Liquid Life Rachel Armstrong, 2019 If we lived in a liquid world the concept of a machine would make no sense Liquid life is metaphor and apparatus that discusses the consequences of thinking working and living through liquids It is an irreducible paradoxical parallel planetary scale material condition unevenly distributed spatially but temporally continuous It is what remains when logical explanations can no longer account for the experiences that we recognize as part of being alive Liquid Life references a third millennial understanding of matter that seeks to restore the agency of the liquid soul for an ecological era which has been banished by reductionist brute materialist discourses and mechanical models of life Offering an alternative worldview of the living realm through a new materialist and liquid study of matter Armstrong conjures forth examples of creatures that do not obey mechanistic concepts like predictability efficiency and rationality With the advent of molecular science an increasingly persuasive ontology of liquid technologies can be identified Through the lens of lifelike dynamic droplets the agency for these systems exists at the interfaces between different fields of matter energy that respond to highly local effects with no need for a central organizing system Liquid Life seeks an alternative partnership between humanity and the natural world It provokes a re invention of the languages of the living realm to open up alternative spaces for exploration including contributor Rolf Hughes angelology of language which explores the transformative invocations of prose poetry and Simone Ferracina s graphical notations that help shape our concepts of metabolism upcycling and designing with fluids A conceptual and practical toolset for thinking and designing liquid life reunites us with the irreducible soul substance of living things which will neither be simply solved nor go away Shades of Noir Joan Copjec,1993 For this was the summer when after the hiatus of the Second World War French critics were again given the opportunity to view films from Hollywood The films they saw including The Maltese Falcon Double Indemnity Laura Murder My Sweet and The Woman in the Window prompted the naming and theorization of a new phenomenon film noir Much of what has been written about the genre since has remained within the orbit of this preliminary assessment While sympathetic towards the early French critics this collection of original essays attempts to move beyond their first fascinated look Beginning with an autonomy of that look of the poujadist climate that nourished it and the imminent collapse of the Hollywood studio system that gave it its mournful inflection Shades of Noir re explores and calls into question the object first constructed by it The impetus for this shift in perspective comes from the films themselves viewed in the light of contemporary social and political concerns and from new theoretical insights Several contributions analyze the re emergence of noir in recent years most notably in the hybrid forms produced in the 1980s by the merging of noir with science fiction and horror for example Blade Runner and Angel Heart and in films by black directors such as Deep Cover Straight out of Brooklyn A Rage in Harlem and One False Move Other essays focus on the open urban territory in which the noir hero hides out the office spaces in Chandler and the palpable sense of waiting that fills empty warehouses corridors and hotel rooms Finally Shades of Noir pays renewed attention to the lethal relation between the sexes to the femme fatale and the other women in noir As the role of women expands the femme fatale remains deadly but her deadliness takes on new meanings Contributors Janet Bergstrom Joan Copjec Elizabeth Cowie Manthia Diawara Frederic Jameson Dean MacCannel Fred Pfeil David Reid and Jayne L Walker Marc Vernet Slavoj Zizek Accidental Ambassador Gordo Robert C. Harvey, Gus Arriola,2000 A collection of comic strips by Robert Harvey that feature Gordo Serious Games and Edutainment Applications Minhua Ma,Andreas Oikonomou,Lakhmi C. Jain,2011-12-10 The recent re emergence of serious games as a branch of video games and as a promising frontier of education has introduced the concept of games designed for a serious purpose other than pure entertainment To date the major applications of serious games include education and training engineering medicine and healthcare military applications city planning production crisis response to name just a few If utilised alongside or combined with conventional training and educational approaches serious games could provide a more powerful means of knowledge transfer in almost every application domain Serious Games and Edutainment Applications offers an insightful introduction to the development and applications of games technologies in educational settings It includes cutting edge academic research and industry updates that will inform readers of current and future advances in the area The book is suitable for both researchers and educators who are interested in using games for educational purposes as well as game professionals requiring a thorough understanding of issues involved in the application of video games technology into educational settings It is also applicable to programmers game artists and management contemplating or involved in the development of serious games for educational or training purposes

Creativity, Inc. (The Expanded Edition) Ed Catmull, Amy Wallace, 2023-09-28 The co founder and longtime president of Pixar updates and expands his 2014 New York Times bestseller on creative leadership reflecting on the management principles that built Pixar's singularly successful culture and on all he learned during the past nine years that allowed Pixar to retain its creative culture while continuing to evolve Might be the most thoughtful management book ever Fast Company For nearly thirty years Pixar has dominated the world of animation producing such beloved films as the Toy Story trilogy Finding Nemo The Incredibles Up and WALL E which have gone on to set box office records and garner eighteen Academy Awards The joyous storytelling the inventive plots the emotional authenticity In some ways Pixar movies are an object lesson in what creativity really is Here Catmull reveals the ideals and techniques that have made Pixar so widely admired and so profitable As a young man Ed Catmull had a dream to make the first computer animated movie He nurtured that dream as a Ph D student and then forged a partnership with George Lucas that led indirectly to his founding Pixar with Steve Jobs and John Lasseter in 1986 Nine years later Toy Story was released changing animation forever The essential ingredient in that movie's success and in the twenty five movies that followed was the unique environment that Catmull and his colleagues built at Pixar based on philosophies that protect the creative process and defy convention such as Give a good idea to a mediocre team and they will screw it up But give a mediocre idea to a great team and they will either fix it or come up with something better It's not the manager's job to prevent risks It's the manager's job to make it safe for others to take them The cost of preventing errors is often far greater than the cost of fixing them A company's communication structure should not mirror its organizational structure Everybody should be able to talk to anybody Creativity Inc has been significantly expanded to illuminate the continuing development of the unique culture at Pixar It features a new introduction two entirely new chapters four new chapter postscripts and changes and updates throughout Pursuing excellence isn't a one off assignment but an ongoing day in day out full time job And Creativity Inc explores how it is done

