Quest of the Curly-tailed Horses Noel Monkman,1962      Quest of the Curly-tailed Horses. An Autobiography ... Illustrations by the Author. [With Portraits.] Noel MONKMAN,1963      QUEST D. Churchward,2011-03-03 When Chilla comes of age she learns that her quiet peaceful life on Vondulla Island where the great Vondi live is coming to an end The realization that her family are involved in magic mystic and murder is a lot for her to take in as she prepares to leave the Island with a Vondi protector Her trip is to take her to the mainland of Choogan where the evil and depraved live This story takes you on young Chillas journey to recover the lost mysterious Farroway crystal and to find a family she never knew Follow her through magic see the dragons as they hatch their young meet the old mystic who is her mentor Such experiences as romance and mystery involved on this journey is new to Chilla s requiring her to look at her life and time on the Island in a different way The discovery of her own magical senses are new and puzzling Eventually her whole family come together both on and off the Island to help put and end to the tyranny brought about by the Farroway crystal and its reputation      The Reef Iain McCalman,2014-05-20 Stretching 1 400 miles along the Australian coast and visible from space the Great Barrier Reef is home to three thousand individual reefs more than nine hundred islands and thousands of marine species and has alternately been viewed as a deadly maze an economic bounty a scientific frontier and a precarious World Heritage site Now the historian and explorer Iain McCalman takes us on a new adventure into the reef to reveal how our shifting perceptions of the natural world have shaped this extraordinary seascape Showcasing the lives of twenty individuals spanning more than two centuries The Reef highlights our profound desire to conquer understand embrace and ultimately save the world s most complex ocean ecosystem Opening with the story of Captain James Cook who sailed unknowingly into the southwest entrance of this vast network of coral outcroppings McCalman shows how Cook spent months navigating this treacherous underwater labyrinth struggling to keep his crew alive and his ship afloat sparring with deceptive shoals and wary native islanders Through a series of dramatic tales from intrepid explorers unwitting castaways inquisitive naturalists enchanted artists and impassioned environmentalists who have collectively shaped our ideas about the Great Barrier Reef McCalman demonstrates how this grand natural wonder of the world was built as much by human imagination as by the industrious beautiful creatures of the sea A romantic historically significant book and a deeply personal journey into the heart of a marine environment in peril The Reef powerfully captures the delicate relationship between humanity and the natural world      The Shakespeare Hut Ailsa Grant Ferguson,2018-12-27 This book tells the forgotten story of the Shakespeare Hut a vast mock Tudor building for New Zealand Anzac soldiers visiting London on leave from the front lines Constructed in Bloomsbury in 1916 the Hut was to be the only built memorial to mark Shakespeare s Tercentenary in the midst of war With a purpose built performance space its tiny stage hosted the biggest theatrical stars of the age The Hut is a vivid and unique case study in cultural memory and performance of Shakespeare One extraordinary building brings together Shakespeare s place in First

World War theatre in emerging new post colonial identities the story of Shakespearean performance in the twentieth century and in the struggle for women s suffrage Grant Ferguson transports you to the Hut and its lively idiosyncratic world From a feminist led stage to a hub of Indian intellectual and political debate from a Shakespeare memorial to an Anzac social club this is the story of a building truly at a crossroads

The Two Frank Thrings Peter Fitzpatrick,2012-08-01 They shared a name of course and their physical resemblance was startling And both Frank Thrings were huge figures in the landscape of twentieth century Australian theatre and film But in many ways they could hardly have been more different Frank Thring the father 1882 1936 began his career as a sideshow conjuror and he wheeled dealt and occasionally married his way into becoming the legendary F T impresario speculator and owner of Efftee Films Australia s first talkies studio He built for himself an image of grand patriarchal respectability a sizeable fortune and all the makings of a dynasty Frank Thring the son 1926 1994 squandered the fortune and derailed the dynasty in the course of creating his own persona a unique presence that could make most stages and foyers seem small He won fame playing tyrants in togas in Hollywood blockbusters then suddenly came home to Melbourne to play perhaps his finest role that of Frank Thring actor and personality extraordinaire Central to this role was that Frank the son was unapologetically and outrageously gay Peter Fitzpatrick s compelling dual biography tells the story of two remarkable characters It s a kind of detective story following the tracks of two men who did all they could to cover their tracks and to conceal the self Frank the father used secrecy and sleight of hand as strategies for self protection Frank the son masked a thoroughly reclusive personality with flamboyant self parody It s also the tale of a lost relationship and of the power a father may have had even over a son who hardly knew him
