Dennis, 2001-06-29 Using the Socratic method Helm and Dennis challenge readers to wrestle with Scripture itself rather than with systematic questions This candid look at Genesis is an ideal apologetic against today s postmodern culture The Spirit-Led Leader Timothy C. Geoffrion, 2005-11-14 In our postmodern experience oriented culture people are longing for greater authenticity integrity and depth in their pastors and leaders Board directors church members and staff alike are all eagerly seeking leaders who effectively integrate their spirituality and leadership Pastors and executives however often struggle with knowing how to integrate their spiritual values and practices into their leadership and management roles Designed for pastors executives administrators managers coordinators and all who see themselves as leaders and who want to fulfill their God given purpose The Spirit Led Leader addresses the critical fusion of spiritual life and leadership for those who not only want to see results but who also desire to care just as deeply about who they are and how they lead as they do about what they produce and accomplish Geoffrion creates a new vision for spiritual leadership as partly an art partly a result of careful planning and always a working of the The Knowledge Drive Edward J. Bardon, 2008-07 The Knowledge Drive is an optimistic book that grace of God demonstrates how new more accurate information conveys survival value and inevitably supplants our dysfunctional mythological beliefs Before there was time for the accumulation of knowledge early man created legends and religious myths to understand the world and ease the paralyzing awareness of his own mortality and the fear of natural forces beyond his control We are increasingly aware of how these magical beliefs can lead to divisive religious practices violence and mans continuing inhumanity to fellow man Change is clearly needed Now rapid advances in many fields are giving us the techniques to modify our evolution and curtail our virulence We can establish a more universal equitable morality based on more accurate intelligence about our origins and place in the universe Nevertheless it is up to us as a species to choose our own future directions We are thus in charge of our own destiny a threatening thought to many No prayers or appeals to magical forces will help Dr Bardon analyzes how our quest for knowledge is a basic human drive similar to the sex and nourishment drives It arises from our survival instinct and is not based on moral or altruistic factors Along with establishing knowledge as a source of power the author discusses the Knowledge Drive from many other perspectives its various motivations the fact that it can be used for many purposes even destructive ones how it learns from adversity how it often exacerbates inequality and how it does not solve social problems unless given the necessary direction Dr Bardon looks at the multiple forces aligned against our efforts to obtain more reliable information He shows how the Knowledge Drive not only triumphs over but also learns from these negative elements Warnings about the fragility of our search for knowledge are misguided it is rather the people mired in mythology who are vulnerable and need our compassion Practicing Pilgrimage Brett Webb-Mitchell, 2016-11-09 Practicing Pilgrimage On Being and Becoming God's Pilgrim People explores both the theological cultural and spiritual roots of Christian pilgrimage and is a how to book on doing pilgrimage in our suburban
