McMaster's Commercial Cases James Smith McMaster, 1913      McMaster's Commercial Cases for the Banker, Treasurer and Credit Man James Smith McMaster, 1919      McMaster's Commercial Cases. Current Business Law from the Decisions of the Highest Courts of the Several States James Smith McMaster, 1916      Books in Print, 1991      Reframing Trauma M. Jan Holton, Jill L. Snodgrass, 2025-04-08 As awareness of the widespread presence of trauma grows popular culture can name everything stressful traumatic Yet diagnostic definitions of trauma overlook cultural understandings that refine our conceptualization of trauma M Jan Holton and Jill L Snodgrass argue for a theory and theology of trauma to navigate such complexities In Reframing Trauma Holton and Snodgrass compile essays that expand our understanding of trauma as a stress trauma continuum The volume engages the challenges of racism eco violence and myriad sociopolitical and interpersonal injustices that injure individuals communities and the globe Each essay is grounded in a strength based approach to trauma and contextualizes our societal negativity bias within spiritual values of hope growth and resilience Meanwhile the understanding of a trauma stress continuum avoids diminishing the suffering that emerges from stress and trauma of all kinds Holton and Snodgrass also offer a reframed theology of trauma The volume mines Christian theology and wisdom from other faith traditions for insight into interpersonal and communal woundedness that paradoxically both expands and narrows our understandings of trauma This exploration helps identify implications for spiritually integrated care and counseling chaplaincy and pastoral education The result is a groundbreaking understanding of stress and trauma as an ever evolving concept that is imbued with theological and spiritual wisdom Such wisdom eschews the limitations of Western understandings of trauma This wisdom offers insight into how stressful and traumatic experiences can be both life limiting and life giving both despair inducing and the impetus for growth and resilience Reframing Trauma will engage educators in pastoral and practical theology spirituality and psychology care practitioners in congregational and healthcare settings and clinical mental health professionals who offer spiritually integrated care Likewise trained Christian laity will find the book an invaluable resource for cultivating an inclusive and meaningful understanding of trauma in their congregational caregiving

Sport, Violence and Society Kevin Young, 2013-06-17 Is violence an intrinsic component of contemporary sport How does violence within sport reflect upon the attitudes of wider society In this landmark study of violence in and around contemporary sport Kevin Young offers the first comprehensive sociological analysis of an issue of central importance within sport studies The book explores organized and spontaneous violence both on the field and off and calls for a much broader definition of sports related violence to include issues as diverse as criminal behaviour by players abuse within sport and exploitative labor practices Offering a sophisticated new theoretical framework for understanding violence in a sporting context and including a wide range of case studies and empirical data from professional soccer in Europe to ice hockey in North America the book establishes a benchmark for the study of violence within sport and wider society Through close examination of often contradictory trends from anti violence initiatives in professional sports leagues to the role of the media in encouraging hyper aggression the book throws new light on our understanding of the socially embedded character of sport and its fundamental ties to history culture politics social class gender and the law

Ordnance Survey and Modern Irish Literature C  il  n Parsons, 2016-04-15 The Ordnance Survey and Modern Irish Literature offers a fresh new look at the origins of literary modernism in Ireland tracing a history of Irish writing through James Clarence Mangan J M Synge W B Yeats James Joyce and Samuel Beckett Beginning with the archives of the Ordnance Survey which mapped Ireland between 1824 and 1846 the book argues that one of the sources of Irish modernism lies in the attempt by the Survey to produce a comprehensive archive of a land emerging rapidly into modernity The Ordnance Survey instituted a practice of depicting the country as modern fragmented alienated and troubled both diagnosing and representing a landscape burdened with the paradoxes of colonial modernity Subsequent literature returns in varying ways both imitative and combative to the complex representational challenge that the Survey confronts and seeks to surmount From a colonial mapping project to an engine of nationalist imagining and finally a framework by which to evade the claims of the postcolonial nation the Ordnance Survey was a central imaginative source of what makes Irish modernist writing both formally innovative and politically challenging Drawing on literary theory studies of space the history of cartography postcolonial theory archive theory and the field Irish Studies The Ordnance Survey and Modern Irish Literature paints a picture of Irish writing deeply engaged in the representation of a multi layered landscape 1830-1841 John Bach McMaster, 1914

