Mausoleum Thirtyseven Ballads From The History Of Progress:

Mausoleum Hans Magnus Enzensberger, 1976 Poetic Maneuvers Charlotte Melin, 2003 The first English language study of the German author and critic Hans Magnus Enzensberger Heights of Reflection Sean Moore Ireton, Caroline Schaumann, 2012 Examines the lure of mountains in German literature philosophy film music and culture from the Middle Ages to the twenty first century Mountains have always stirred the human imagination playing a crucial role in the cultural evolution of peoples around the globe and becoming infused with meaning in the process Beyond their geographical geological significance mountains affect the topography of the mind whether as objects of peril or attraction of spiritual enlightenment or existential fulfillment of philosophical contemplation or aesthetic inspiration This volume challenges the oversimplified assumption that human interaction with mountains is a distinctly modern development one that began with the empowerment of the individual in the wake of Enlightenment rationalism and Romantic subjectivity These essays by European and North American scholars examine the lure of mountains in German literature philosophy film music and culture from the Middle Ages to the present with a focus on the interaction between humans and the alpine environment The contributors consider mountains not as mere symbolic tropes or literary metaphors but as constituting a tangible reality that informs the experiences and ideas of writers naturalists philosophers filmmakers and composers Overall this volume seeks to provide multiple answers to questions regarding the cultural significance of mountains as well as the physical practice of climbing them Contributors Peter Arnds Olaf Berwald Albrecht Classen Roger Cook Scott Denham Sean Franzel Christof Hamann Harald H. Busch Dan Hooley Peter H. Young Sean Ireton Oliver Lubrich Anthony Ozturk Caroline Schaumann Heather I. Sullivan Johannes T. R. Sabine Wilke Wilfried Wilms SEAN IRETON is Associate Professor of German at the University of Missouri CAROLINE SCHAUMANN is Professor of German Studies at Emory University The Game Changed Lawrence Joseph, 2011-09-29 Praise for Lawrence Joseph Poetry of great dignity grace and unrelenting persuasiveness Joseph gives us new hope for the resourcefulness of humanity and of poetry John Ashbery Like Henry Adams Joseph seems to be writing ahead of actual events and that makes him one of the scariest writers I know David Kirby The New York Times Book Review The most important lawyer poet of our era David Skeel Legal Affairs A volume in the Poets on Poetry series which collects critical works by contemporary poets gathering together the articles interviews and book reviews by which they have articulated the poetics of a new generation Essays on poetry by the most important poet lawyer of our era The Game Changed Essays and Other Prose presents works by prominent poet and lawyer Lawrence Joseph that focus on poetry and poetics and on what it is to be a poet Joseph takes the reader through the aesthetics of modernism and postmodernism a lineage that includes Wallace Stevens William Carlos Williams and Gertrude Stein switching critical tracks to major European poets like Eugenio Montale and Hans Magnus Enzensberger and back to American masters like James Schuyler and Adrienne Rich Always discerning especially on issues of identity form and the pressures of history and politics Joseph places his own poetry within its critical contexts presenting narratives of his life in Detroit where he grew up and in Manhattan where he has lived for 30 years These pieces also portray Joseph's Lebanese Syrian and Catholic heritages and his life as a lawyer distinguished law professor and legal scholar

The Universitas Project Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.),2006 This volume publishes in their entirety the various components of a conference hosted by MoMA in 1972 The Universitas Project The distinguished participants drawn from a wide range of scholarly and artistic disciplines engaged in a multidisciplinary debate on the future of design and design institutions in the postindustrial era Addressing issues and ideas still relevant today this book makes a particularly fertile chapter in the intellectual history of the Museum available for the first time to scholars the architecture and design community and the general public

The Moral Authority of Nature Lorraine Daston,Fernando Vidal,2004 For thousands of years people have used nature to justify their political moral and social judgments Such appeals to the moral authority of nature are still very much with us today as heated debates over genetically modified organisms and human cloning testify The Moral Authority of Nature offers a wide ranging account of how people have used nature to think about what counts as good beautiful just or valuable The eighteen essays cover a diverse array of topics including the connection of cosmic and human orders in ancient Greece medieval notions of sexual disorder early modern contexts for categorizing individuals and judging acts as against nature race and the origin of humans ecological economics and radical feminism The essays also range widely in time and place from archaic Greece to early twentieth century China medieval Europe to contemporary America Scholars from a wide variety of fields will welcome The Moral Authority of Nature which provides the first sustained historical survey of its topic Contributors Danielle Allen Joan Cadden Lorraine Daston Fa ti Fan Eckhardt Fuchs Valentin Groebner Abigail J Lustig Gregg Mitman Michelle Murphy Katharine Park Matt Price Robert N Proctor Helmut Puff Robert J Richards Londa Schiebinger Laura Slatkin Julia Adeney Thomas Fernando Vidal

