Queen Isabella I Hispanic Stories:

Isabella Kirstin Downey, 2014-10-28 An engrossing and revolutionary biography of Isabella of Castile the controversial Queen of Spain who sponsored Christopher Columbus's journey to the New World established the Spanish Inquisition and became one of the most influential female rulers in history Born at a time when Christianity was dying out and the Ottoman Empire was aggressively expanding Isabella was inspired in her youth by tales of Joan of Arc a devout young woman who unified her people and led them to victory against foreign invaders In 1474 when most women were almost powerless twenty three year old Isabella defied a hostile brother and a mercurial husband to seize control of Castile and León Her subsequent feats were legendary She ended a twenty four generation struggle between Muslims and Christians forcing North African invaders back over the Mediterranean Sea She laid the foundation for a unified Spain She sponsored Columbus's trip to the Indies and negotiated Spanish control over much of the New World with the help of Rodrigo Borgia the infamous Pope Alexander VI She also annihilated all who stood against her by establishing a bloody religious Inquisition that would darken Spain's reputation for centuries Whether saintly or satanic no female leader has done more to shape our modern world in which millions of people in two hemispheres speak Spanish and practice Catholicism Yet history has all but forgotten Isabella's influence due to hundreds of years of misreporting that often attributed her accomplishments to Ferdinand the bold and philandering husband she adored Using new scholarship Downey's luminous biography tells the story of this brilliant fervent forgotten woman the faith that propelled her through life and the land of ancient conflicts and intrigue she brought under her command

Queen Isabella I Corinn Codye, 1990 A biography of Queen Isabella I of Spain who made it possible for Christopher Columbus to sail west and whose fierce support of Catholicism led to the expulsion from Spain of non converted Jews and Moslems
