Patrick Johnson, Mae G. Henderson, 2005-11-01 While over the past decade a number of scholars have done significant work on questions of black lesbian gay bisexual and transgendered identities this volume is the first to collect this groundbreaking work and make black queer studies visible as a developing field of study in the United States Bringing together essays by established and emergent scholars this collection assesses the strengths and weaknesses of prior work on race and sexuality and highlights the theoretical and political issues at stake in the nascent field of black queer studies Including work by scholars based in English film studies black studies sociology history political science legal studies cultural studies and performance studies the volume showcases the broadly interdisciplinary nature of the black queer studies project The contributors consider representations of the black queer body black queer literature the pedagogical implications of black queer studies and the ways that gender and sexuality have been glossed over in black studies and race and class marginalized in queer studies Whether exploring the closet as a racially loaded metaphor arguing for the inclusion of diaspora studies in black queer studies considering how the black lesbian voice that was so expressive in the 1970s and 1980s is all but inaudible today or investigating how the social sciences have solidified racial and sexual exclusionary practices these insightful essays signal an important and necessary expansion of queer studies Contributors Bryant K Alexander Devon Carbado Faedra Chatard Carpenter Keith Clark Cathy Cohen Roderick A Ferguson Jewelle Gomez Phillip Brian Harper Mae G Henderson Sharon P Holland E Patrick Johnson Kara Keeling Dwight A McBride Charles I Nero Marlon B Ross Rinaldo Walcott Maurice O Wallace Intersectionality Patrick R.

Grzanka, 2018-04-19 Intersectionality A Foundations and Frontiers Reader is an accessible primary source driven exploration of intersectionality in sociology and related fields The book maps the origins of the concept particularly in Black feminist thought and sociology opens the discourse to challenges and applications across disciplines and outside academia and explores the leading edges of scholarship to reveal important new directions for inquiry and activism Charting the development of intersectionality as an intellectual and political movement Patrick R Grzanka brings together in one text both foundational readings and emerging classics Original material includes Grzanka's nuanced introduction which provides broad context and poses guiding questions thematic unit introductions author biographies and suggestions for further reading to ground each excerpt and a conclusion by Bonnie Thornton Dill reflecting on the past present and future of intersectionality With its balanced mix of analytical applied and original content Intersectionality is an essential component of any course on race class and gender feminist theory or social inequalities Queer Necropolitics Jin Haritaworn, Adi Kuntsman, Silvia Posocco, 2014-02-03 This book comes at a time when the intrinsic and self evident value of queer rights and protections from gay marriage to hate crimes is increasingly put in question It assembles writings that explore the new queer vitalities within their wider context of structural violence and neglect Moving between diverse geopolitical contexts the US and the UK Guatemala and Palestine the Philippines Iran and Israel the chapters in this volume interrogate claims to queerness in the face s of death both spectacular and everyday Queer Necropolitics mobilises the concept of necropolitics in order to illuminate everyday death worlds from more expected sites such as war torture or imperial invasion to the mundane and normalised violence of racism and gender normativity the market and the prison industrial complex Contributors here interrogate the distinction between valuable and pathological lives by attending to the symbiotic co constitution of queer subjects folded into life and queerly abjected racialised populations marked for death Drawing on diverse yet complementary methodologies including textual and visual analysis ethnography and historiography the authors argue that the distinction between war and peace dissolves in the face of the banality of death in the zones of abandonment that regularly accompany contemporary democratic regimes The book will appeal to activist scholars and students from various social sciences and humanities particularly those across the fields of law cultural and media studies gender sexuality and intersectionality studies race and conflict studies as well as those studying nationalism colonialism prisons and war It should be read by all those trying to make sense of the contradictions inherent in regimes of rights citizenship and diversity Queer Festivals

Konstantinos Eleftheriadis,2018-07-21 To what extent is queer anti identitarian And how is it experienced by activists at the European level At queer festivals activists artists and participants come together to build new forms of sociability and practice their ideals through anti binary and inclusive idioms of gender and sexuality These ideals are moreover channelled through a series of organisational and cultural practices that aim at the emergence of queer as a collective identity Through the study of festivals in Amsterdam Berlin Rome Copenhagen and Oslo Queer Festivals Challenging Collective Identities in a Transnational Europe thoughtfully analyses the role of activist practices in the building of collective identities for social movement studies as well as the role of festivals as significant repertoires of collective action and sites of identitarian explorations in contemporary Europe

Writing of America Geoff Ward,2002-06-17 In this lively and provocative study Geoff Ward puts forward the bold claim that the founding documents of American identity are essentially literary America was invented not discovered and it remains in thrall to the myth of an earthly Paradise This is Paradise and American ideology imprisons as it inspires The Writing of America shows the tension between these forces in a wide range of literary and other texts from Puritan sermons and the Declaration of Independence through nineteenth century classics to folk and blues lyrics and the popular novel Alongside his provocative reassessments of canonical writers Ward offers new material on lost or neglected figures from the world of literature film and music His acute and often startling analyses of American literature and culture make this an essential guide to what Lincoln termed the last best hope of earth