Writing with the Words of Others Alan J. Clayton,2010 Hans Magnus Enzensberger is one of the most widely read and respected writers in post war Germany In the present study a considerable number of his most important poems are closely analyzed including the texts that make up his major poetic cycles Mausoleum 1975 and Der Untergang der Titanic 1978 Central to any discussion of this highly diverse corpus is the way in which Enzensberger creates strikingly original poems on the basis of borrowed material Der Untergang der Titanic for example is closely based on the famous bestseller A Night to Remember 1955 by the American writer Walter Lord and on the film of the same name by Roy Baker 1958 Enzensberger's Versepos is simply unimaginable without Lord's book and certain episodes represented in the poem can be fully understood only by readers who have seen the film The appropriation of documentary material also plays an important role in the series of poems devoted to nature or science many of which present themselves as riddles An entire chapter is devoted to the analysis of these fascinating riddle poems The various personages portrayed in Mausoleum comprise not only scientists inventors explorers and thinkers who were responsible for truly world changing discoveries Gutenberg Humboldt and Darwin for example but also a whole series of historical figures whose admission to this oddball pantheon is best explained by the bizarreness of their often utopian projects or by their compulsive or megalomaniacal personalities The playful and provocative Enzensberger clearly chose several of these latter for their shock value Raimondo di Sangro V M Molotov Ernesto Guevara de la Serna Our reading of this collection demonstrates Enzensberger's willingness to undermine seriousness with irony and humor hence the presence of Dante and Marilyn Monroe on board the sinking Titanic The final chapter examines the relation between poetry and politics and examines the notorious essay Gemeinplütze die Neueste Literatur betreffend 1968 as well as the disturbing interview with the Weimarer Beiträge 1971 in which the poet expresses his thankfully short lived rejection of literature as art and his desire to break out of the Ghetto des Kulturlebens This chapter also discusses the influence of Bertolt Brecht Other chapters focus on the poet's taste for anachronism his asynchronous sensibility and the recurrent theme of disappearance

Optical Media Friedrich Kittler, 2010 Friedrich Kittler's lecture series provides a concise history of optical media from Renaissance linear perspective to late twentieth century computer graphics He begins by looking at European painting since the Renaissance in order to discern the principles according to which modern optical perception was organised Kittler also discusses the development of various mechanical devices like the camera obscura and the laterna magica which were closely connected to the printing press and which played a pivotal role in the media war between the Reformation and the Counterreformation After examining this history Kittler then addresses the ways in which images were first stored and made to move through the development of photography and film Kittler discusses the competitive relationship between photography and painting as well as between film and theater as innovations like the Baroque proscenium or picture frame stage evolved from elements that would later constitute cinema The central question however is the impact of film on the ancient monopoly of writing as it not only provoked new forms of competition for novelists but also fundamentally altered the status of books In the final section Kittler examines the development of electrical telecommunications and electronic image processing from television to computer simulations In short these lectures provide a comprehensive introduction to the history of image production which is indispensable for anyone wishing to understand the prevailing audiovisual conditions of contemporary culture

On the Past, Present, and Future of Semioethics Susan Petrilli, Simon Levesque, 2025-06-30 This volume charts the origins development and future potential of semioethics through the work of Susan Petrilli showcasing an extended dialogue with one of the eminent figures in semiotics scholarship Featuring a wide ranging conversation between Petrilli and scholar Simon Levesque the book makes the case for semioethics as a critical approach that can help us better understand important issues at stake in today's world such as precarity social responsibility and climate change through the interplay of signs meaning making and interpretation The dialogue is organized around key chapters in Petrilli's career exploring the influences of such scholars as Peirce and Bakhtin the collaborations with Sebeok and Eco and the efforts in revitalizing the work of Victoria Welby The book explores how these strands culminated in the creation of semioethics with Petrilli's longtime collaborator Augusto Ponzio and looks ahead to new directions for the further study of the relation between signs and values semiotics and axiology and communication and ethics Highlighting the expansiveness of Petrilli's body of work and the possibilities of semioethics in addressing key questions in contemporary social life for a better world this volume will be of interest to scholars in semiotics language and communication philosophy of language and cultural studies

East, West, and Others Arlene Akiko Teraoka, 1996-01-01 East West and Others is the first work to examine the Third World in German literature from World War II to the present Arlene A Teraoka investigates how prominent post World War II East and West German authors have portrayed the Third World She discusses the persistent stereotypes of race culture and sexuality in texts by authors whose careers were shaped by concerns with Third World politics Those writers include Anna Seghers Peter Weiss Hans Magnus Enzensberger and Heiner Müller East Germans Claus Hammel and Peter Hacks and the documentary West German writers Max von der Grün Günter Wallraff and Paul Geiersbach Teraoka demonstrates the continuing German need to construct a postwar identity freed from the fascist past and the conflicts and clichés that inevitably mar this dream of the self Whether authors project a champion of humanity who upholds Enlightenment ideals or a fragmented European protagonist paralyzed by guilt all negotiate between the forces of rationality and prejudice universality and difference solidarity and helplessness

The Truth of the Technological World Friedrich A Kittler, 2014-09-17 Twenty three essays that document the intellectual itinerary of the philosopher and cultural historian one of the most original thinkers in recent times Friedrich Kittler 1943 2011 combined the study of literature cinema technology and philosophy in a manner sufficiently novel to be recognized as a new field of academic endeavor in his native Germany Media studies as Kittler conceived it meant reflecting on how books operate as films poetry as computer science and music as military equipment This volume collects writings from all stages of the author's prolific career Exemplary essays illustrate how matters of form and inscription make heterogeneous source material e.g literary classics and computer design interchangeable on the level of function with far reaching consequences for our understanding of the humanities and the hard sciences Rich in counterintuitive propositions sly humor and vast erudition Kittler s work both challenges the assumptions of positivistic cultural history and exposes the over abstraction and language games of philosophers such as Heidegger and Derrida [Catalog of Copyright Entries.
