Caliban and the Witch Silvia Federici, 2021-07-29 A groundbreaking work Federici has become a crucial figure for a new generation of feminists Rachel Kushner author of The Mars Room A cult classic since its publication in the early years of this century Caliban and the Witch is Silvia Federici's history of the body in the transition to capitalism Moving from the peasant revolts of the late Middle Ages through the European witch hunts the rise of scientific rationalism and the colonisation of the Americas it gives a panoramic account of the often horrific violence with which the unruly human material of pre capitalist societies was transformed into a set of predictable and controllable mechanisms It is a study of indigenous traditions crushed of the enclosure of women's reproductive powers within the nuclear family and of how our modern world was forged in blood Rewarding allows us to better understand the intimate relationship between modern patriarchy the rise of the nation state and the transition from feudalism to capitalism Guardian This World and Nearer Ones Brian Aldiss, 2013-08-29 Aldiss acclaimed 1979 essay collection reissued for the first time in over thirty years The Register of Marriages for the Parish of Edinburgh, 1595- Edinburgh (Parish), 1908 Sex, Race and Class Selma James, 2012-03-01 In 1972 Selma James set out a new political perspective Her starting point was the millions of unwaged women who working in the home and on the land were not seen as workers and their struggles viewed as outside of the class struggle Based on her political training in the Johnson Forest Tendency founded by her late husband C L R James on movement experience South and North and on a respectful study of Marx she redefined the working class to include sectors previously dismissed as marginal For James the class struggle presents itself as the conflict between the reproduction and survival of the human race and the domination of the market with its exploitation wars and ecological devastation She sums up her strategy for change as Invest in Caring not Killing This selection spanning six decades traces the development of this perspective in the course of building an international campaigning network It includes the classic The Power of Women and the Subversion of the Community which launched the domestic labor debate the exciting Hookers in the House of the Lord which describes a church occupation by sex workers an incisive review of the C L R James masterpiece The Black Jacobins a reappraisal of the novels of Jean Rhys and of the leadership of Julius Nyerere the groundbreaking Marx and Feminism and What the Marxists Never Told Us About Marx published here for the first time The writing is lucid and without jargon The ideas never abstract spring from the experience of organising from trying to make sense of the successes and the setbacks and from the need to find a way forward Publisher's website The Official Index to The Times ,1915 Patterns of Dissonance Rosi Braidotti, 2013-04-29 This book is a brilliant and timely analysis of the complex issues raised by the relation between women and philosophy It offers a critical account of a wide range of contemporary philosophical and feminist texts and it develops this account into an original project of critical feminist thought Braidotti examines contemporary French philosophy as practised by men such as Foucault and Derrida showing that they rely on a notion of the feminine in order to undermine classical thought which bears no direct relevance to the historical experience of women Braidotti then looks at the attempts of contemporary feminist thinkers in Europe and the United States to show the gendered nature of discursive power games She discusses the contributions of Luce Irigaray and many other feminist theorists to the understanding of sexual difference and of its implications for philosophy and politics This book will be of interest to students and researchers in women s studies feminist theory social theory cultural studies philosophy and literature and anyone interested in contemporary feminism and the relation between feminist theory post structuralism and psychoanalysis ICC Register ,1994 Joseph Knight James Robertson,2013-06-20 A book of such quality as to persuade you that historical novels are the true business of the writer Daily Telegraph An Introduction to Decision Theory Martin Peterson,2017-03-30 A comprehensive and accessible introduction to all aspects of decision theory now with new and updated discussions and over 140 exercises Myths of the Near Future J. G. Ballard,1994 First published 1982 Short stories providing visions of other times and other places where nothing seems quite right Ecofeminism as Politics Ariel Salleh,1997-11 This is an exploration of the philosophical and political challenge of ecofeminism It shows how the ecology movement has been held back by conceptual confusion over the implications of gender difference while much that passes in the name of feminism is actually an obstacle to ecological change and global democracy The author argues that ecofeminism reaches beyond contemporary social movements being a synthesis of four revolutions in one ecology is feminism is socialism is post colonial struggle Informed by a critical postmodern reading of the Marxist tradition Salleh s ecofeminism integrates discourses on science the body culture nature and political economy The book opens with a short history of ecofeminism Part Two establishes the basis for its epistemological challenge while the third part consists of ecofeminist deconstructions of deep ecology social ecology ecosocialism and postmodern feminism In the final section Salleh suggests that a powerful way forward can be found in commonalities between ecofeminist and indigenous struggles Exportation of Liquors United States.
