The Difference Marina Endicott, 2019-09-03 A major new novel by the award winning author of Good to a Fault and The Little Shadows about two sisters who live aboard a merchant ship on a fateful voyage through the South Pacific Up from underneath comes a blue black swell a whale rising in a long arc Kay waits hovering in the difference between herself and the creature What is the difference between ourselves and other humans Between human and animal Where does that difference persist in our minds These are the questions Marina Endicott one of our most beloved storytellers explores in this sweeping intoxicating novel set on the Morning Light a ship from Nova Scotia sailing the South Pacific in 1912 Thea and Kay are half sisters separated in age by more than a decade After the death of their stern father head of a residential school in western Canada the elder sister Thea returns east for her long awaited marriage to the captain of the ship She cannot abandon her younger sister so Kay joins her and together they embark on a life changing voyage around the world At the heart of The Difference is one crystallizing moment in Micronesia Thea forms a bond with a young boy from one of the islands and takes him as her own The repercussions of this act reverberate through the novel forcing Kay to examine her own assumptions about what is forgivable and what is right Taking inspiration from the true story of a small boy who was brought on board a Canadian sailing ship in the South Seas Marina Endicott shows us a vanished world in all its wildness and wonder and its darkness prejudice and difficulty too She also brilliantly illuminates our own times through Kay's preoccupation with the idea of difference between people classes continents cultures customs and species A breathtaking tour de force by one of our most celebrated authors a writer with the astonishing ability to bring a past world to vivid life while revealing the moral complexity of our own
