Reiss,2019-07-16 This collection presents research based interventions using existing knowledge to produce new pedagogies to teach evolution to learners more successfully whether in schools or elsewhere Success here is measured as cognitive gains as acceptance of evolution or an increased desire to continue to learn about it Aside from introductory and concluding chapters by the editors each chapter consists of a research based intervention intended to enable evolution to be taught successfully all these interventions have been researched and evaluated by the chapters authors and the findings are presented along with discussions of the implications The result is an important compendium of studies from around the world conducted both inside and outside of school The volume is unique and provides an essential reference point and platform for future work for the foreseeable future Saint Patrick Retold Roy Flechner,2019-03-05 A gripping biography that brings together the most recent research to shed provocative new light on the life of Saint Patrick Saint Patrick was by his own admission a controversial figure Convicted in a trial by his elders in Britain and hounded by rumors that he settled in Ireland for financial gain the man who was to become Ireland's patron saint battled against great odds before succeeding as a missionary Saint Patrick Retold draws on recent research to offer a fresh assessment of Patrick's travails and achievements This is the first biography in nearly fifty years to explore Patrick's career against the background of historical events in late antique Britain and Ireland Roy Flechner examines the likelihood that Patrick like his father before him might have absconded from a career as an imperial official responsible for taxation preferring instead to migrate to Ireland with his family's slaves who were his source of wealth Flechner leaves no stone unturned as he takes readers on a riveting journey through Romanized Britain and late Iron Age Ireland and he considers how best to interpret the ambiguous literary and archaeological evidence from this period of great political and economic instability a period that brought ruin for some and opportunity for others Rather than a dismantling of Patrick's reputation or an argument against his sainthood Flechner's biography raises crucial questions about self image and the making of a reputation From boyhood deeds to the challenges of a missionary enterprise Saint Patrick Retold steps beyond established narratives to reassess a notable figure's life and legacy

Negro Musicians and their Music Maud Cuney-Hare, 2020-09-28 In offering this study of Negro music I do so with the admission that there is no consistent development as found in national schools of music The Negro a musical force through his own distinct racial characteristics has made an artistic contribution which is racial but not yet national Rather has the influence of musical stylistic traits termed Negro spread over many nations wherever the colonies of the New World have become homes of Negro people These expressions in melody and rhythm have been a compelling force in American music tragic and joyful in emotion pathetic and ludicrous in melody primitive and barbaric in rhythm The welding of these expressions has brought about a harmonic effect which is now influencing thoughtful musicians throughout the world At present there is evidenced a new movement far from academic which plays an important technical part in the music of this and other lands The question as to whether there exists a pure Negro art in America is warmly debated Many Negroes as well as Anglo Americans admit that the so called American Negro is no longer an African Negro Apart from the fusion of blood he has for centuries been moved by the same stimuli which have affected all citizens of the United States They argue rightly that he is a product of a vital American civilization with all its daring its progress its ruthlessness and unlovely speed As an integral part of the nation the Negro is influenced by like social environment and governed by the same political institutions thus page vi we may expect the ultimate result of his musical endeavors to be an art music which embodies national characteristics exercised upon by his soul s expression In the field of composition the early sporadic efforts by people of African descent while not without historic importance have been succeeded by contributions from a rising group of talented composers of color who are beginning to find a listening public The tendency of this music is toward the development of an American symphonic operatic and ballet school led for the moment by a few lone Negro musicians of vision and high ideals The story of those working toward this end is herein treated Facts for this volume have been obtained from educated African scholars with whom the author sought acquaintanceship and from printed sources found in the Boston Public Library the New York Public Library and the Music Division of the Library of Congress The author has also had access to rare collections and private libraries which include her own Folk material has been gathered in personal travel

Kubitzki,2012-12-06 The original suggestion to organize a symposium about the classification and evolution of the Flowering Plants was made at the International Botanical Congress at Leningrad in 1975 and the idea was so well accepted by several colleagues that plans for such a symposium quickly took shape An organizing committee consisting of Professor H MERXMULLER Miinchen Professor V H HEYWOOD Reading and Professor K KUBITZKI Hamburg was set up The conference took place on 7 12 September 1971 in the Institut für Allgemeine Botanik of the University of Hamburg under the auspices of the International Association for Plant Taxonomy and was attended by 80 participants from 14 countries There have been several meetings in recent years which have dealt with the origin and evolution of the Flowering Plants so that it might be questioned whether yet another symposium dealing with more or less the same subject were really justified As the reader will see from the contents of the book this symposium differed from similar ones held recently in two respects 1 Emphasis was given to methodological aspects of the classification of higher taxa and 2 much classificatory and evolutionary evidence relating to the higher taxa of Flowering Plants was presented Report of the Proceedings Church congress,1880 The
