The Taft Court: Volume 10 Robert C. Post, 2023-11-09 The Taft Court offers the definitive history of the Supreme Court from 1921 to 1930 when William Howard Taft was Chief Justice Using untapped archival material Robert C Post engagingly recounts the ambivalent effort to create a modern American administrative state out of the institutional innovations of World War I He shows how the Court sought to establish authoritative forms of constitutional interpretation despite the culture wars that enveloped prohibition and pervasive labor unrest He explores in great detail how constitutional law responds to altered circumstances The work provides comprehensive portraits of seminal figures such as Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr and Louis Dembitz Brandeis It describes William Howard Taft's many judicial reforms and his profound alteration of the role of Chief Justice A critical and timely contribution The Taft Court sheds light on jurisprudential debates that are just as relevant today as they were a century ago

Cather Studies, Volume 10 Anne L Kaufman, Richard H. Millington, 2015-08 Willa Cather and the Nineteenth Century explores with textual specificity and historical alertness the question of how the cultures of the nineteenth century the cultures that shaped Willa Cather's childhood animated her education supplied her artistic models generated her inordinate ambitions and gave embodiment to many of her deeply held values are addressed in her fiction In two related sets of essays seven contributors track within Cather's life or writing the particular cultural formations emotions and conflicts of value she absorbed from the atmosphere of her distinct historical moment their ten colleagues offer a compelling set of case studies that articulate the manifold ways that Cather learned from built upon or resisted models provided by particular nineteenth century writers works or artistic genres Taken together with its Cather Studies predecessor Willa Cather and Modern Cultures this volume reveals Cather as explorer and interpreter sufferer and master of the transition from a Victorian to a Modernist America

Abacus and Mah Jong Marina Carter, James Ng Foong Kwong, 2009-05-06 This work aims to engage with the complexities surrounding evaluations of ethnic and national identity a focus of recent interest by scholars from a range of disciplines including political science anthropology and economics through a case study of Chinese migration to and settlement in Mauritius The book investigates the complex mechanisms and processes involved in the transplantation of groups of people within the colonial context and in particular seeks to create a tableau within which the construction of a mythology of migration is set against the realities of negotiation and communication with the wider society Report
