pass as white Masked pays close attention to Leonowens's midlevel origins in British India her education at a Bombay charity school for Eurasian children her material and social milieu in Australia and Singapore the stresses she endured in Bangkok as a working widow the latent melancholy that often afflicted her the problematic aspects of her self invention and the welcome she found in America where a circle of elite New England abolitionists who knew nothing about Southeast Asia gave her their uncritical support Her embellished story would again capture America's imagination as World War II ended and a newly interventionist United States looked toward Asia Best Books for General Audiences selected by the American Association of School Librarians Best Regional Special Interest Boosk selected by the Public Library Reviewers
