Quel Bowling Sul Tevere:

Quel bowling sul Tevere Michelangelo Antonioni, 1995 Landscape and Memory in Post-Fascist Italian Film
Giuliana Minghelli, 2014-06-11 This study argues that neorealism's visual genius is inseparable from its almost invisible relation to the Fascist past a connection inscribed in cinematic landscapes While largely a silent narrative neorealism's complex visual processing of two decades of Fascism remains the greatest cultural production in the service of memorialization and comprehension for a nation that had neither a Nuremberg nor a formal process of reconciliation Through her readings of canonical neorealist films Minghelli unearths the memorial strata of the neorealist image and investigates the complex historical charge that invests this cinema This book is both a formal analysis of the new conception of the cinematic image born from a crisis of memory and a reflection on the relation between cinema and memory Films discussed include Ossessione 1943 Pais 1946 Ladri di biciclette 1948 and Cronaca di un amore 1950 The Cinema of

Italian Cinema and Modern European Literatures Carlo Testa, 2002-03-30 The history of cinema and notably that of post war Italian cinema can only be understood adequately in the context of other contiguous cultural disciplines World literature including that of France Germany and Russia played a key role in the development of post war Italian film and the cinematic technique it has come to embody Moving away from the usual modes of defining this period a trajectory that begins with neorealism and ends with Bertolucci author Carlo Testa offers proof that coming to terms with literary texts is an essential step toward understanding the motion pictures they influenced The means of recreating literature for the screen has changed drastically over the last half century as has the impact of different national traditions on Italian cinema Testa's work is the first to explicitly and deliberately link postwar Italian cinema to general intellectual concerns such as the relationship between literary authors and cinematic auteurs Moreover his analysis of the impact of French German and Russian cultures on Italy brings forth a new reading of Italian cinema a new paradigm for exploring complex issues of authorship culture and art I film di Michelangelo Antonioni Aldo Tassone, 2002 Twentieth-century Italian Literature in English Translation

Robin Healey, 1998-01-01 This bibliography lists English language translations of twentieth century Italian literature published chiefly in book form between 1929 and 1997 encompassing fiction poetry plays screenplays librettos journals and diaries and correspondence Italian Neorealist Cinema Christopher Wagstaff, 2007-01-01 The end of the Second World War saw the emergence in Italy of the neorealism movement which produced a number of films characterized by stories set among the poor and working class often shot on location using non professional actors In this study Christopher Wagstaff provides an in depth analysis of neorealist film focusing on three films that have had a major impact on filmmakers and audiences around the world Roberto Rossellini's Roma città aperta and Pais and Vittorio De Sica's Ladri di biciclette Indeed these films are still more than half a century after they were made among the most highly regarded works in the history of cinema In this insightful and carefully researched work Wagstaff suggests that the importance of these films is largely due to the aesthetic and rhetorical qualities of their assembled sounds and images rather than as commonly thought their particular representations of historical reality The author begins by situating neorealist cinema in its historical industrial commercial and cultural context He goes on to provide a theoretical discussion of realism and the merits of neorealist films individually and collectively as aesthetic artefacts He follows with a detailed analysis of the three films focusing on technical and production aspects as well as on the significance of the films as cinematic works of art While providing a wealth of information and analysis previously unavailable to an English speaking audience Italian Neorealist Cinema offers a radically new perspective on neorealist cinema and the Italian art cinema that followed it Conrad's Presence in Contemporary Culture, 2024-04-30

The anthology consists of essays authored by scholars of different nationalities from diverse cultures nations and primary languages They cover Conrad's presence across multiple media fiction films comics and graphic novels The collection is unique because the contributors focused on Conrad's presence in contemporary culture a constantly changing field rather than well trodden paths The exploration of Polish French Italian Spanish English and American works of art strengthens its originality The artists discussed in connection with Conrad include Olga Tokarczuk Stanisław Lem Robert Silveberg Loic Godart Christian Bobin Christian Perrissin Tom Tirabosco Eduardo Berti J M Coetzee Michelangelo Antonioni Last but not least the volume contains 20 stunning reproductions in full colour from films graphic novels and comics Antonioni and the Aesthetics of Impurity Nardelli Matilde Nardelli, 2020-09-04 Influential innovative and aesthetically experimental the films of Michelangelo Antonioni are widely recognized as both exemplars of cinema and key in ushering in its new or modern incarnation around 1960 Antonioni and the Aesthetics of Impurity offers a radical rethinking of the director's work It argues against prevalent understandings of it in terms of both cinematic purity and indebtedness to painting Reconnecting Antonioni's aesthetically audacious films of the 1960s and 1970s to the ferment of their historical time Antonioni and the Aesthetics of Impurity brings into relief these works crucial yet overlooked affinity with the new impure art practices of John Cage Franco Vaccari Robert Smithson Piero Gilardi and Andy Warhol among others that precipitated the demotion of painting from its privileged position as a paradigm for all the arts Revealing an Antonioni who embraced both mixed and mass media and reflected on them via cinema the book replaces auteuristic if not hagiographic accounts of the director's work with a new understanding of its critical significance across the modern visual arts and culture more broadly

Antonioni Laura Rascaroli, John David Rhodes, 2019-07-25 This collection of new essays by leading film scholars addresses Michelangelo Antonioni as a pre eminent figure in European art cinema explores his continuing influence and legacy and engages with his ability to both interpret and shape ideas of modernity and modern cinema The A to Z of Italian Cinema Gino Moliterno, 2009-10-12 The A to Z of Italian Cinema provides a better understanding of the role Italian cinema has played in film history through a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography appendixes black white photos
