interviews letters notebooks and their published texts Powe offers a new alchemy of their thought in which he combines the philosophical hallmarks of McLuhan's The medium is the message and Frye's The great code

Avant-Garde Canadian Literature Gregory Betts, 2013-02-27 In Avant Garde Canadian Literature Gregory Betts draws attention to the fact that the avant garde has had a presence in Canada long before the country's literary histories have recognized and that the radicalism of avant garde art has been sabotaged by pedestrian terms of engagement by the Canadian media the public and the literary critics This book presents a rich body of evidence to illustrate the extent to which Canadians have been producing avant garde art since the start of the twentieth century Betts explores the radical literary ambitions and achievements of three different nodes of avant garde literary activity mystical revolutionaries from the 1910s to the 1930s Surrealists Automatists from the 1920s to the 1960s and Canadian Vorticists from the 1920s to the 1970s Avant Garde Canadian Literature offers an entrance into the vocabulary of the ongoing and primarily international debate surrounding the idea of avant gardism providing readers with a functional vocabulary for discussing some of the most hermetic and yet energetic literature ever produced in this country

Gramophone, Film, Typewriter Friedrich A. Kittler, 1999 On history of communication

Mass Media James B. Martin, 2002 Mass media has become an integral part of the human experience News travels around the world in a split second affecting people in other countries in untold ways Although being on top of the news may be good at least for news junkies mass media also transmits values or the lack thereof condenses complex events and thoughts to simplified sound bites and often ignores the essence of an event or story The selective bibliography gathers the books and magazine literature over the previous ten years while providing access through author title and subject indexes cultural meanings of this art why it emerged why it mattered and why it eventually disappeared History, Literature and the Writing of the Canadian Prairies Alison Calder, Robert Wardhaugh, 2005-05-16 The Canadian Prairie has long been represented as a timeless and unchanging location defined by settlement and landscape Now a new generation of writers and historians challenge that perception and argue instead that it is a region with an evolving culture and history In a collection of ten essays History Literature and the Writing of the Canadian Prairies explores a more contemporary prairie identity and reconfigures the prairie as a construct that is non linear and diverse responding to the impact of geographical historical and political currents These writers explore the connections between document and imagination between history and culture and between geography and time The subjects of the essays range widely the non linear structure of Carol Shield s The Stone Diaries the impact of Aberhart s Social Credit Marshall McLuhan and Mesopotamian myth on Robert Kroetsch s prairie postmodernism the role of document in long prairie poems the connection between cultural tourism and heritage the theme of regeneration in Margaret Laurence s Manawaka writing the influence of imagination on geography in Thomas Wharton s Icefields and the effects on an alpine climber of pre WWII ideological concepts of time and individualism The Canadian Modernists Meet Dean Jay Irvine, Dean Irvine, 2005 The Canadian Modernists Meet is a collection of new critical essays on major and rediscovered Canadian writers of the early to mid twentieth century F R Scott s well known poem The Canadian Authors Meet sets the theme for the volume a revisiting of English Canada s formative movements in modernist poetry fiction and drama As did Scott s poem Dean Irvine s collection raises questions about modernism and antimodernism nationalism and antinationalism gender and class originality and influence that remain central to contemporary research on early to mid twentieth century English Canadian literature The Canadian Modernists Meet is the first collection of its kind a gathering of texts by literary critics textual editors biographers literary historians and art historians whose collective research contributes to the study of modernism in Canada The collection stages a major reassessment of the origins and development of modernist literature in Canada its relationship to international modernist literature its regional variations its gender and class inflections and its connections to visual art architecture and film It presents a range of scholarly perspectives drawing upon the multidisciplinary that characterizes the international field of modernist studies Published in English Communication as Culture, Revised Edition James W. Carey, 2008-10-22 In this classic text James W Carey maintains that communication is not merely the transmission of information reminding the reader of the link between the words communication and community he broadens his definition to include the drawing together of a people that is culture In this context Carey questions the American tradition of focusing only on mass communication s function as a means of social and political control and makes a case for examining the content of a communication the meaning of symbols not only the motives that originate them or the purposes they serve He seeks to recast the goal of communication studies replacing the search for deterministic laws of behavior with a simpler yet far more challenging mission to enlarge the human conversation by comprehending what others are saying This new edition includes a new critical foreword by G Stuart Adam that explains Carey s fundamental role in transforming the study of mass communication to include a cultural perspective and connects his classic essays with contemporary media issues and trends This edition also adds a new complete bibliography of all of Carey s writings

