States and South Africa The first draft of history newspapers figure prominently through each movement and period of unrest in both nations from the first colonial papers published by slave traders and an advocate for press freedom to those published on id cards wallpaper and folio sheets during civil wars Offices were set on fire Presses were pushed into bodies of water Editors were run out of town And journalists were arrested Newspaper reflects on a tool that has been used to push down and to rise up and a journey alongside the hidden lives that have harnessed its power Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic
