Quest Of The Golden Boy Life Gallienne:

The Quest of the Golden Boy. The Life and Letters of Richard Le Gallienne. [With Plates, Including Portraits.]. Richard Whittington EGAN (and SMERDON (Geoffrey)), 1960 The Drowned Muse Anne-Gaëlle Saliot, 2015 The Drowned Muse is a study of the extraordinary destiny in the history of European culture of an object which could seem at first glance quite ordinary in the history of European culture It tells the story of a mask the cast of a young girl's face entitled L Inconnue de la Seine the Unknown Woman of the Seine and its subsequent metamorphoses as a cultural figure Legend has it that the Inconnue drowned herself in Paris at the end of the nineteenth century The forensic scientist tending to her unidentified corpse at the Paris Morgue was supposedly so struck by her allure that he captured in plaster the contours of her face This unknown girl also called The Mona Lisa of Suicide has since become the object of an obsessive interest that started in the late 1890s reached its peak in the 1930s and continues to reverberate today Aby Warburg defines art history as a ghost story for grown ups This study is similarly a ghost story for grown ups narrating the aura of a cultural object that crosses temporal geographical and linguistic frontiers It views the Inconnue as a symptomatic expression of a modern world haunted by the earlier modernity of the nineteenth century It also investigates how the mask's metamorphoses reflect major shifts in the cultural history of the last two centuries approaching the Inconnue as an entry point to understand a phenomenon characteristic of 20th and 21st century modernity the translatability of media Doing so this study mobilizes discourses surrounding the Inconnue casting them as points of negotiation through which we may consider the modern age The Quest of the Golden Boy Geoffrey Smerdon, 1960 Extraordinary Aesthetes Joseph Bristow, 2023-04-14 The fin de siècle not only designated the end of the Victorian epoch but also marked a significant turn towards modernism Extraordinary Aesthetes critically examines literary and visual artists from England Ireland and Scotland whose careers in poetry fiction and illustration flourished during the concluding years of the nineteenth century This collection draws special attention to the exceptional contributions that artists poets and novelists made to the cultural world of the late 1880s and 1890s The essays illuminate a range of established increasingly acknowledged and lesser known figures whose contributions to this brief but remarkably intense cultural period warrant close attention Such figures include the critically neglected Mabel Dearmer whose stunning illustrations appear in Evelyn Sharp's radical fairy tales for children Equally noteworthy is the uncompromising short fiction of Ella D Arcy who played a pivotal role in editing the most famous journal of the 1890s The Yellow Book The discussion extends to a range of legendary writers including Max Beerbohm Oscar Wilde and W B Yeats whose works are placed in dialogue with authors who gained prominence during this period Bringing women's writing to the fore Extraordinary Aesthetes rebalances the achievements of artists and writers during the rapidly transforming cultural world of the fin de siècle Bernard Shaw's Book Reviews: 1884-1950 Bernard Shaw, Brian Tyson, 1991 This new volume of Bernard Shaw's book reviews is a companion to Brian Tyson's previously edited collection of Shaw's earlier book reviews

Here Tyson collects seventy three of the best remaining literary book reviews written by Shaw throughout his lifetime Two thirds of the reviews appear in book form for the first time the originals residing in the archives of newspaper libraries and only three of the remainder have been reprinted within the last twenty years Politics feature largely in the works that Shaw reviewed there are books of socialist theory and its practical appearance in the Soviet Union as well as books on the individualism of J H Levy the anti socialism of Thomas McKay and the economics of E C K Gonner and Philip Wicksteed There is often an immediacy about the books reviewed too discussion of books on World War I the Soviet Revolution women s suffrage the British General Strike of 1926 and World War II all take place concurrently with the events Many of the works reviewed are biographies which give Shaw the opportunity to reveal his personal acquaintance with their subjects including Samuel Butler William Morris and Dean Inge This widely varied collection sparkles with wit and wisdom taking us briskly through Shaw s own writing life beginning when he was relatively unknown and concluding when he was a legend

