Modern Foreign Languages in the Elementary School Elizabeth Keesee, 1960 The growing practice of beginning instruction in a modern foreign language in the elementary school has created a need for many classroom teachers to become oriented to a whole new field of foreign language teaching methodology and materials Since teachers tend to think of language instruction in terms of the English language arts the language which their pupils had learned to understand and speak before starting school they need new techniques for language habit formation when a second language is introduced While essentially the process by which the preschool child learned his first language is duplicated the learning activities must be suited to the interests and abilities of the age group concerned The purpose of this publication is to suggest procedures which will be useful to teachers who need assistance in this field This bulletin describes a variety of teaching techniques now in use and gives examples of types of materials that have been developed for the elementary school classroom Foreword

The Ritual Process Victor W. Turner, 2011-12-31 In The Ritual Process Structure and Anti Structure Victor Turner examines rituals of the Ndembu in Zambia and develops his now famous concept of Communitas He characterizes it as an absolute inter human relation beyond any form of structure The Ritual Process has acquired the status of a small classic since these lectures were first published in 1969 Turner demonstrates how the analysis of ritual behavior and symbolism may be used as a key to understanding social structure and processes He extends Van Gennep's notion of the liminal phase of rites of passage to a more general level and applies it to gain understanding of a wide range of social phenomena Once thought to be the vestigial organs of social conservatism rituals are now seen as arenas in which social change may emerge and be absorbed into social practice As Roger Abrahams writes in his foreword to the revised edition Turner argued from specific field data His special eloquence resided in his ability to lay open a sub Saharan African system of belief and practice in terms that took the reader beyond the exotic features of the group among whom he carried out his fieldwork translating his experience into the terms of contemporary Western perceptions Reflecting Turner's range of intellectual interests the book emerged as exceptional and eccentric in many ways yet it achieved its place within the intellectual world because it so successfully synthesized continental theory with the practices of ethnographic reports

Crossfire Roberta Johnson, 2014-07-11 The marriage of philosophy and fiction in the first third of Spain's twentieth century was a fertile one It produced some truly notable offspring novels that cross genre boundaries to find innovative forms and treatises that fuse literature and philosophy in new ways In her illuminating interdisciplinary study of Spanish fiction of the Silver Age Roberta Johnson places this important body of Spanish literature in context through a synthesis of social literary and philosophical history Her examination of the work of Miguel de Unamuno Pio Baroja Azorin Ramon Perez de Ayala Juan Ramon Jimenez Gabriel Miro Pedro Salinas Rosa Chacel and Benjamin Jarnes brings to light philosophical frictions and debates and opens new interpersonal and intertextual perspectives on many of the period's most canonical novels Johnson reformulates the traditional discussion of generations and isms by viewing the period as an intergenerational complex in which writers with similar philosophical and personal interests constituted dynamic groupings that interacted and constantly defined and redefined one another Current narratological theories including those of Todorov Genette Bakhtin and Martinez Bonati assist in teasing out the intertextual maneuvers and philosophical conflicts embedded in the novels of the period while the sociological and biographical material bridges the philosophical and literary analyses The result solidly grounded in original archival research is a convincingly complete picture of Spain's intellectual world in the first thirty years of this century Crossfire should revolutionize thinking about the Generation of 98 and the Generation of 14 by identifying the heterogeneous philosophical sources of each and the writers' reactions to them in fiction
