guidebook as a phenomenon was formed in Rome during the later Middle Ages and early Renaissance. The elements and rhetorical strategies of guidebooks over time have shown to be surprisingly uniform with three important points of development: a turn towards a more user friendly structure from the seventeenth century and onward, the so called Baedeker effect in the mid nineteenth century, and the introduction of a personalized guiding voice in the first half of the twentieth century. Thus the guidebook tradition is an unusually consistent literary oeuvre which also forms a warranty for the authority of every new guidebook. In this respect the guidebook tradition is intimately associated with the city of Rome with which it shares a constantly renovating yet eternally fixed nature.
