Maybe Ill Be Home In The Spring:

Maybe I'Ll Be Cleverer Tomorrow Pamela Bradley,2016-05-12 The train rolls slowly into the platform and there he is the man who for over four decades I have thought of as tough and critical a man who could impale me with a few carefully chosen words As I alight and walk towards him I wonder what the hell the next few days will bring When Pamela Bradley stepped off the train in Murwillumbah to visit her father who at seventy eight had chosen to live a solitary life Up North far from his family she had no idea she was at the beginning of an intensely emotional journey Faced with his slow decline she set out to delve into his past to find those influences that might have shaped his character and helped to define her own discovering much along the way that came as a complete surprise In Maybe Ill Be Cleverer Tomorrow Bradley shares an honest and personal memoir told with insight humour and tenderness as she seamlessly moves between past and present Throughout the story she weaves some of the vital issues about loss ageing and death that affect everyone while the vignettes of a childhood and adolescence in the 1940s 50s and 60s offer glimpses into an Australia that has long since disappeared

McGibney, 2025-03-03 Caregiving is a solo journey lived among thousands of others who are walking a similar road Each journey is unique because each relationship between caregiver and the one needing the care is one of a kind The roots go down deep and hold all the experiences feelings joys and sorrows that have happened within that relationship Many people are familiar with the journey but no one knows day in day out what a caregiver is experiencing We often become parents to our parents with no manual to guide us Well meaning friends may say I know exactly how you feel but they cannot know exactly No matter how well they know you your loved one your situation they do not know everything this caregiving asks of you demands of you Caregiving is a journey filled with loving and grieving The caregiving journey has many vistas but only one exit ramp the death of the loved one That is when the job we did not seek becomes the job we wish would not end This is the journey my mom and I travelled I pray it gives insight and hope and assurance that being a faithful caregiver is doable The operative word here is faithful not perfect not sorrow free but faithful This is not a road map for you but a journal of our experiences You will not travel the same road but you may see some similarities As you read this you will hear tales of uproarious laughter quiet times bent over a puzzle lonely times and frightening times They are all part of living loving and caregiving May you also find it so in your days as a caregiver You can do this