In Defense of Housing Peter Marcuse,David Madden,2024-08-27 In every major city in the world there is a housing crisis How did this happen and what can we do about it Everyone needs and deserves housing But today our homes are being transformed into commodities making the inequalities of the city ever more acute Profit has become more important than social need The poor are forced to pay more for worse housing Communities are faced with the violence of displacement and gentrification And the benefits of decent housing are only available for those who can afford it In Defense of Housing is the definitive statement on this crisis from leading urban planner Peter Marcuse and sociologist David Madden They look at the causes and consequences of the housing problem and detail the need for progressive alternatives The housing crisis cannot be solved by minor policy shifts they argue Rather the housing crisis has deep political and economic roots and therefore requires a radical response

Passionate Politics Jeff Goodwin,James M. Jasper,Francesca Polletta,2009-03-09 Emotions are back Once at the center of the study of politics emotions have receded into the shadows during the past three decades with no place in the rationalistic structural and organizational models that dominate academic political analysis With this new collection of essays Jeff Goodwin James M Jasper and Francesca Polletta reverse this trend reincorporating emotions such as anger indignation fear disgust joy and love into research on politics and social protest The tools of cultural analysis are especially useful for probing the role of emotions in politics the editors and contributors to Passionate Politics argue Moral outrage the shame of spoiled collective identities or the joy of imagining a new and better society are not automatic responses to events Rather they are related to moral institutions felt obligations and rights and information about expected effects all of which are culturally and historically variable With its look at the history of emotions in social thought examination of the internal dynamics of protest groups and exploration of the emotional dynamics that arise from interactions and conflicts among political factions and individuals Passionate Politics will lead the way toward an overdue reconsideration of the role of emotions in social movements and politics generally Contributors Rebecca Anne Allahyari Edwin Amenta Collin Barker Mabel Berezin Craig Calhoun Randall Collins Frank Dobbin Jeff Goodwin Deborah B Gould Julian McAllister Groves James M Jasper Anne Kane Theodore D Kemper Sharon Erickson Nepstad Steven Pfaff Francesca Polletta Christian Smith Arlene Stein Nancy Whittier Elisabeth Jean Wood Michael P Young     Nationalism Reframed Rogers Brubaker, 2007     Lambda Book Report , 1999     Artificial Hells Claire Bishop, 2012-07-24 This searing critique of participatory art from its development to its political ambitions is an essential title for contemporary art history scholars and students as well as anyone who has thought Now that s art or That s art Library Journal Since the 1990s critics and curators have broadly accepted the notion that participatory art is the ultimate political art that by encouraging an audience to take part an artist can promote new emancipatory social relations Around the world the champions of this form of expression are numerous ranging from art historians such as Grant Kester curators such as Nicolas Bourriaud and Nato Thompson to performance theorists such as Shannon Jackson Artificial Hells is the first historical and theoretical overview of socially engaged participatory art known in the US as social practice Claire Bishop follows the trajectory of twentieth century art and examines key moments in the development of a participatory aesthetic This itinerary takes in Futurism and Dada the Situationist International Happenings in Eastern Europe Argentina and Paris the 1970s Community Arts Movement and the Artists Placement Group It concludes with a discussion of long term educational projects by contemporary artists such as Thomas Hirschhorn Tania Bruguera Pawel Althamer and Paul Chan Since her controversial essay in Artforum in 2006 Claire Bishop has been one of the few to challenge the political and aesthetic ambitions of participatory art In Artificial Hells she not only scrutinizes the emancipatory claims made for these projects but also provides an alternative to the ethical rather than artistic criteria invited by such artworks Artificial Hells calls for a less prescriptive approach to art and politics and for more compelling troubling and bolder forms of participatory art and criticism     The Democratic Paradox Chantal Mouffe, 2000 No Marketing Blur     Corruption as an Empty Signifier Lucy Koechlin, 2013-05-23 Corruption as an Empty Signifier critically explores the ways in which corruption in Africa has been equated with African politics and political order and offers a novel approach to understanding corruption as a potentially emancipatory discourse of political transformation     Freedom in the World 2006

Freedom House, 2006 Freedom in the World the Freedom House flagship survey whose findings have been published annually since 1972 is the standard setting comparative assessment of global political rights and civil liberties The survey ratings and narrative reports on 192 countries and a group of select territories are used by policy makers the media international corporations and civic activists and human rights defenders to monitor trends in democracy and track improvements and setbacks in freedom worldwide Press accounts of the survey findings appear in hundreds of influential newspapers in the United States and abroad and form the basis of numerous radio and television reports The Freedom in the World political rights and civil liberties ratings are determined through a multi layered process of research and evaluation by a team of regional analysts and eminent scholars The analysts used a broad range of sources of information including foreign and domestic news reports academic studies nongovernmental organizations think tanks individual professional contacts and visits to the region in conducting their research The methodology of the survey is derived in large measure from the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and these standards are applied to all countries and territories irrespective of geographical location ethnic or religious composition or level of economic development
