Young, 1971 McLaren Maurice Hamilton, 2013 This book traces Bruce McLaren's early success on the racetrack follows his career as the engineer behind some of the world's fastest cars and outlines the legacy of speed and performance that he left behind. It features exclusive interviews with Patty McLaren, Brickett Martin, Whitmarsh, Niki Lauda, Alain Prost, and Jenson Button along with key members of the McLaren team across the decades. From book jacket Tyler Alexander Tyler Alexander, 2015 Tyler Alexander tells the story of his remarkable four-decade career. Universally respected within the racing community for his experience, work ethic, and outspoken honesty, Alexander deserves to be better known to a wider audience of fans. In 1964 he helped found the McLaren racing team along with Bruce McLaren and Teddy Mayer. As a mechanic, engineer, and team manager, Alexander played a key role in the development of McLaren's cars and the team's early successes in Formula One, the Indianapolis 500, and the Can-Am series. page 4 cover Driving Ambition Doug Nye, Ron Dennis, Gordon Murray, 1999 This history of the McLaren F1 explains how the McLaren Cars team pursued their quest for perfection to create the fastest road car in the world, setting the record at 240.1 mph in 1998. The book has been created with the full support and involvement of McLaren Cars. McLaren F1 GTR Mark Cole, 2020-10 Twenty-five years on from its famous debut victory in the 1995 Le Mans 24 Hours, the wonderful McLaren F1 GTR is the subject of this major two-volume history. Derived from the BMW V12-powered three-seater McLaren F1 road car, the F1 GTR only came into existence because of customer pressure on designer Gordon Murray to produce a racing version. With 28 examples built over three seasons, the F1 GTR was fabulously successful, winning 41 of its 131 races and taking two international championship titles. This sumptuous book outlines the life of the McLaren F1 GTR in exhaustive depth, with Volume 1 devoted to race-by-race narrative and Volume 2 to individual car histories and the stories of the people who raced them, all supported by over 775 colour photographs. McLaren Memories Eoin Young, 2005-12-24 Eoin Young's anecdotal reminiscences about Bruce McLaren, his great friend and compatriot, will be compelling reading for fans of 1960s motor racing. Drawing from his own memories, interviews with Bruce's inner circle, the young kiwi's letters home, the magazine column they co-wrote, and contemporary newspaper reports, Young recreates that golden era when racing drivers were mates and racing was fun. Go Like Hell A. J. Baime, 2010-06-17 The epic story also told in the film FORD V FERRARI. By the early 1960s, the Ford Motor Company, built to bring automobile transportation to the masses, was falling behind Young Henry Ford II, who had taken the reins of his grandfather's company with little business experience to speak of, knew he had to do something to shake things up. Baby boomers were taking to the road in droves, looking for speed, not safety, style, not comfort. Meanwhile, Enzo Ferrari, whose cars epitomized style, lorded it over the European racing scene. He crafted beautiful sports cars, science fiction on wheels, but was also called the Assassin because so many drivers perished while racing them. Go Like Hell tells the remarkable story of how Henry Ford II, with the help of a young visionary named Lee Iacocca and a former racing champion turned engineer Carroll Shelby concocted a scheme to reinvent the Ford company They would enter the high stakes world of European car racing where an adventurous few threw safety and sanity to the wind They would design build and race a car that could beat Ferrari at his own game at the most prestigious and brutal race in the world something no American car had ever done Go Like Hell transports readers to a risk filled glorious time in this brilliant portrait of a rivalry between two industrialists the cars they built and the pilots who would drive them to victory or doom Designers Eckart Frankenberger, Petra Badke-Schaub, Herbert Birkhofer, 2012-12-06 Modern product development means problem solving by teams in complex working environments Thereby the design process is influenced by factors from various fields the task the individual the team and the organisational context This complex network of influences turns product development into a challenge with requirements for the designers aside from technical problems This book contains the proceedings of the international symposium Designers The Key to Successful Product Development held in Darmstadt Germany December 1997 During this meeting exponents from different leading research groups in engineering design came together to present and discuss their results Within this volume different aims issues and methods of design research are addressed in 23 contributions by different research groups Structured in six sections according to the main fields of influence it provides a survey of the state of scientifically based knowledge and the trends of engineering design research on the influences leading to successful product development To Finish First Phil Kerr, 2008-05-01 This book fills an important gap in the history of top level motor racing during the historic era of the 1960s and 70s The author was at the center of it all first as Sir Jack Brabham s right hand man during his leadership of the Cooper team and later when he formed his own Brabham Racing Organization Subsequently when Phil Kerr joined his great friend Bruce McLaren to become joint managing director of an ever expanding company which was to achieve unrivalled success in Can Am racing as well as being at the forefront of Formula One he and his colleagues had to cope with the tragedy of the founder s untimely death while testing a Can Am car at Goodwood The author s description of how the shattered team was saved and ultimately restored by the bravery of Bruce s co driver Denny Hulme already sidelined by agonizing burns to his hands is a poignant highlight of his story Includes a balanced mix of racing and off duty pictures many being seen for the first time and 15 reproductions of paintings by the renowned artist Michael Turner Lone Star J.
