E. Warlick, 2013-05-01 Surrealist artist Max Ernst defined collage as the alchemy of the visual image Students of his work have often dismissed this comment as simply a metaphor for the transformative power of using found images in a new context Taking a wholly different perspective on Ernst and alchemy however M E Warlick persuasively demonstrates that the artist had a profound and abiding interest in alchemical philosophy and often used alchemical symbolism in works created throughout his career A revival of interest in alchemy swept the artistic psychoanalytic historical and scientific circles of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and Warlick sets Ernst's work squarely within this movement Looking at both his art many of the works she discusses are reproduced in the book and his writings she reveals how thoroughly alchemical philosophy and symbolism pervade his early Dadaist experiments his foundational work in surrealism and his many collages and paintings of women and landscapes whose images exemplify the alchemical fusing of opposites This pioneering research adds an essential key to understanding the multilayered complexity of Ernst's works as it affirms his standing as one of Germany's most significant artists of the twentieth century unconcerned but not indifferent - the life of Man Ray Derek Adams, 2006 The Dada Painters and Poets Robert Motherwell, 1989 Presents a collection of essays manifestos and illustrations that provide an overview of the Dada movement in art describing its convictions antics and spirit through the words and art of its principal practitioners Endless Enigma: Eight Centuries of Fantastic Art Dawn Ades, 2019-04-23 Endless Enigma Eight Centuries of Fantastic Art explores the ways in which artists have sought to explain their world in terms of an alternate reality drawn from imagination the subconscious poetry nature myth and religion Endless Enigma takes as its point of departure Alfred H Barr Jr's legendary 1936 exhibition at The Museum of Modern Art New York Fantastic Art Dada Surrealism which not only introduced these movements to the American public but also placed them in a historical and cultural context by situating them with artists from earlier centuries Presenting works from the twelfth century to the present day this catalogue is organized into six themes Monsters Demons Dreams Temptation Fragmented Body Unconscious Gesture Super Nature and Sense of Place Works included range from medieval gargoyles to twentieth century works by
