Our History of the 20th Century Travis Elborough, 2017-09-28 In Travis Elborough's expertly curated collection of diaries, letters, and journals, the great and the good rub shoulders with the obscure, the unsung, and the everyday to bring us a unique top-down and bottom-up history of Britain during the twentieth century

Royal Landscape Jane Roberts, 1997-01-01 The parks that surround England's Windsor Castle were established in the Middle Ages for the protection of the royal deer. With the assistance of documents in the Public Record Office and the Royal Archives, and works of art in the Royal Collection, Jane Roberts has created an extensive and beautifully illustrated history of this royal acreage. 200 color, 300 b/w illustrations

Library Journal, 1981 Queen Victoria's Matchmaking Deborah Cadbury, 2017-11-14 A captivating exploration of the role in which Queen Victoria exerted the most international power and influence as a matchmaking grandmother. As her reign approached its sixth decade, Queen Victoria's grandchildren numbered over thirty, and to maintain and increase British royal power, she was determined to maneuver them into a series of dynastic marriages with the royal houses of Europe. Yet for all their apparent obedience, her grandchildren often had plans of their own, fueled by strong wills and romantic hearts. Victoria's matchmaking plans were further complicated by the tumultuous international upheavals of the time: revolution and war were in the air, and kings and queens, princes and princesses were vulnerable targets. Queen Victoria's Matchmaking travels through the glittering, decadent palaces of Europe, from London to Saint Petersburg, weaving in scandals, political machinations, and family tensions to enthralling effect. It is at once an intimate portrait of a royal family and an examination of the conflict caused by the marriages the Queen arranged. At the heart of it all is Victoria herself, doting grandmother, one moment determined, Queen, Empress, the next.

Unrewarded Courage Brian Best, 2020-09-30 The Victoria Cross is the most exclusive and prestigious of all gallantry awards. In order to retain this exclusivity, the standard of courage, endeavor, or sacrifice required for a recommendation to be accepted for the award of the VC must be of the highest possible order. This has meant that many extremely courageous acts have failed to be rewarded with the VC, even though they appear to be just as remarkable in the level of danger and daring as some of those which were accepted for the medal. The reason for this is that the awarding of the VC, indeed even the acknowledgment from a commanding officer that an individual's action merits submission to the selection board, is entirely subjective. What one general might consider to be of exceptional valor might be regarded by another senior officer as merely a soldier carrying out his duty. When Trooper Clement Roberts rode into the thick of battle in South Africa to rescue a young war reporter who had been thrown from his horse, little did he know that he was saving the life of Britain's future wartime Prime Minister, Sir Winston Churchill. Recommended for the VC, Roberts was eventually awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal. Similarly, following the airborne operation at Arnhem in the Second World War, Captain Michael Dauncey was recommended by three other officers for the award of the Victoria Cross. These appeals, however, were rejected. The reasons behind the failure to award Lieutenant Colonel Paddy Mayne, a member of 1st

SAS Regiment the VC despite repeated calls for his actions to be recognized in such a manner was the subject of an Early Day Motion put before the House of Commons as recently as June 2005 Following the airborne operation at Arnhem in the Second World War Captain Michael Dauncey was recommended by three other officers for the award of the Victoria Cross These appeals however were rejected The reasons behind the failure to award Lieutenant Colonel Paddy Mayne a member of 1st SAS Regiment the VC despite repeated calls for his actions to be recognized in such a manner was the subject of an Early Day Motion put before the House of Commons as recently as June 2005 In this revealing and unique analysis of actions that did not result in the award of the VC despite recommendations to this effect Brian Best has highlighted the uneven decisions made throughout the decades and in campaigns around the globe that led to some men becoming national heroes and others equally courageous being merely footnotes in history
