Pam Sutton, 2012-10-02. The security of Sam Bell's gated community is jeopardized when a neighbor dies under bizarre circumstances. Then there is a grotesque discovery in the root cellar of an abandoned abbey located within the community. What changed the quiet streets of the Glenn Abbey Homeowners Association to a place of fear? Could it have something to do with the escalating battle over rule enforcement and civil liberties that began as a small disagreement between Sam and the association and became a tangle of deception? Or could a chilling secret from association board member Patty Lippett's past explain the change and her hatred of Sam and friends on Carousel Circle? What did anyone know about her really, and why was she trying to silence them? As the truth emerges, association rules collide with residents in a freedom versus security dispute. Sam, his wife Alba, and their friends on Carousel Circle decide to fight the association over this issue. Once this decision is made, their lives zigzag from uproarious protest demonstrations to media involvement, hair-raising escapes, murder, and a make-or-break trial. Even though Alba knows the odds of defeating the powerful association are against them, Sam's feisty attorney wife agrees to represent Sam and friends in the pending trial. Meanwhile, Patty Lippett lurks in the boardroom and streets of Glenn Abbey, and decisions are made which lead to danger for Sam and his neighbors and ultimately places their lives in the balance. of streams they break through natural boundaries and the rocky dams of ages and open a way for the incessant progress of civilization through new and untrodden paths Yet glorious enterprises costly equipments and hazardous exploits may conceal a swelling kernel of material interest beneath a husk of fine reasons as if these constituted the primitive motive Thus Mohammed Ali the Viceroy of Egypt has done very much for science especially geography without even thinking of it whose comprehensive relations with respect to the higher requirements of mankind lie far beyond the limits of his ideas Neither has he honoured with his study the hieroglyphics in the Biban el Moluk near Thebes where the black Kushi bring golden rings as tribute to the Pharaohs Yet he knows and is so exceedingly fond of these rings Oki n which in Ethiopia even now serve instead of money that so far as the destroying arms of this much famed satrap reach in Belled Sudan no more oki n are to be seen Moreover he is making exertions to follow and secure those that have retreated and eluded his grasp which affords an excellent opportunity for extending our knowledge of the countries and people of East and Central Africa He sacrificed his son Ismail and through the Deftardar devastated and depopulated this beautiful country merely to secure to himself the way to the gold regions though he might have attained his object much better had he sought to elevate the country in every possible way and to re establish mercantile confidence For from the earliest ages a market has existed here to which gold comes first hand in the leaf and grain form by barter with the inhabitants of the interior just as it has been separated from the sand of the torrents and kept in quills or horns of the gazelle In Sennaar or Kordofan it is found in rings of half and whole oki n and in gold wire but it is frequently changed by weighing and melting it down into ingots or bars which Mohammed Ali just as little contemns But Turks in this one word is included all and every answer to questions on the condition of the people We shrug up our shoulders and say Turks Whoever has lived some time amongst them must from the clearest conviction confess the perfect incapacity of these Turks for advancing and civilizing the countries under their government and their indifference to the interests nay even their premeditated murder of the nations infested by them The complete depravity of the Asiatic world even in the lifeless and powerless form of a mass dissolved in corrupt fermentation always effervesces strongly into cruelty with the wide spread barbarians of the East and displays itself in bestial vices to the disgrace of mankind and scorn of the sacred bond of nations A truly savage nature is theirs which from Montenegro to the east and south repels all western civilization and would seek a kind of national fame by ridiculous reactions against it as a hated and even despised foreign state of manners and life in order to cover their nakedness and infamy and to cloak their empty ostentation But the Turk of Egypt is the outcast of his countryman in Turkey itself Egypt for example is so decried in Albania on account of its corruption that the Arnaut returning from thence seldom obtains a wife even if he have his girdle full of red gold