The Life and Letters of William Sharp and "Fiona Macleod". Volume 1: 1855-1894 William F. Halloran, 2018-11-27 William Sharp 1855 1905 conducted one of the most audacious literary deceptions of his or any time Sharp was a Scottish poet novelist biographer and editor who in 1893 began to write critically and commercially successful books under the name Fiona Macleod This was far more than just a pseudonym he corresponded as Macleod enlisting his sister to provide the handwriting and address and for more than a decade Fiona Macleod duped not only the general public but such literary luminaries as William Butler Yeats and in America E C Stedman Sharp wrote I feel another self within me now more than ever it is as if I were possessed by a spirit who must speak out This three volume collection brings together Sharp s own correspondence a fascinating trove in its own right by a Victorian man of letters who was on intimate terms with writers including Dante Gabriel Rossetti Walter Pater and George Meredith and the Fiona Macleod letters which bring to life Sharp s intriguing second self With an introduction and detailed notes by William F Halloran this richly rewarding collection offers a wonderful insight into the literary landscape of the time while also investigating a strange and underappreciated phenomenon of late nineteenth century English literature It is essential for scholars of the period and it is an illuminating read for anyone interested in authorship and identity

Fictions of Dissent Sigrid Anderson Cordell, 2015-10-06 Fin de siècle fiction by British female aesthetes and American women regionalists stages moments of rebellion when female characters rise up and insist on the right to maintain control of their creations Cordell asserts that these revolutionary acts constitute a transatlantic conversation about aesthetic practice and creative ownership

Meeting Without Knowing It Alexander Bubb, 2016-02-12 Meeting Without Knowing It compares Rudyard Kipling and W B Yeats in the formative phase of their careers from their births in 1865 up to 1903 The argument consists of parallel readings wed to a biographic structure Reading the two poets in parallel often yields remarkable discursive echoes For example both men were similarly preoccupied with the visual arts with heroism with folklore balladry and the demotic voice Both struck vatic postures and made bids for public authority premised on an appeal to what they considered the mythopoeic impulse in fin de siècle culture My methodology consists in identifying these mutual echoes in their poetry and political rhetoric before charting them against intersections in their lives Kipling and

Yeats were for much of their careers irreconcilable political enemies However a cross reading of the two poets bardic ambitions heroic tropes and interpretations of history reveals that to achieve their opposed political ends they frequently partook of a common discourse Supplementing this analysis with biographical context we can trace these shared concerns to their late 19th century artistic upbringing and to the closely linked social circles which they inhabited in fin de siècle London It is in fact their very mutuality during the 1890s which lent rancour to their ideological division after the Boer War In turn acrimony and denunciation only served to bind together all the more intimately in an argumentative spiral of revolving discourses two men who were often proximate but who actually met only in cartoons and satirical gossip Victorian Poetry, 1978 A Bookman's Catalogue Vol. 1 A-L T. Bose, Paul Tiessen, 2011-11-01 The Colbeck collection was formed over half a century ago by the Bournemouth bookseller Norman Colbeck Focusing primarily on British essayists and poets of the nineteenth century from the Romantic Movement through the Edwardian era the collection features nearly 500 authors and lists over 13 000 works Entries are alphabetically arranged by author with copious notes on the condition and binding of each copy Nine appendices provide listings of selected periodicals series publications anthologies yearbooks and topical works

Victorian Christianity at the Fin de Siècle Frances Knight, 2015-10-23 The period known as the fin de siècle defined in this groundbreaking book as chiefly the period between 1885 and 1901 was a fluid and unsettling epoch of optimism and pessimism endings and beginnings as well as of new forms of creativity and anxiety The end of the century has attracted much interest from scholars of literary and cultural studies who regard it as a critical moment in the history of their disciplines but it has been relatively ignored by religious historians Frances Knight here sets right that neglect She shows how late Victorian society often said to be one of the most intensely Christian cultures the world has ever seen reacted to the bold agendas being set by the thinkers of the fin de siècle and how prominent Church figures during the era first identified many of the concerns that have preoccupied Christians latterly These include an active interest in social justice and the creation of new types of communities increasingly open discussion of the sexual exploitation of children debates about society's decadence new ideas about the role of women and the belief in the redemptive powers of art pioneered by figures as diverse as P T Forsyth Percy Dearmer and Samuel and Henrietta Barnett Examining in particular the Christian world of fin de siècle London the author offers penetrating insights into a society in which the ritual and culture of Christianity sometimes permeated the aesthetic movement and where devotees of the aesthetic movement like Walter Pater Oscar Wilde and their disciples often revealed a fascination with Christianity She argues that the long 1890s was a decisive decade in which various sections of Christian opinion both on the progressive and the more conservative wings of the faith began to express views which set the tone for attitudes which would become commonplace in the twentieth century Victorian Christianity at the Fin de Siècle is the focussed treatment of religion and culture at the end of the nineteenth century that the field has long needed It will be welcomed by scholars of church history social and cultural history and the history of ideas The Life and Loves of
