Postcards from the Trenches

Irene Guenther, 2018-11-01 German art student Otto Schubert was 22 years old when he was drafted into the Great War As the conflict unfolded he painted a series of postcards that he sent to his sweetheart Irma During the battles of Ypres and Verdun Schubert filled dozens of military issued 4 x 6 cards with vivid images depicting the daily realities and tragedies of war Beautifully illustrated with full color reproductions of his exquisite postcards as well as his wartime sketches woodcuts and two lithograph portfolios Postcards from the Trenches is Schubert's war diary love journal and life story His powerful artworks illuminate and document in a visual language the truths of war Postcards from the Trenches offers the first full account of Otto Schubert soldier artist of the Great War rising art star in the 1920s prolific graphic artist and book illustrator one of the degenerate artists defamed by the Nazis and a man shattered by the Second World War and the Cold War Created in the midst of enormous devastation Schubert's haunting visual missives are as powerful and relevant today as they were a century ago His postcards are both a young man's token of love and longing and a soldier's testimony of the Great War

Self-Portrait in Words Max Beckmann, 1997-03-15 One of the most important German artists of the twentieth century Max Beckmann was labeled a degenerate artist by the Nazis and chose exile His artistic production encompassed the realism and figural themes of his early works to the provocatively blunt portraiture critical urban views and richly layered symbolic works for which he is now universally recognized Although he was a prolific writer his written work has never before been collected and translated into English Beckmann is known for the depth pungency and tremendous sensuous force of his works only in the last twenty years have we come to learn more about his personal life Self Portrait in Words maps out Beckmann's life and draws attention to the occasions on or for which he produced his writings to the importance writing had for him as a form of expression and to both the contemporary and personal references of his ideas and images