Governing Turbulence, Risk and Opportunities in the Complexity Age Guglielmo Chiodi, Antonio Bazilio Floriani Neto, Enrique Caceres Niet, 2018-11-23 The book is composed of several articles that explore complexity in its most varied aspects The solution of contemporary problems whatever they may be requires a multifaceted vision far beyond the reductionist perspective The study of complex systems however does not have the capacity to offer ready answers to the challenges of humanity On the contrary it points to the increase in uncertainty the need to control variables and uncertainty This does not mean therefore that we should simply ignore the social economic and political phenomena that are all around us What this book demonstrates is the importance of knowledge being disseminated and it is imperative that different sciences exchange ideas theories and breakthroughs Marshall McLuhan: Theoretical elaborations Gary Genosko, 2004

McLuhan's Global Village Today Angela Krewani, 2015-10-06 Marshall McLuhan was one of the leading media theorists of the twentieth century This collection of essays explores the many facets of McLuhan s work from a transatlantic perspective balancing applied case studies with theoretical discussions Annual Bibliography of the History of the Printed Book and Libraries Dept. of Special Collections of the Koninklijke Bibliotheek, 1999-08-31 This twenty seventh volume of ABHB Annual bibliography of the history of the printed book and libraries contains 5076 records selected from some 1000 periodicals the list of which follows this introduction They have been compiled by the National Committees of the following countries Arab Countries Italy Australia Latin America Austria Latvia Lithuania Belarus Belgium Luxembourg Bulgaria Mexico The Netherlands Canada Croatia Poland Estonia Portugal Finland Rumania France Russia Germany South Africa Great Britain Spain Hungary Sweden Switzerland Iceland Ukraine Ireland Israel USA Benevolent readers are requested to signal the names of bibliographers and historians from countries not mentioned above who would be willing to co operate to this scheme of international bibliographic collaboration The editor will greatly appreciate any communication on this matter Subject As has been said in the introduction to the previous volumes this bibliography aims at recording all books and articles of scholarly value which relate to the history of the printed book to the history of the arts crafts techniques and equipment and of the economic social and cultural environment involved in its production distribution conservation and description Of course the ideal of a complete coverage is nearly impossible to attain However it is the policy of this publication to include missing items as VIII INTRODUCTION much as possible in the forthcoming volumes The same applies to countries newly added to the bibliography McLuhan in Space Richard Cavell, 2002-01-01 Demonstrates how McLuhan extended insights derived from advances in physics and artistic experimentation into a theory of acoustic space which he then used to challenge the assumptions of visual space that had been produced through print culture Historical

Modernisms Jean-Michel Rabaté, Angeliki Spiropoulou, 2021-10-21 Examining the ways in which modernism is created within specific historical contexts as well as how it redefines the concept of history itself this book sheds new light on the historical mindedness of modernism and the artistic avant gardes Cutting across Anglophone and less explored European traditions and featuring work from a variety of eminent scholars it deals with issues as diverse as artistic medium modernist print culture autobiography as history writing avant garde experimentations and modernism s futurity Contributors examine both literary and artistic modernism combining theoretical overviews and archival research with case studies of Anglophone as well as European modernism which speak to the current historicizing trend in modernist and literary studies

'Post'-9/11 South Asian Diasporic Fiction P. Liao, 2012-12-07 While much of the critical discussion about the emerging genre of 9 11 fiction has centred on the trauma of 9 11 and on novels by EuroAmerican writers this book draws attention to the diversity of what might be meant by post 9 11 by exploring the themes of uncanny terror through a close reading of four post 9 11 South Asian diasporic fictions
