individual the opportunity to pursue his or her own road to happiness 3 Big Questions That Change Every Teenager

Kara Powell, Brad M. Griffin, 2021-08-03 Today's teenagers are the most anxious, creative and diverse generation in history which can make it hard for us to relate. And while every teenager is a walking bundle of questions, three rise above the rest: Who am I? Where do I fit? What difference can I make? Young people struggle to find satisfying and life-giving answers to these questions on their own. They need caring adults willing to lean in with empathy, practice listening and gently point them in the direction of better answers. They are enough because of Jesus; they belong with God's people and they are invited into God's greater story. In this book, which is based on new landmark research from the Fuller Youth Institute and combines in-depth interviews with data from 1,200 diverse teenagers, Kara Powell and Brad M. Griffin offer pastors, youth leaders, mentors and parents practical and proven conversations and connections that help teenagers answer their three biggest questions and reach their full potential. Orr, D. Min.,2013-12 One of the foundational Christian beliefs is that God has spoken Most of the time in the Bible God makes statements At other times rather than making statements God asks questions

And God's questions provoke serious thought. Many people have questions they would love to ask God. Many more have questions about God. But the most important questions are the ones God is asking us. The God Questions explores these and other questions God asked people in the Bible: Where are you? Whom shall I send and who will go for us? Why are you so angry? Where have you come from and where are you going? Why are you so afraid? Why do you call me Lord? Lord and do not do what I say? Who do you say that I am? When the Son of Man comes will he find faith on the earth? The questions God asked people of ancient times are the same questions God is asking us today. Discover the questions God is asking you and in doing so find out what God has in mind for your life.