Structures of Influence Marilyn Johns Blackwell, 2020-05 This collection of essays featuring contributions from eminent Swedish and American Strindberg scholars addresses the question of how Strindberg's art collides and colludes ideologically and aesthetically with the literary doyens of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in both the Scandinavian and the larger Western cultural context

Shakespeare, Film Studies, and the Visual Cultures of Modernity A. Guneratne, 2016-04-30 This book is the first in depth cultural history of cinema's polyvalent and often contradictory appropriations of Shakespearean drama and performance traditions The author argues that these adaptations have helped shape multiple aspects of film from cinematic style to genre and narrative construction

As Earth Without Water Katy Carl, 2021-09-12 When Dylan Fielding celebrated contemporary visual artist becomes Br Thomas Augustine novice at Our Lady of the Pines monastery he finds delight not only in the shock his choice causes everyone around him but to his own surprise in the rhythms of the life itself Shortly before he solidifies a lifelong commitment to the community a traumatic encounter with an abusive priest plunges Thomas Augustine into terror and doubt Reeling and uncertain he reaches out to his friend rival and former lover Angele Solomon with hopes that she can help him to speak the difficult truth As she attempts to advocate for her friend Angele must ask how the scars left by their common past as well as newer harms can ever be healed or transcended The wider inquiries demanded next will transfigure how both of them picture a range of human and divine things time and memory art and agency trust and responsibility and what it might mean to know real freedom

The Humanities Through the Arts F. David Martin, Lee A. Jacobus, 1978 Humanities through the Arts is intended for introductory level interdisciplinary courses offered across the curriculum in the Humanities Philosophy Art English Music and Education departments Arranged topically by art form from painting sculpture photography and architecture to literature music theater film and dance This beautifully illustrated text helps students learn how to actively engage a work of art The new sixth edition retains the popular focus on the arts as an expression of cultural and personal values

The Planetary Turn Amy J. Elias, Christian Moraru, 2015-04-30 A groundbreaking essay collection that pursues the rise of geoculture as an essential framework for arts criticism The Planetary Turn shows how the planet as a territory a sociopolitical arena a natural space of interaction for all earthly life and an artistic theme is increasingly the conceptual and political dimension in which twenty first century writers and artists picture themselves and their work In an introduction that comprehensively defines the planetary model of art culture and cultural aesthetic interpretation the editors explain how the living planet is emerging as distinct from older concepts of globalization cosmopolitanism and environmentalism and is becoming a new ground for exciting work in contemporary literature visual and media arts and social humanities Written by internationally recognized scholars the twelve essays that follow illustrate the unfolding of a new vision of potential planetary community that retools earlier models based on the nation state or political blocs and reimagines cultural political aesthetic and ethical relationships for the post Cold War era

Television Performance James Walters, Lucy Fife Donaldson, 2019-08-06 This innovative and timely collection offers a wide reaching critical evaluation of performance in television mapping out key conventions practices and concerns while introducing performance theory and criticism to the established field of television studies Chapters from leading scholars move through a range of examples from different styles and genres from Game of Thrones to America's Next Top Model Individual performances are analysed in close detail as the authors debate central questions of meaning value and achievement Opening out new pathways for inquiry and investigation this book is an important touchstone for undergraduate and postgraduate students of television media and theatre studies with an interest in the work of actors and non actors on screen

American Sensations Shelley Streeby, 2002-05-10 American Sensations is an erudite and sweeping cultural history of the sensationalist literatures and mass cultures of the American 1848 It is the finest book yet written on the U S Mexican War and how it was central to the making and unmaking of U S mass culture class and racial formation Jos David Sald var author of Border Matters Remapping American Cultural Studies A major work that will challenge current paradigms of nineteenth century literature and culture American Sensations brilliantly succeeds in remapping the volatile and shifting terrain of both national identity and literary history in the mid nineteenth century Amy Kaplan co editor of Cultures of United States Imperialism Media Matters in South Africa Jeanne Prinsloo, Costas Criticos, 1991 This report contains a selection of contributed papers and presentations from a conference attended by 270 educators and media workers committed to formulate a vision for media education in South Africa Pointing out that media education has been variously described in South Africa as visual literacy mass media studies teleliteracy and film studies or as dealing with educational technology or educational media the introduction cites a definition of media education as an exploration of contemporary culture alongside more traditional literary texts It is noted that this definition raises issues for education as a whole for traditional language study for media for communication and for understanding the world The 37 selected papers in this collection are presented in seven categories 1 Why Media Education keynote paper by Bob Ferguson 2 Matters Educational 10 papers on media education and visual literacy 3 Working Out How Media Works 4 papers on film studies film technology and theory 4 Creating New Possibilities for Media Awareness 9 papers on film and television and 4 on print media 5 Training and Empowering 2 papers focusing on teachers and 4 focusing on training producers 6 Media Developing Media Awareness 2 papers and 7 Afterthoughts 1 paper Appendices include the Unesco Declaration on Media Education 1982 Recommendations from the Toulouse Colloquy on New Directions in Media Education 1990 and Resolutions and Conclusions of the First National Media Education Conference Durban 1990 Most of the papers provide their own bibliographies DB Fables for the Frivolous Guy Whitmore Carryl, 2018-09-20 Reproduction of the original Fables for the Frivolous by Guy Whitmore Carryl One Thousand Ways to Make Money Page Fox, 1900
