McElroy, 2002-01-01 African-American Artists, 1880-1987 Guy C. McElroy, 1989 A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa Roy Richard Grinker, Stephen C. Lubkemann, Christopher B. Steiner, Euclides Gonçalves, 2019-02-06

An essential collection of scholarly essays on the anthropology of Africa offering a thorough introduction to the most important topics in this evolving and diverse field of study. The study of the cultures of Africa has been central to the methodological and theoretical development of anthropology as a discipline since the late 19th century. As the anthropology of Africa has emerged as a distinct field of study, anthropologists working in this tradition have strived to build a disciplinary conversation that recognizes the diversity and complexity of modern and ancient African cultures while acknowledging the effects of historical anthropology on the present and future of the field of study. A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa is a collection of insightful essays covering the key questions and subjects in the contemporary anthropology of Africa with a key focus on addressing the topics that define the contemporary discipline. Written and edited by a team of leading cultural anthropologists, it is an ideal introduction to the most important topics in the field, both those that have consistently been a part of the critical dialogue and those that have emerged as the central questions of the discipline's future. Beginning with essays on the enduring topics in the study of African cultures, A Companion to the Anthropology of Africa provides a foundation in the contemporary critical approach to subjects of longstanding interest. With these subjects as a groundwork, later essays address decolonization, the postcolonial experience, and questions of modern identity and definition, providing representation of the diverse thinking and scholarship in the modern anthropology of Africa.

Hunting in Kenya Tony Sánchez-Ariño, 2000 AB Bookman's Weekly, 1997 Hunting in Ethiopia Tony Sanchez-Arino, 1995 African Hunting William Charles Baldwin, 1981 Tracks Across Africa Craig Boddington, 2008-01-01

Craig Boddington's first African hunting book. From Mount Kenya to the Cape, he chronicled his hunting exploits from 1977 to 1986. Since that time, he has written a book every ten years on his African experiences. Now he's back with Tracks Across Africa, which chronicles his third decade of African hunting. Pretty much every country open to hunting in this period saw Craig Boddington walking on its soil: C A R Chad, Cameroon, Zimbabwe, Namibia, Tanzania, South Africa, Ethiopia, and Mozambique. The animals pursued are as diverse and range from mountain nyala, elephant, and leopard to bongo, and of course, buffalo. There is hardly a safari where he does not hunt buffalo. In these past ten years, he has hunted more in Africa than most people experience in a lifetime. Hey, we can all dream, but in the meantime, we can read about it.

Hunting in Zambia Tony Sánchez-Ariño, 1997 Cries of the Savanna Sue Tidwell, 2021

A non-hunter shares her eye-opening experiences on a hunting safari and invites readers to reconsider what it will take to save Africa's wildlife. Waking to her husband's alarmed whisper, "Honey, get ready to run," was never in Sue Tidwell's vision of Africa. Nor was skulking through the

Tanzanian bush or lying terror stricken as the cries of lions and hyenas cut through the walls of her tent Enchanted by African wildlife she certainly never expected to find herself a sidekick on a hunting safari Growing up in a deer hunting family she understood hunting's role in American conservation Still the idea of hunting Africa's exotic animals was deeply troubling Aren't many species endangered Isn't photo tourism a better way to protect lions and elephants Her boots on the ground view answered these questions and many more it captured her soul and lit a fire in her gut fueling a passion the opposite of what she expected Through stories of laughter tragedy and wonder readers will be immersed in adventure as Sue's curiosity sheds light on the struggles and complexities facing the people and wildlife of rural Africa Whether an animal lover conservationist wanderer adventurer or human rights advocate her unexpected odyssey will arm readers with the awareness necessary to sustainably protect Africa's spectacular animals Only then will the beastly cries of the savanna forever remain a part of the wild