Discourses on Violence and Punishment Kre  imir Petkovi  , 2017-07-27 This book brings together various discourses concerned with violence and punishment paying special attention to the extreme variations of these phenomena Starting from a narrow definition of violence as an infliction of physical harm paired with a broad discussion of its causes and a wide definition of punishment as an authority claim to retribution or reform the book maps and interprets political theoretical discourses on the death penalty historical explanations of the changes of violence and punishment and comparative differences in punishment It also puts violence and punishment into perspective with political power world religions literature and film and criminological theory The final chapter changes the perspective taken in the bulk of the book dealing with discourses of theodicy in the face of cases of extreme violence and suffering By juxtaposing many unusual discourses the book attempts to fulfill three primary functions First it skeptically probes numerous discourses explaining and legitimizing violence and punishment in the light of extreme cases The book is a map of violence and punishment Second it invites the reader to confront choose and combine these discourses when thinking about facts and norms of punishment The book provides an analytical toolbox for research of violence and punishment Third the book presents wider sense seeking strategies employed to deal with suffering such as irony redemption or rationalization Medieval Violence Hannah Skoda, 2013-02-21 Medieval Violence provides a detailed analysis of the practice of medieval brutality focusing on a thriving region of northern France in the late thirteenth and early fourteenth centuries It examines how violence was conceptualised in this period and uses this framework to investigate street violence tavern brawls urban rebellions student misbehaviour and domestic violence The interactions between these various forms of violence are examined in order to demonstrate the complex and communicative nature of medieval brutality What is often dismissed as dysfunctional behaviour is shown to have been highly strategic and socially integral Violence was a performance dependent upon the spaces in which it took place Indeed brutality was contingent upon social and cultural structures At the same time the common stereotype of the thoughtlessly brutal Middle Ages is challenged as attitudes towards violence are revealed to have been complex troubled and ambivalent Whether violence could function effectively as a form of communication which could order and harmonise society or whether it inevitably degenerated into chaotic disorder where meaning was multivalent and incomprehensible remained a matter of ongoing debate in a variety of contexts Using a variety of source material including legal records popular literature and sermons Hannah Skoda explores experiences of and attitudes towards violence and highlights profound contemporary ambiguity concerning its nature and legitimacy Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals, 1997 Jesus Is Lord, Caesar Is Not Scot McKnight, Joseph B. Modica, 2013-03-28 This volume brings together respected biblical scholars to evaluate the turn toward empire criticism in recent New Testament scholarship While praising the movement for its deconstruction of Roman statecraft and ideology the contributors also provide a salient critique of the anti imperialist rhetoric pervading much of the current literature Romantic Ecology (Routledge Revivals) Jonathan Bate, 2013-10-31 First published in 1991 Romantic Ecology reassesses the poetry of William Wordsworth in the context of the abiding pastoral tradition in English Literature Jonathan Bate explores the politics of poetry and argues that contrary to critics who suggest that the Wordsworth was a reactionary who failed to represent the harsh economic reality of his native Lake District the poet's politics were fundamentally green As our first truly ecological poet Wordsworth articulated a powerful and enduring vision of human integration with nature which exercised a formative influence on later conservation movements and is of immediate relevance to great environmental issues today Challenging the orthodoxies of new historicist criticism Jonathan Bate sets a new agenda for the study of Romanticism in the 1990s Image and Inscription Gallery 44, 2005 Image and Inscription features the work of many of Canada's distinguished authors critics curators and artists who are recognized for their contribution to the discourse and practice of photography it presents the diversity and the changeable milieu of photographic practice and evokes an unanticipated moment in Canadian photography It also represents an important step in expanding the contemporary authorship on photography in Canada adapted from the Introduction by Robert Bean
