Maurices Mum:

Maurice's Mum Roger Smith,1989-01-01 This story is about a boys mother who is different from everyone elses mom Everyone thought that she was a witch An Invisible Thread Laura Schroff,Alex Tresniowski,2012-08-07 A cloth bag containing eight copies of the title that may also include a folder The Story of My Life \(Complete\) Augustus John Cuthbert Hare,2020-09-28 IN 1727 the year of George the First s death Miss Grace Naylor of Hurstmonceaux though she was beloved charming and beautiful died very mysteriously in her twenty first year in the immense and weird old castle of which she had been the heiress She was affirmed to have been starved by her former governess who lived alone with her but the fact was never proved Her property passed to her first cousin Francis Hare son of her aunt Bethaia who forthwith assumed the name of Naylor The new owner of Hurstmonceaux was the only child of the first marriage of that Francis Hare who through the influence first of the Duke of Marlborough by whose side then a chaplain he had ridden on the battle fields of Blenheim and Ramilies and afterwards of his family connections the Pelhams and Walpoles rose to become one of the richest and most popular pluralists of his age Yet he had to be contented at last with the bishoprics of St Asaph and Chichester with each of which he held the Deanery of St Paul s the Archbishopric of Canterbury having twice just escaped him The Bishop s eldest son Francis was un facheux d tail de notre famille as the grandfather of Madame de Maintenon said of his son He died after a life of the wildest dissipation without leaving any children by his wife Carlotta Alston who was his stepmother s sister So the property of Hurstmonceaux went to his half brother Robert son of the Bishop s second marriage with Mary Margaret Alston heiress of the Vatche in Buckinghamshire and of several other places besides Sir Robert Walpole had been the godfather of Robert Hare Naylor and presented him with a valuable sinecure office as a christening present and he further made the Bishop urge the Church as the profession in which father and godfather could best aid the boy s advancement Accordingly Robert took orders obtained a living and was made a Canon of Winchester While he was still very young his father had further secured his fortunes by marrying him to the heiress who lived nearest to his mother s property of the Vatche and by the beautiful Sarah Selman daughter of the owner of Chalfont St Peter s and sister of Mrs Lefevre he had two sons Francis and Robert and an only daughter Anna Maria afterwards Mrs Bulkeley In the zenith of her youth and loveliness however Sarah Hare died very suddenly from eating ices when overheated at a ball and soon afterwards Robert married a second wife the rich Henrietta Henckel who pulled down Hurstmonceaux Castle She did this because she was jealous of the sons of her predecessor and wished to build a large new house which she persuaded her husband to settle upon her own children who were numerous though only two daughters lived to any great age But she was justly punished for when Robert Hare died it was discovered that the great house which Wyatt had built for Mrs Hare and which is now known as Hurstmonceaux Place was erected upon entailed land so that the house stripped of furniture and the property shorn of its most valuable farms passed to Francis Hare Naylor son of Miss Selman Mrs Henckel Hare lived on to a great age and when the burden of her years came on her she repented of her avarice and injustice and coming back to Hurstmonceaux in childish senility would wander round and round the castle ruins in the early morning and late evening wringing her hands and saying Who could have done such a wicked thing oh who could have done such a wicked thing as to pull down this beautiful old place Then her daughters Caroline and Marianne walking beside her would say Oh dear mamma it was you who did it it was you yourself who did it you know and she would despairingly resume Oh no that is impossible it could not have been me I could not have done such a wicked thing it could not have been me that did it My cousin Marcus Hare had at Abbots Kerswell a picture of Mrs Henckel Hare which was always surrounded with crape bows The Story of My Life, volumes 1-3 Augustus J. C. Hare,2019-12-06 In The Story of My Life Augustus J C Hare presents a captivating autobiographical narrative that seamlessly intertwines personal anecdotes with wider historical contexts Spanning three volumes Hare s prose is marked by its introspective depth and rich descriptive quality bringing to life his experiences across Victorian England and beyond The work is not merely an autobiography it is a tapestry of social observations literary critiques and reflections on mortality and friendship that resonate deeply within the literary landscape of its time often drawing parallels to contemporaries like John Stuart Mill and Samuel Butler Augustus J C Hare born in 1834 was a profound observer of life whose experiences as a traveler lecturer and author imbued his work with authenticity and insight His family s artistic legacy and his own extensive travels shaped his worldview imbuing his life story with engaging encounters and profound insights Hare s literary journey reflects a meticulous attention to the interplay between personal experience and broader societal movements allowing readers to connect with his narrative on various levels Readers seeking an engaging exploration of 19th century life encapsulated through personal reflection will find The Story of My Life a rewarding endeavor Hare s unique voice invites contemplation of existential themes and human relationships making it essential for those interested in literary history or autobiographical literature The Story of My Life Augustus John Cuthbert Hare,1896 Comfort ,1906 Atalanta ,1896 F. D. Maurice and Unitarianism David Young,1992 F D Maurice 1805 72 was one of Victorian Britain s most controversial thinkers Although he came from a Unitarian family and counted leading Unitarians as his friends their influence on his work has never been seriously examined The purpose of this new book is to look at his life and teaching in the light of Unitarianism Maurice s faith had a distinctly Christological emphasis but he continued to value his Unitarian heritage His concern with the Fatherhood of God and the dignity of the human race owes much to his family background Dr Young s study opens with a compact history of Unitarianism during the lives of F D Maurice and his father a Unitarian minister A series of biographical sketches draws on hitherto unpublished material to set Maurice s work in its historical context The final chapters compare the central themes of his theology with the teaching of his Unitarian contemporaries Exits and Entrances Mary Goodlet Clyde,2008 Exits and Entrances is the story of the authors early life in Belfast It is also a story of travel to distant lands by ocean liners before the age of air travel Playground 50 Cent,2011-11-01 Thirteen year old

