Que Linda La Brisa:

Que Linda la Brisa James Drake, Jimmy Santiago Baca, Benjamin Alire Sáenz, Pamela Auchincloss Gallery (New York, N.Y.), 2000 Three poetic statements unite and intertwine in this slim volume to create a rare insight into the lives of people who bear witness to the exclusionary nature of society's most basic assumptions about the nature of gender and desire men in women's bodies outcasts who make their living as prostitutes With the caring eye of an intimate observer Benjamin Alire Sáenz allows the reader to witness the hopes fears and dangers of their transformations sketching their daily lives in a series of short fragmentary prose poems showing the familiarity of the seemingly alien Jimmy Santiago Baca's first person poem pushes the transformation further still allowing as well as forcing the reader to recognize the frailty and pain caused by a culture's ideas of what constitutes the normal James Drake's photographs unite the poems complementing them with a visual thread of equally poetic intensity changing faces reflections in mirrors blood and fears as well as hopes and guardian angels

Lateral Thinking Toby Kamps, 2002 Edward de Bono invented the term lateral thinking and defined it as such 1 You cannot dig a hole in a different place by digging the same hole deeper 2 Lateral Thinking is for changing concepts and perceptions instead of trying harder with the same concepts and perceptions 3 In self organizing information systems asymmetric patterns are formed Lateral Thinking is a method for cutting across from one pattern to another As the title of this book Lateral Thinking refers to the non traditional approach that the Museum of Contemporary Art San Diego has applied to building its collection Curatorially independent striking a balance between the regional and the global the emerging artist and the established figure the MCA has always worked to represent important developments in mainstream art while also identifying significant developments that fall outside of conventional categories The museum's efforts to illuminate a new axis mapping the contemporary art world one running north and south through North Central and South America instead of east and west through the United States and Europe Featuring the work in virtually all media of more than 65 artists including Matthew Barney Jose Bedia Vanessa Beecroft John Currin David Hammons Gary Hill Gabriel Orozco Edward Ruscha Cindy Sherman and Lisa Yuskavage

Bodies on the Front Lines Brenda Werth, Katherine Zien, 2024-04-24. Revolutionary feminism, queer, and trans activist movements are traversing Latin America and the Caribbean. Bodies on the Front Lines situates recent performances and protests within legacies of homegrown gender and sexual rights activism from the South. Performances enacted in public spaces and intimate venues across national borders and through circulating hashtags and digital media play crucial roles in the elaboration, auto-theorization, translation, and reception of feminist, queer, and trans activism. Movements such as Argentina's NiUnaMenos, Not One Less, have brought masses of protesters and activists on the streets of major cities in Latin America and beyond to denounce gender violence and demand gender, sexual, and reproductive rights. The volume's contributors draw from rich legacies of theater performance and activism in the region as well as decolonial and intersectional theorizing to demonstrate the ways that performance practices enable activists to sustain their movements. The chapters engage diverse perspectives from Argentina, Brazil, Bolivia, Chile, Colombia, Cuba, the Dominican Republic, transnational Central America, Peru, Puerto Rico, and Mexico. Rather than taking an approach that simplifies complexities among states, Bodies on the Front Lines takes seriously the geopolitical stakes of examining Latin America and the Caribbean as a heterogeneous site of nations and networks. In chapters covering this wide geographical area, leading scholars in the fields of theater and performance studies showcase the aesthetic, social, and political work of performance in generating and
