Maud's Journey A Life From Art:

Maud's Journey Maud Morgan, 2001 Maud's House Sherry Roberts, 1994 As a brilliant child artist Maud Calhoun put Round Corners on the map with paintings that covered every inch of her house Now pressured to paint a mural for her small Vermont hometown Maud searches for the inspiration that has eluded her for ten years With humor and warmth Maud struggles to reclaim herself and her art as her tightly knit community's tale unfolds A reflective madcap comedy Orson Scott Card author of The Lost Boys Papier Mache Press The Art of Mystery Maud Casey, 2018-01-02 A sensitive and nuanced exploration of a seldom discussed subject by an acclaimed novelist The fourteenth volume in the Art of series conjures an ethereal subject the idea of mystery in fiction Mystery is not often discussed apart from the genre because as Maud Casey says It's not easy to talk about something that is a whispered invitation a siren song a flickering light in the distance Casey the author of several critically acclaimed novels reaches beyond the usual tool kit of fictional elements to ask the question Where does mystery reside in a work of fiction She takes us into the Land of Un a space of uncertainty and unknowing to find out and looks at the variety of ways mystery is created through character image structure and haunted texts including the novels of Shirley Jackson Paul Yoon J M Coetzee and more Casey's wide ranging discussion encompasses spirit photography the radical nature of empathy and contradictory characters as she searches for questions rather than answers The Art of Mystery is a striking and vibrant addition to the much loved Art of series Under the North Light Lawrence Webster, 2012 The unusual and enduring partnership of Maud and Miska Petersham will intrigue everyone who is interested in the integration of life and work values and livelihood Maud and Miska met when they were young aspiring artists working in their first New York City jobs Maud a 1912 Vassar graduate had deep Yankee roots Miska immigrated from Hungary in 1912 after rigorous study at the Royal National School for Applied Arts in Budapest They met while working at a commercial design studio in New York City and married in 1917 They moved to Woodstock New York in 1920 Pioneers in a golden age of children's book publishing in America the Petershams were among a handful of people who set the direction for illustrated children's books as we know them today They worked closely with such legendary editors as Louise Seaman Bechtel and May Massee and with such inventive printers as Charles Stringer and William Glaser greatly advancing the art of the illustrated children's book Under their studio's north light they produced more than a hundred books as illustrators or author illustrators during a career that spanned five decades Theirs was a deep collaboration of complementary backgrounds and temperaments and a marriage that created a warm and welcoming household Their books were not only immensely popular with children but also admired by critics librarians and tastemakers In the years before the founding of the Caldecott Medal their contributions were recognized by the American Institute of Graphic Arts AIGA Four of the Petershams books were selected for inclusion in the highly competitive AIGA exhibitions in the late 1920s and early 1930s During the 1940s the Petershams won a Caldecott Honor in 1942 for An American ABC and a Caldecott Medal in 1946 for The Rooster Crows