Butterball doesn't have much going for him. He's teased mercilessly about his weight. He hates the Long Island suburb his mom moved them to and wishes he still lived with his dad in the city. And now he's stuck talking to a totally out of touch therapist named Liz. Liz tries to uncover what happened that day on the playground, a day that landed one kid in the hospital and Butterball in detention. Butterball refuses to let her in on the truth and while he evades her questions, he takes readers on a journey through the moments that made him into the playground bully he is today. This devastating yet ultimately redemptive story is told in voice-driven prose and accented with drawings and photographs, making it a natural successor to The Absolutely True Diary of a Part-Time Indian. Loosely inspired by 50 Cent's own adolescence and written with his fourteen-year-old son in mind, Playground is sure to captivate wide attention and spark intense discussion. Augustus Hare

Malcolm Barnes, 2025-03-03 First published in 1895 in this book, Malcolm Barnes, the editor of Augustus Hare's autobiography, tries to elucidate a man who wrote much about others but little of consequence about himself in spite of the longest story of my life in the English language. When Augustus Hare published the first part of his autobiography in 1896, it was received with anger and abuse. He was attacked because he had told the truth about his treatment as a child by his adoptive family at the Rectory of Herstmonceux, where in the interest of his immortal soul he was subjected to all kinds of physical and mental torment. He grew up through a hopeless youth, tied irrevocably to his mother, to become an enthusiastic traveller and writer of many guidebooks and accomplished water colourist, a writer of memorials of several noble ladies and an indefatigable party-goer. He himself remained an enigma. This book is an interesting read for scholars and researchers of English literature. For the Fourth Generation Martin Sheppard, 2017-03-07 For the Fourth Generation takes its title from a family memoir by Eva O'Malley written in 1954. In it, she vividly captured the characters of earlier and contemporary members of her family and recalled her own childhood at Denton House in Oxfordshire. Her father, Sir Edward O'Malley, who had a distinguished career as a colonial judge, had married Winifred Hardcastle, one of the four daughters of Joseph Alfred Hardcastle, a brewer and politician. The second part of For the Fourth Generation contains eight other items on family members and houses. Joseph Alfred Hardcastle MP 1815-1899, born in extraordinary circumstances in 1840, married a brewing heiress from Writtle worth 180,000 and managed to spend almost all of it. Peter Frederic O'Malley 1804-1874, born in Mayo, was the founder of the family in England. He made a highly successful career as a barrister in East Anglia, though a less successful one as a politician. His son, Sir Edward, wrote a poignant account of his own childhood shared with his brother George in the 1850s, while Winifred O'Malley wrote a short biography of the most talented artist in the family, her brother in law, St. Clair. The book ends with portraits of two houses: Monkswell House on Chelsea Embankment, the home of another of Joseph Alfred Hardcastle's daughters, Mary Lady Monkswell, a prolific and mordant diarist, and Denton, where Eva O'Malley and her brother, the diplomat Sir Owen O'Malley, grew up together. Both the Hardcastle and O'Malley families left extensive and revealing personal records, including letters, diaries, memoirs, and photographs, published and unpublished books, houses, and paintings These allow the lives and personalities of members of both families to come to life with remarkable immediacy All those who are descended from Joseph Alfred Hardcastle or Peter Frederic O Malley will find this book compelling

New Writing Scotland ,1993 Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1896 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1896 Peculiar People Augustus Hare,2014-09-01 These days hardly anyone remembers Augustus John Curthbert Hare 1834 1903 But in his prime the late Victorian age his name was on the lips of anyone who mattered He was a travel writer a storyteller and a memoirist of the first order and his work is a fascinating record of a lost way of life amongst the strangest upper classes of English society Alfred Lord Tennyson Hallam Tennyson,1897 Alfred Lord Tennyson Hallam Tennyson Baron Tennyson,1897 Spec Coll A Memoir By His Son Alfred Lord Tennyson,1897 Alfred, Lord Tennyson Hallam Tennyson,2012-06-28 Valuable for the wealth of documentary evidence it contains this two volume work remains the authoritative biography of Alfred Lord Tennyson
