Quarterly Review Of Biology Vols 1 60:

The Ouarterly Review of Biology Raymond Pearl, 1928 Includes section New biological books and other bibliographies Collected Papers from the Department of Biology of the School of Hygiene and Public Health of the Johns Hopkins University Johns Hopkins University. School of Hygiene and Public Health. Dept. of Biology, 1929 Chiefly reprints from various scientific journals Serials Catalog Iowa State University. Library, 1990 Darwinian Agriculture R. Ford Denison, 2012-07-22 Harnessing evolution for more sustainable agriculture As human populations grow and resources are depleted agriculture will need to use land water and other resources more efficiently and without sacrificing long term sustainability Darwinian Agriculture presents an entirely new approach to these challenges one that draws on the principles of evolution and natural selection R Ford Denison shows how both biotechnology and traditional plant breeding can use Darwinian insights to identify promising routes for crop genetic improvement and avoid costly dead ends Denison explains why plant traits that have been genetically optimized by individual selection such as photosynthesis and drought tolerance are bad candidates for genetic improvement Traits like plant height and leaf angle which determine the collective performance of plant communities offer more room for improvement Agriculturalists can also benefit from more sophisticated comparisons among natural communities and from the study of wild species in the landscapes where they evolved Darwinian Agriculture reveals why it is sometimes better to slow or even reverse evolutionary trends when they are inconsistent with our present goals and how we can glean new ideas from natural selection s marvelous innovations in wild Encyclopedia of Library and Information Science Allen Kent, Harold Lancour, 1997-09-16 The Biological species Literature to An Uncertainty Principle for Information Seeking A Qualitative Approach Collected Papers from the Institute for Biological Research of the Johns Hopkins University, 1928 Cultural Anthropology Raymond Scupin, 2019-12-10 Cultural Anthropology A Global Perspective delves into both classic and current research in the field reflecting a commitment to anthropology s holistic and integrative approach This text illuminates how the four subfields of anthropology biological anthropology archaeology linguistics and cultural anthropology together yield a comprehensive understanding of humanity Pamphlets on Biology ,1922 Ecology and Classification of North American Freshwater Invertebrates James H. Thorp, Alan P. Covich, 2001-05-11 The First Edition of Ecology and Classification of North American Freshwater Invertebrates has been immensely popular with students and researchers interested in freshwater biology and ecology limnology environmental science invertebrate zoology and related fields The First Edition has been widely used as a textbook and this Second Edition should continue to serve students in advanced classes The Second Edition features expanded and updated chapters especially with respect to the cited references and the classification of North American freshwater invertebrates New chapters or substantially revised chapters include those on freshwater ecosystems snails aquatic spiders aquatic insects and crustaceans Most up to date and informative text of its kind Written by experts in the ecology of various invertebrate groups coverage emphasizes ecological information within a current taxonomic framework Each chapter contains both morphological and taxonomic information including keys to North American taxa usually to the generic level as well as bibliographic information and a list of further readings. The text is geared toward researchers and advanced undergraduate and graduate students Union Catalog of Serials University of Wisconsin--Madison. Special Scientific Report, 1957 Libraries, 1975 List of Journals Indexed in Index Medicus National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1996 Issues for 1977 1979 include also Special List journals being indexed in cooperation with other institutions Citations from these journals appear in other MEDLARS bibliographies and in MEDLING but not in Index medicus Guide to Swine Breeding Literature Charles E. Shelby,1968 Pleistoannelida, Errantia II Günter Purschke, Markus Böggemann, Wilfried Westheide, 2022-01-19 This book is the fourth in a series of 4 volumes in the Handbook of Zoology series about morphology anatomy reproduction development ecology phylogeny and systematics of Annelida It covers the most typical polychaetes Phyllodocida together with certain smaller taxa placed incertae sedis This volume completes the polychaetous Annelida Phyllodocida are often vagile possess well developed parapodia Due to their broad and flat cirri these parapodia look like leaves in some taxa and leading to the name of the entire group Many of its members are macrophagous and often predators Accordingly most species possess elaborate sense structures such as sensory palps antennae eyes and nuchal organs In certain species the eyes comprise thousands of photoreceptor cells and lenses most likely allowing forming true images Phyllodocida typically possess an axial muscular pharynx called proboscis functioning as a kind of suction pipe allowing them to swallow and ingest their prey or other food This pharynx may be armed with cuticular jaws and some species even possess venom glands The probably most popular and important polychaete model organism Platynereis dumerilii belongs to this interesting group Phyllodocida fall into two to three higher clades comprising about 25 families which represent more than one fourth of the polychaete diversity One of these families Syllidae comprises about 700 valid species of mainly small size and may therefore represent one of the most complex and somehow difficult polychaete families Science, Technology and Magic in The Witcher Kristine Larsen, 2023-02-02 As Andrzej Sapkowski was fleshing on Earth out his character Geralt of Rivia for a writing contest he did not set out to write a science textbook or even a work of science fiction However the world that Sapkowski created in his series The Witcher resulted in a valuable reflection of real world developments in science and technology As the Witcher books have been published across decades the sorcery in the series acts as an extension of the modern science it grows alongside This book explores the fascinating entanglement of science and magic that lies at the heart of Sapkowski s novel series and its widely popular video game and television adaptations This is the first English language book length treatment of magic and science in the Witcher universe These are examined through the lenses of politics religion history and mythology Sapkowski s richly detailed universe investigates the sociology of science and ponders some of the most pressing modern technological issues such as genetic engineering climate change weapons of mass destruction sexism speciesism and environmentalism Chapters explore the unsettling realization that the greatest monsters are frequently human and their heinous acts often involve the unwitting hand of science Collected Papers Bulletin of Bibliography and Dramatic Index, 1915 Osborn Zoological Laboratory, 1926 Aquatic Invertibrate Handbook of Neuroscience for the Behavioral Sciences, Volume 1 Gary G. Berntson, John T. Bioassays, 1980 Cacioppo, 2009-10-12 As technology has made imaging of the brain noninvasive and inexpensive nearly every psychologist in every subfield is using pictures of the brain to show biological connections to feelings and behavior Handbook of Neuroscience for the Behavioral Sciences Volume I provides psychologists and other behavioral scientists with a solid foundation in the increasingly critical field of neuroscience Current and accessible this volume provides the information they need to understand the new biological bases research tools and implications of brain and gene research as it relates to psychology The Johns Hopkins University Circular ,1929 Includes University catalogues President's report Financial report registers announcement material etc
