articles The First Hollywood Musicals Edwin M. Bradley, 2004-08-25 As Hollywood entered the sound era it was rightly determined that the same public fascinated by the novelty of the talkie would be dazzled by the spectacle of a song and dance film In 1929 and 1930 film musicals became the industry's most lucrative genre until the greedy studios almost killed the genre by glutting the market with too many films that looked and sounded like clones of each other From the classy movies such as Sunnyside Up and Hallelujah to failures such as The Lottery Bride and Howdy Broadway this filmography details 171 early Hollywood musicals Arranged by subgenre backstagers operettas college films and stage derived musical comedies the entries include studio release date cast and credits running time a complete song list any recordings spawned by the film Academy Award nominations and winners and availability on video or laserdisc These data are followed by a plot synopsis including analysis of the film's place in the genre's history Includes over 90 photographs Lillian Russell Donald R. Schwartz, Anne A. Bowbeer, 1997-09-16 In this thorough study of Lillian Russell chapters provide detailed entries of her performances and extensive bibliographic information Bulletin of Bibliography, 1993 Ronald Colman Sam Frank, 1997-04-16 One of the most enchanting figures of the silver screen Ronald Colman appeared in such classic films as Beau Geste The Prisoner of Zenda Lost Horizon and A Tale of Two Cities He was nominated four times for the Academy Award which he won for a spectacular performance in A Double Life His voice was unrivaled and he had a brilliant career as a radio star A charismatically photogenic performer he was voted the handsomest actor in Hollywood on several occasions His superior skills his dashing visage and his resonant speech made him one of the most sought after and acclaimed stars of his day In spite of his enormous talent and supreme achievements Ronald Colman has strangely been overlooked This immensely detailed reference book brings Colman's life and career into sharp focus corrects misleading information about him and comments on the critical response to his work The heart of this expertly researched volume is a series of chapters with entries for Colman's many hundreds of performances in film radio and television Entries provide full production information plot synopses excerpts from reviews and valuable commentary An extensive annotated bibliography summarizes and assesses material written about Colman and the author scrupulously debunks the many myths that have been written about Colman in previous publications George Burns and Gracie Allen Cynthia Clements, Sandra Weber, 1996-08-23 In the minds of today's audiences George Burns was a solo act But in the history of show business he will long be remembered for his work with Gracie Allen Few performers have enjoyed so much popular and critical acclaim Together they enjoyed phenomenal success in vaudeville radio television and film Although they were celebrities the two performers enjoyed a life remarkably free of scandal After the death of Allen in 1964 Burns made commercials a music video and an exercise video He wrote books and won numerous awards and his nightclub and convention appearances did not stop until shortly before his death Through a thoughtful biography and detailed entries this book serves as a comprehensive reference to the careers of Burns and Allen together and individually The biography summarizes their rise as vaudeville performers their work in a range of media and Burns continued achievements after Allen's death. Sections of the book cover their work on the stage, on radio, on television, and in films. Each section provides detailed entries for their performances, including cast and credit information, plot synopses, and review excerpts. Appendices list their awards, personal appearances, and archives, and an extensive annotated bibliography cites and discusses sources of additional information.

John Ford Bill Levy, 1998-11-30

John Ford (1894-1973) is universally acknowledged as one of the greatest directors in the history of cinema. He is the only person to win four Academy Awards for Direction for The Informer (1935), The Grapes of Wrath (1940), How Green Was My Valley (1941), and The Quiet Man (1952). This reference book is a comprehensive guide to his career. The volume begins with a biography that looks at Ford as a person, a director, and a cinematic legend, and influence. Ford's life is discussed chronologically, but the biography repeatedly considers how his early experiences shaped his creative vision and attempts to explain why he was so self-destructive and unhappy throughout his career. In addition, the biography carefully scrutinizes his methods, styles, techniques, and secrets of direction. A chronology presents his achievements in capsule form. The rest of the book provides detailed information about his many productions and about the response to his works. The heart of the volume is a filmography which includes individual entries for 184 films with which Ford was involved as either an actor, a director, a producer, a writer, an advisor, or an assistant. These entries include cast and credit information, a plot synopsis, critical commentary, and excerpts from reviews. The book also includes the most extensive annotated bibliography on Ford ever published, with more than 1,000 entries for books, articles, dissertations, documentaries, and even four works of fiction concerning Ford. Additional sections of the book provide information about his unrealized projects, his radio, television, and theater work, his awards and honors, and special collections and archives.
