Quebecois Dream:

A Québécois Dream Victor Lévy Beaulieu, 1978 Dream of Nation Susan Mann, 2002 A synthesis of Quebec history from New France to the first referendum on sovereignty in 1980 René Lévesque and the Parti Québécois in Power Graham Fraser, 2001 A biography of one of the most charismatic politicians that Quebec and Canada has ever known Graham Fraser paints a vivid portrait of one of the most dynamic political figures of the 20th century René Levesque describes the origins of the Parti Quebecois and gives a graphic account of key events that still resonate in Canadian political life Quebec's language law the 1980 referendum and the patriation of the constitution This second edition contains a new preface in which Fraser completes the story of the last months of the Parti Quebecois government and the period leading up to Levesque's death in 1987 detailing how Levesque's leadership continues to mark his successors National Dreams Daniel Francis, 1997 Incisive and widely acclaimed study of the most persistent icons and stories in Canadian history and how they inform Canadians' sense of national identity This is a fascinating document that allows readers to see the past in a shocking new light Identities in North America, 1995-02 This wide ranging inquiry into the socio cultural forces that define the three nations of North America seeks out ways in which the countries can become more comfortable with their collective future on the continent Home Is the Hunter Hans M. Carlson, 2009-05-01 Since 1970 in Quebec there has been immense change for the Cree who now live with the consequences of Quebec's massive development of the North Home Is the Hunter presents the historical environmental and cultural context from which this recent story grows Hans Carlson shows how the Cree view their lands as their home their garden and their memory of themselves as a people By investigating the Cree's three hundred years of contact with outsiders he illuminates the process of cultural negotiation at the foundation of ongoing political and environmental debates This book offers a way of thinking about indigenous peoples' struggles for rights and environmental justice in Canada and elsewhere Canadian National Cinema Chris Gittings, 2012-10-02 Canadian National Cinema explores the idea of the nation across Canada's film history from early films of colonisation and white settlement such as The Wheatfields of Canada and Back to God's Country to recent films like N L E Confessional Mon Oncle Antoine Grey Fox Highway 61 Kanehsatake and I've Heard the Mermaids Singing Asterisks David Wevill, 2007 Poems written with clarity and craftsmanship this collection contemplates what is real and observable versus what is not The verses are like asterisks that refer to somewhere else and they strike with meditative depth and spiritual strength Drawn from experiences in Burma England Spain and the United States these words depict moments in time and step back into silence

Mindscapes of Montreal Ceri Morgan, 2012-10-15 This innovative study of the Montreal novel in French looks at how imaginary and material landscapes come together to produce a city of neighbourhoods The German Prisoner James Hanley, 2006 Brilliant in its stark depiction of trench warfare in World War I this lost classic was privately printed in a limited edition in 1930 British censors initially suppressed the short novel because of its tough antiwar views and sympathetic portrayals of German soldiers and even today's readers may be unprepared for its scenes of horrific battlefield carnage and men driven to madness by relentless psychological stress. Providing a new view of an underappreciated Canadian author, the book also stands as a fascinating addition to the comparatively small shelf of literature by writers who fought in the Great War.

Beyond the Impasse Institute for Research on Public Policy, 1998. Efforts to reform the Canadian constitution have only resulted in a serious impasse fostered by demands for change from Quebec and reticence from English Canada. This book looks at the potential for achieving reconciliation through a new partnership between Quebec and Canada in a series of papers that examine the stakes for both Canada and Quebec in opting for a modified relationship that is neither the status quo nor complete separation. Two papers in part 1 lay the conceptual groundwork concerning the constituent elements of partnership. Papers in part 2 deal with the economic union in the context of a renewed partnership. Four papers in part 3 examine issues concerning rights recognition and citizenship in a Quebec-Canada partnership. Part 5 broadens the discussion to the international arena and includes a comparative international scan of partnership models. The final part distills the two editors' separate conclusions on how to move beyond the impasse based on the studies presented.

A Reader's Guide to Québec Studies André Senécal, 1999

Canadian Dreams and American Control Manjunath Pendakur, 1990. A history of the Canadian film industry from its inception to the 1980s, providing a chronological record of the conflicting priorities between American capital, which seeks to shape the Canadian film industry to its own image, and Canada's stated goal, which is to serve the Canadian people with films autonomously conceived, produced, and exhibited.

Green Marilyn Bowering, 2007. Echos of Federico García Lorca, Yiannis Ritsos, and Rumi add exoticism to this poet's deceptively simple style. Combining confession with analytical rigor, most of these poems are variations on classic themes, but they are driven by the particulars of politics, love, and family life. As the poems progress, repeated symbols such as cars, coats, cups, rooms, bees, and roses begin to hint that the poet has a secret recipe for contentment: home and hearth, travel warm weather and a belief in human growth The Journal of Education for the Province of Quebec Pierre Joseph Oliver Chauveau, Henry Hopper Miles, Patrick Delaney, George W. Colfer, 1872 Fifteen Years in Exile Barry Callaghan, 1992

Making Public Pasts Alan Gordon, 2001-10-24 Gordon shows that while individual memory is crucial to establishing and maintaining identity public memory is contested terrain official customs and traditions monuments historic sites and the celebration of anniversaries and festivals serve to order individual and collective perceptions of the past Public memory is therefore the product of competitions and ideas about the past that are fashioned in a public sphere and speak primarily about structures of power It conscripts historical events in a bid to guide shared memories into a coherent narrative that helps individuals negotiate their place in broader collective identities The contest over public memories involves an exclusiveness that packages others according to the ideological preferences of the dominant cultures Gordon shows that in Montreal ethnic class and gender voices strove to stake their own claims to legitimacy Rather than acknowledging a single past Montreal's many publics made and celebrated many public memories The Other Quebec John Irvine Little, 2006-01-01 The Other Quebec explores some of the complex ways that religious institutions and beliefs affected the rural societies in which the majority of Canadians still lived in the nineteenth century Recent Social Trends in Quebec, 1960-1990 Simon Langlois, Baillargeon, 1992-02-05 Readers will follow an intense period of social change in Quebec during which there was a remarkable increase in the level of modernization They will note a massive entry of women into the labour force and a growing service sector that now constitutes seventy percent of all economic activity They will observe also that the Quebecois have dramatically increased their television viewing and that while they express a generally high level of satisfaction with life the Quebecois must contend with escalating crime and suicide rates
