Queen Of The Bs Ida Lupino Behind The Camera:

Queen of the 'B's Annette Kuhn,1995 Ida Lupino, Filmmaker Phillip Sipiora,2021-07-15 Ida Lupino Filmmaker begins with an exploration of biographical studies and analytical treatments of Lupino's film and television work as director moving forward to assess Lupino's career in film and television with particular attention given to Lupino's singular pioneering achievements and her role's within the cultural milieu's of her time particularly the representation of women in cinema Each chapter includes a close analysis of the film or television work with insights drawn from film history and cultural gender studies to demonstrate that Lupino was a significant directorial figure in the development of film especially in the late 1940s and early 1950s and in television extending well into the 1960s Lupino left her imprint on filmmaking and her canon of film and television work continue to influence Hollywood movie making The contributors to this volume assess Lupino's main strengths as a filmmaker her treatment of narrative movement plotting dialogue gender roles and uses of tradition representations of men and women in frames of parody and satire The book collectively examines the successes and failures of Lupino's directorial career including focusing on the reasons why she initially proved to be so strategic to the progress of women behind the camera The Battle for the Bs Blair Davis,2012-04-06 The emergence of the double bill in the 1930s created a divide between A pictures and B pictures as theaters typically screened packages featuring one of each With the former considered more prestigious because of their larger budgets and more popular actors the lower budgeted Bs served largely as a support mechanism to A films of the major studios most of which also owned the theater chains in which movies were shown When a 1948 U S Supreme Court antitrust ruling severed ownership of theaters from the studios the B movie soon became a different entity in the wake of profound changes to the corporate organization and production methods of the major Hollywood studios In The Battle for the Bs Blair Davis analyzes how B films were produced distributed and exhibited in the 1950s and demonstrates the possibilities that existed for low budget filmmaking at a time when many in Hollywood had abandoned the Bs Made by newly formed independent companies 1950s B movies took advantage of changing demographic patterns to fashion innovative marketing approaches They established such genre cycles as science fiction and teen oriented films think Destination Moon and I Was a Teenage Werewolf well before the major studios and also contributed to the emergence of the movement now known as underground cinema Although frequently proving to be multimillion dollar box office draws by the end of the decade the Bs existed in opposition to the cinematic mainstream in the 1950s and created a legacy that was passed on to independent filmmakers in the decades to come The Oxford Companion to the American Musical Thomas S. Hischak,2008-06-02 From the silver screen to the Great White Way small community theatres to television sets the musical has long held a special place in America's heart and history Now in The Oxford Companion to the American Musical readers who flocked to the movies to see An American in Paris or Chicago lined up for tickets to West Side Story or Rent or crowded around their TVs to watch Cinderella or High School Musical can finally turn to a single book for details about them all For the first time this popular subject has an engaging and authoritative book as thrilling as the performances themselves With more than two thousand entries this illustrated guide offers a wealth of information on musicals performers composers lyricists producers choreographers and much more Biographical entries range from early stars Fred Astaire Bing Crosby Mary Martin and Mae West to contemporary show stoppers Nathan Lane Savion Glover and Kristin Chenoweth while composers Irving Berlin George Gershwin Richard Rodgers and Andrew Lloyd Webber all have articles and the choreography of Bob Fosse Tommy Tune and Debbie Allen receives due examination The plays and films covered range from modern hits like Mamma Mia and Moulin Rouge to timeless classics such as Yankee Doodle Dandy and Show Boat Also numerous musicals written specifically for television appear throughout and many entries follow a work Babes in Toyland for example as it moves across genres from stage to film to television The Companion also includes cross references a comprehensive listing of recommended recordings and further reading a useful chronology of all the musicals described in the book plus a complete index of Tony Award and Academy Award winners Whether you are curious about Singin in the Rain or Spamalot or simply adore The Wizard of Oz or Grease this well researched and entertaining resource is the first place to turn for reliable information on virtually every aspect of the American musical

Liberating Hollywood Maya Montañez Smukler,2018-12-14 Winner of the 2018 Richard Wall Memorial Award from the Theater Library Association Liberating Hollywood examines the professional experiences and creative output of women filmmakers during a unique moment in history when the social justice movements that defined the 1960s and 1970s challenged the enduring culture of sexism and racism in the U S film industry Throughout the 1970s feminist reform efforts resulted in a noticeable rise in the number of women directors yet at the same time the institutionalized sexism of Hollywood continued to create obstacles to closing the gender gap Maya Monte ez Smukler reveals that during this era there were an estimated sixteen women making independent and studio films Penny Allen Karen Arthur Anne Bancroft Joan Darling Lee Grant Barbara Loden Elaine May Barbara Peeters Joan Rivers Stephanie Rothman Beverly Sebastian Joan Micklin Silver Joan Tewkesbury Jane Wagner Nancy Walker and Claudia Weill Drawing on interviews conducted by the author Liberating Hollywood is the first study of women directors within the intersection of second wave feminism civil rights legislation and Hollywood to investigate the remarkable careers of these filmmakers during one of the most mythologized periods in American film history

