Queen Of Education:

The State of the System Paul W. Bennett, 2020-09-23 Over the last fifty years Canada's public schools have been absorbed into a modern education system that functions much like Max Weber's infamous iron cage. Crying out for democratic school level reform, the system is now a centralized bureaucratic fortress that every year becomes softer on standards for students less accessible to parents, further out of touch with communities and surprisingly unresponsive to classroom teachers. Exploring the nature of the Canadian education order in all its dimensions, The State of the System explains how public schools came to be so bureaucratic, confronts the critical issues facing kindergarten to grade 12 public schools in all ten provinces and addresses the need for systemic reform. Going beyond a diagnosis of the stresses, strains and ills present in the system, Paul Bennett proposes a bold plan to re-engineer schools on a more human scale as the first step in truly reforming public education. In place of school consolidation and managerialism, one size fits all uniformity, limited school choice and the success for all curriculum, Bennett advocates for a new set of priorities: decentralize school governance, deprogram education ministries and school districts, listen to parents and teachers and revitalize local education democracy. Tackling the thorny issues besetting contemporary school systems in Canada, The State of the System issues a clarion call for more responsive, engaged and accountable public schools.

The Queen of Education LouAnne Johnson, 2007-04-06 Wanted: A Queen of Education. Candidate must be able to take decisive action, cut through red tape, deflate the bureaucratic bloat, wrestle with the diagnostic nightmare of ADHD and refuse to sell out her students to the corporate fat cats. Though we have education presidents who give lip service to fixing schools, what we really need is a Queen of Education who will get the job done. Anyone searching for such a candidate would put LouAnne Johnson's resume on the top of the stack of likely applicants. LouAnne Johnson is the gutsy ex-marine turned teacher who has wrestled with tough kids and even tougher adults. Her life inspired the movie Dangerous Minds, which was based on her book My Posse Don't Do Homework. Johnson's knack for finding original solutions to intractable problems has not only made her an exemplary teacher but a popular speaker on the lecture circuit. In this engaging book, Queen LouAnne offers her down-to-earth advice about fixing schools. Johnson makes no secret about the fact that she is fed up with an educational system that is too quick to label and write off children who don't fit the mold. Among her royal rules for fixing the system: no class shall have more than 20 students; all elected representatives must teach in a public school classroom for two weeks; and the testing frenzy must stop. This very second, LouAnne is a passionate advocate for schools that are smaller, healthier, more humane and more attuned to different learning styles. With humor and good sense, she shows how a compassionate teacher or parent can cut through the red tape and make a crucial difference in the life of a child. LouAnne Johnson's book is a blend of common sense, humor and practical, down-to-earth ideas of how each one of us, as a parent or a concerned citizen, can make a contribution toward improving America's public schools. I highly recommend it. Michele Borba, Ed.D., author of Don't Give Me That Attitude, No More Misbehavior and Building Moral Intelligence.

As a former student of LouAnne's first at risk class I experienced firsthand her approach to education. The result was nothing less than a miracle. This book has the power to do for the United States education system what it did for our class: turn a flawed reality into an exemplary system of education. Dan Mueller, associate producer and designer, BottleRocket Entertainment Inc. LouAnne Johnson writes with passion, humor, and good old common sense about the joys and frustrations of teaching and the ways in which caring individuals can make a critical difference. Her book is a must read for all who have a stake in the success of our schools. Robert R. Spillane, United States Department of State Office of Overseas Schools, former New York State Deputy Commissioner of Education and former superintendent of the Boston and Fairfax County Virginia Public Schools. Praise for Dangerous Minds: Johnson shows the importance of basic respect, constant encouragement, and unorthodox teaching strategies for a generation of disenfranchised students. Kirkus Review. Remarkable Johnson proves that unorthodox methods can turn a problem kid into an A student. Vogue. Decolonizing Education

Marie Battiste, 2017-04-04. Drawing on treaties, international law, the work of other Indigenous scholars, and especially personal experiences, Marie Battiste documents the nature of Eurocentric models of education and their devastating impacts on Indigenous knowledge. Chronicling the negative consequences of forced assimilation, racism inherent to colonial systems of education, and the failure of current educational policies for Aboriginal populations, Battiste proposes a new model of education arguing the preservation of Aboriginal knowledge is an Aboriginal right. Central to this process is the repositioning of Indigenous humanities, sciences, and languages as vital fields of knowledge, revitalizing a knowledge system which incorporates both Indigenous and Eurocentric thinking. The Queen of Kindergarten. Derrick Barnes, 2022-05-24. A confident little Black girl has a fantastic first day of school in this companion to the New York Times bestseller The King of Kindergarten. MJ is more than ready for her first day of kindergarten. With her hair freshly braided and her mom's special tiara on her head, she knows she's going to rock kindergarten. But the tiara isn't just for show; it also reminds her of all the good things she brings to the classroom: stuff like her kindness, friendliness, and impressive soccer skills, too. Like The King of Kindergarten, this is the perfect book to reinforce back-to-school excitement and build confidence in the newest students.

The Queen of Water. Laura Resau, Maria Virginia Farinango, 2011. Living in a village in Ecuador, a Quechua Indian girl is sent to work as an indentured servant for an upper-class mestizo family. Transforming School Leadership with ISLLC and ELCC. J. Allen Queen, Henry Peel, Neil Shipman, 2013-08-06. Authoritative and practical, this book is co-authored by Neil Shipman, former ISLLC Director. It provides knowledge and tools to help principals in training and practitioners apply the ISLLC and ELCC standards in their schools. Each chapter contains a research-based discussion and practical applications of the standard, along with suggested activities, assignments, and case studies. The Recess Queen. Alexis O'Neill, 2016-06-28. An irrepressible new girl dethrones the reigning recess bully by becoming her friend in this infectious playground romp.
