The Seventh Carrier Peter Albano, 2016-06-22 It is the first day of December 1983 Ted Trigger Ross is a very long way from his past as a World War II hero as forty years later he travels aboard the steamer Sparta through the Bering Sea Then as if from nowhere come Japanese aircraft Zeros World War II vintage and nearly four decades after that war ended they are heading straight for Sparta As they undertake their strafing run destroying the blood soaked Sparta and killing most of her crew Trigger Ross is hurled out of calm normality and back into the horrors of war Because for the crew of the carrier Yonaga World War II has not yet ended The crew of the carrier Yonaga are samurai and that means following orders even to the death And the crew of the Yonaga have orders to attack Pearl Harbor Orders that have never been revoked and which must therefore be carried out As Ross a prisoner on board the Yonaga finds himself carried back towards his homeland he draws upon all his inner strength and understanding of Japanese culture and of warfare in a desperate bid to avert disaster Meanwhile the American authorities baffled by repeated reports of ships attacked by Zeros search for answers Brent Ross Trigger s son believes his father lost at sea Having heard tales of Japanese holdouts many years after World War II Brent suspects that something similar may be afoot Brent is right But how long will it take his superiors to realise that As the Americans seek answers and Brent seeks support for his theory the Yonaga travels on relentlessly getting ever closer to Pearl Harbor The original attack on Pearl Harbor was made by six Japanese carriers now the seventh is on her way And the Americans for whom World War II ended almost forty years previously are completely unprepared for any attack Will the Yonaga reach her destination And if she does what then Peter Albano 1922 2006 was a US writer who served in the US Navy 1942 1946 he is known mainly for the nine book Seventh Carrier sequence of military adventures starring the World

Henrick, 1995-09-15 Inside the world's most advanced submarine Vulkan a man holds a list of U.S. targets each one will mean millions of casualties and a world thrown into nuclear chaos. Carrier Battles Douglas V. Smith, 2013-09-02 A longtime professor at the Naval War College who once directed strategic and long range planning for the Navy and Marine Corps in Europe considers the transformation of the U.S. Navy from a defensive minded coastal defense force into an offensive risk taking navy in the very early stages of World War II. Noting that none of the navy's most significant World War II leaders were commissioned before the Spanish American War and none participated in any important offensive operations in World War I Douglas Smith examines the premise that education rather than experience in battle accounts for that transformation. In this book Smith evaluates his premise by focusing on the five carrier battles of the second world war to determine the extent to which the inter war education of the major operational commanders translated into their decision processes and the extent to which their interaction during their educational experiences transformed them from risk adverse to risk accepting in their operational concepts. His book will interest students of the Pacific War naval aviation education and leadership.