Lois Weber in Early Hollywood Shelley Stamp, 2015-05-01 Among early Hollywood s most renowned filmmakers Lois Weber was considered one of the era s three great minds alongside D W Griffith and Cecil B DeMille Despite her accomplishments Weber has been marginalized in relation to her contemporaries who have long been recognized as fathers of American cinema Drawing on a range of materials untapped by previous historians Shelley Stamp offers the first comprehensive study of Weber s remarkable career as director screenwriter and actress Lois Weber in Early Hollywood provides compelling evidence of the extraordinary role that women played in shaping American movie culture Weber made films on capital punishment contraception poverty and addiction establishing cinema s power to engage topical issues for popular audiences Her work grappled with the profound changes in women s lives that unsettled Americans at the beginning of the twentieth century and her later films include sharp critiques of heterosexual marriage and consumer capitalism Mentor to many women in the industry Weber demanded a place at the table in early professional guilds decrying the limited roles available for women on screen and in the 1920s protesting the growing climate of hostility toward female directors Stamp demonstrates how female filmmakers who had played a part in early Hollywood s bid for respectability were in the end written out of that industry s history Lois Weber in Early Hollywood is an essential addition to histories of silent cinema early filmmaking in Los Angeles and women s contributions to American culture

A Short History of Film, Third Edition Wheeler Winston Dixon, Gwendolyn Audrey Foster, 2018-03-30 With more than 250 images new information on international cinema especially Polish Chinese Russian Canadian and Iranian filmmakers an expanded section on African American filmmakers updated discussions of new works by major American directors and a new section on the rise of comic book movies and computer generated special effects this is the most up to date resource for film history courses in the twenty first century

Movie-Struck Girls Shelley Stamp, 2018-06-05 Movie Struck Girls examines women s films and filmgoing in the 1910s a period when female patronage was energetically courted by the industry for the first time By looking closely at how women were invited to participate in movie culture the films they were offered and the visual pleasures they enjoyed Shelley Stamp demonstrates that women significantly complicated cinemagoing throughout this formative transitional era Growing female patronage and increased emphasis on women s subject matter did not necessarily bolster cinema s cultural legitimacy as many in the industry had hoped for women were not always enticed to the cinema by dignified uplifting material and once there they were not always seamlessly integrated in the social space of theaters nor the new optical pleasures of film viewing In fact Stamp argues that much about women s films and filmgoing in the postnickelodeon years challenged rather than served the industry s drive for greater respectability White slave films action adventure serial dramas and women s suffrage photoplays all drew female audiences to the cinema with stories aimed directly at women s interests and with advertising campaigns that specifically targeted female moviegoers Yet these examples suggest that women s patronage was built with stories focused on sexuality sensational thrill seeking and feminist agitation topics not normally associated with ladylike gentility And in each case concerns were raised about women s conduct at cinemas and the viewing habits they enjoyed demonstrating that women s integration into motion picture culture was not as smooth as many have thought

Shades of Noir Joan Copjec, 1993 For this was the summer when after the hiatus of the Second World War French critics were again given the opportunity to view films from Hollywood The films they saw including The Maltese Falcon Double Indemnity Laura Murder My Sweet and The Woman in the Window prompted the naming and theorization of a new phenomenon film noir Much of what has been written about the genre since has remained within the orbit of this preliminary assessment While sympathetic towards the early French critics this collection of original essays attempts to move beyond their first fascinated look Beginning with an autonomy of that look of the poujadist climate that nourished it and the imminent collapse of the Hollywood studio system that gave it its mournful inflection Shades of Noir re explores and calls into question the object first constructed by it The impetus for this shift in perspective comes from the films themselves viewed in the light of contemporary social and political concerns and from new theoretical insights Several contributions analyze the re emergence of noir in recent years most notably in the hybrid forms produced in the 1980s by the merging of noir with science fiction and horror for example Blade Runner and Angel Heart and in films by black directors such as Deep Cover Straight out of Brooklyn A Rage in Harlem and One False Move Other essays focus on the open urban territory in which the noir hero hides out the office spaces in Chandler and the palpable sense of waiting that fills empty warehouses corridors and hotel rooms Finally Shades of Noir pays renewed attention to the lethal relation between the sexes to the femme fatale and the other women in noir As the role of women expands the femme fatale remains deadly but her deadliness takes on new meanings Contributors Janet Bergstrom Joan Copjec Elizabeth Cowie Manthia Diawara Frederic Jameson Dean MacCannel Fred Pfeil David Reid and Jayne L Walker Marc Vernet Slavoj Zizek

Ida Lupino Ida Lupino, Mary Ann Anderson, 2011-12 Ida Lupino did not want to be an actress composing and writing were her major interests Ida branched out into film directing and producing in 1949 becoming one of two women to enter the male dominated field While her feature films were primarily aimed at female audiences on television Ida Lupino quickly became known for her skill at directing westerns mysteries and detective dramas shows aimed at male viewers and many featuring all male casts No one ever asked me to direct a love story she said About the Author Mary Ann Anderson has had a varied and extensive career in the world of show business She was exposed to the entertainment industry early on as the daughter of Emily McLaughlin who played nurse Jesse Brewer for more than 25 years in ABC's General Hospital As an author Mary Ann has published Portrait of a Soap Star The Emily McLaughlin Story Mary Ann served as conservator for Ida Lupino the actress and director from 1984 to 1995 Many Brentwood residents who lived on Old Oak Lane recall the time Miss Lupino set her mailbox on fire She also delighted in watering her lawn and the neighbors not the neighbors lawns but the neighbors Through her association with Miss Lupino Mary Ann met many other legends of Old Hollywood such as Olivia de Havilland Joan Fontaine Barbara Hale and Marie Windsor Mary Ann has been instrumental in bringing the stories of Ida Lupino to A E's Biography and Jeffrey Hunter to E's Mysteries and Scandals by researching writing and appearing in them She also worked on the Ida Lupino Paper Doll Book released by Paper Studio Press
