Koon, 2017-11-01 The Fascist regime under Mussolini regarded its youth as its best hope for the future Young people were courted more assiduously than any other group in the society and their political socialization became a central concern of the government Believe Obey Fight discusses the various tools used by the Fascist regime from 1922 to 1943 to shape the political values and environment of the young Tracy Koon focuses on the secondary agents of socialization including the party the educational establishment youth groups and the media of political communication She shows that the response to this socialization ranged from apparent consent to dissent and finally to open opposition The regime employed several methods to produce consensus among the young Koon's analysis begins with a discussion of the rhetorical style of Mussolini's message and the key political myths manipulated by his propaganda machine fascism as continuing revolution and social justice the glories of ancient Rome the hygienic function of war and violence the religious spirit of the new creed and the omniscience of the leader She then describes the pre Fascist educational system the most Fascist Gentile reforms of 1923 and the later revision of those reforms by zealous party men engaged in the Fascist regimentation of teachers and students and the militarization and politicization of curricula and textbooks Equally important agents of socialization were the Fascist groups organized for young people from their earliest years through the university level including the annual national competitions and forums in which members could express their ideas on a range of issues The regime provided physical military sports and political training to strengthen the new Fascist society Fascist socialization did for a time create a superficial consensus by appealing to both the love of conformity that marks the very young and the economic fears that caused students to conform in the hope of jobs But Koon argues that the regime's attempt to exert totalitarian control over the young deprived them of personal identity As time passed the contradictions of the regime became clearer the chasm between Fascist rhetoric and reality more obvious In the end the majority of young people came to believe that the regime had given them nothing to believe in no one to obey and nothing for which to fight Originally published in 1985 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value

The ABC of Community Law Klaus-Dieter Borchardt, 1994 The legal order created by the European Community has become a permanent feature of political reality in the 12 Member States of the European Community On the basis of the European Treaties thousands of decisions are taken each year which have a major impact on the running of the Member States and on the lives of European citizens The individual ceased long ago to be a citizen merely of his town locality or State he is now a Community citizen too The purpose of this publication is to explain the European legal order to those citizens It is addressed primarily to non lawyers and tries to describe the Treaties in terms intelligible to the layman God's Mountain Erri De Luca, 2002-12-03 This is a story told by a boy in his thirteenth year recorded in his secret diary His life is about to change his world about to open He lives in Montedidio God's Mountain a cluster of alleys in the heart of Naples He brings a paycheck home every Saturday from Mast Errico's carpentry workshop where he sweeps the floor He is on his way to becoming a man his boy's voice is abandoning him His wooden boomerang is neither toy nor tool but something in between Then there is Maria the thirteen year old girl who lives above him and like so many girls is wiser than he She carries the burden of a secret life herself She'll speak to him for the first time this summer There is also his friendship with a cobbler named Rafaniello a Jewish refugee who has escaped the horrors of the Holocaust who has no idea how long he's been on this earth and who is said to sprout wings for a blessed few It is 1963 a young man s summer of discovery A time for a boy with innocent hands and a pure heart to look beyond the ordinary in everyday things to see the far reaching landscape and all of its possibilities from a rooftop terrace on God s Mountain

Culture in Communication Aldo Di Luzio, Susanne Günthner, Franca Orletti, 2001 This volume is dedicated to questions arising in linguistic sociological and anthropological analyses of intercultural encounters It aims at presenting new theoretical and methodological aspects of Intercultural Communication focusing on issues such as ideology and hegemonial attitudes communicative genres and culture specific repertoires of genres the theory of contextualization and nonverbal prosodic gestural mimic contextualization cues The collected articles which share an interactive view of language focus on the methodological possibilities of explanatory analyses of intercultural communication They address the question of how participants in inter cultural communication re construct cultural differences and cultural identities Empirical analyses go hand in hand with the discussion of methodological and theoretical aspects of interculturality and the relationship of language and culture

The Higher Education System Burton R. Clark, Professor Burton R Clark, 1983-01-01 First this is a major work of scholarship the product of immense knowledge and gestation over many years of study which looks at higher education in a new way second at a time when confidence has been seriously undermined by the effects of the economic downturn this is a study which implicitly asserts the fundamental role of higher education in the broad spectrum of modern societies his grasp of detail and his understanding of the historical context is secure and his bibliography is a treasure trove of little known material Moreover he writes in an attractive and informal style This will be an influential book and will set new trends of thinking in higher education M L Shattock The Times Higher Education Supplement London
