

Gay and Lesbian Theater

Gay and Lesbian themes were introduced into the theater before the 1960s. Long before homosexual characters were seen in American plays on a regular basis, there were isolated incidents when a gay or lesbian appeared in the plot; they were called freaks when doing so. Many people were often offended by homosexuality. Cross dressing was used in performances that raised concerns about sexual and gender roles: men dressed in drag and women wore men clothing. Festivals were used to educate and entertain audiences.

The theater festival was introduced to spread awareness on issues, themes, and problems that deals with gay and lesbian lifestyles in the theater. Edward Albee, William Inge, and Tennessee Williams all introduced works in the mainstream. The mainstream theatre is embracing theatre with Gay and Lesbian themes. Sometimes the move forward is furiously examined by Gays and Lesbians, like for the various performances of straight Vivienne Laxdal 's Karla and Grif. Many gays and lesbians found it offensive for its stereotypical lesbian characters and others found it refreshing for its depiction of the fluidity of sexuality.

Other works such as The Boys in the Band has been successful at bringing out this sexuality. In 1980 a play as such was proven to be enjoyable and considered a new kind of play. Dealing with issues of gays is being expressed more often. In certain dramas, lifestyles of gays and lesbians were forthrightly presented. A sense of urgency was engendered by the AIDS crisis and gay rights as another concerned issue. Viewing a play like this myself tells me that it's very true. Many people came out to see La Cage Aux Folles when I believed it would not be interesting or crowded.

Other people know if actors are gay, lesbian, or bisexual, but few people would disagree that the theater world is friendly toward a variety of nonconformist than most professional fields. Same-sex love has been associated with acting for over 2000 years in the west during Roman times. It has been said that these types of relationships are accepted in this type of profession because it's considered the least respectful environment. Viewers are less likely to accept same-sex lovers than the company who hires them.

The text stated that gay, lesbian, and bisexual actors support the Queer Theory considers the "performative" nature of gender: the idea that gender "identity" is actually nothing more than a "role" actor learns to do what's necessary. Actors may be more skilled at their role with this type of experiment and not be judged by society, if that statement is true. Living double lives in the theater wasn't very hard to do. Publicist often manipulated the media making easier for actors to do so. Actors such as Montgomery Clift, James Dean, Greta Garbo, Cary Grant, and Randolph Scott lived these constricted lives.

The text stated that 29 percent of Americans would be "less interested" in seeing thei

In a Queer Time and Place Judith Halberstam, 2005 The first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music In her first book since the critically acclaimed Female Masculinity Judith Halberstam examines the significance of the transgender body in a provocative collection of essays on queer time and space She presents a series of case studies focused on the meanings of masculinity in its dominant and alternative forms especially female and trans masculinities as they exist within subcultures and are appropriated within mainstream culture In a Queer Time and Place opens with a probing analysis of the life and death of Brandon Teena a young transgender man who was brutally murdered in small town Nebraska After looking at mainstream representations of the transgender body as exhibited in the media frenzy surrounding this highly visible case and the Oscar winning film based on Brandon s story Boys Don t Cry Halberstam turns her attention to the cultural and artistic production of queers themselves She examines the transgender gaze as rendered in small art house films like By Hook or By Crook as well as figurations of ambiguous embodiment in the art of Del LaGrace Volcano Jenny Saville Eva Hesse Shirin Neshat and others She then exposes the influence of lesbian drag king cultures upon hetero male comic films such as Austin Powers and The Full Monty and finally points to dyke subcultures as one site for the development of queer counterpublics and queer temporalities Considering the sudden visibility of the transgender body in the early twenty first century against the backdrop of changing conceptions of space and time In a Queer Time and Place is the first full length study of transgender representations in art fiction film video and music This pioneering book offers both a jumping off point for future analysis of transgenderism and an important new way to understand cultural constructions of time and place Once You Go Black Robert

Reid-Pharr,2007-07 Once You Go Black is first and foremost a study of a group of black American intellectuals primarily male who came to prominence after World War II At the same time it is an endeavor to reconsider black Americans as agents and not simply products of history Following the existentialist maxim that experience precedes essence Robert Reid Pharr contends that our current notions of black American identity are not inevitable nor have they been forced on the black community Instead he argues black American intellectuals have actively chosen the identity schemes that seem to us so natural or God given today In Once You Go Black Reid Pharr turns first to the late and relatively unknown novels of the three most prominent Black American writers of the mid twentieth century Richard Wright Ralph Ellison and James Baldwin He suggests that each of these authors rejects the idea of the black as innocent insisting instead upon responsibility within modern society Reid Pharr then examines a number of responses to this presumed erosion of black innocence paying particular attention to articulations of black masculinity by Huey Newton one of the two founders of the Black Panther Party and Melvin Van Peebles director of the classic film Sweet Sweetback s Baadasssss Song Shuttling between queer theory intellectual history literary close readings and autobiography Once You Go Black is a bold eloquent and impassioned call to bring the language of choice into the study of black American literature and culture Arranging Grief Dana

Luciano,2007-11-01 2008 Winner MLA First Book Prize Charting the proliferation of forms of mourning and memorial across a century increasingly concerned with their historical and temporal significance Arranging Grief offers an innovative new view of the aesthetic social and political implications of emotion Dana Luciano argues that the cultural plotting of grief provides a distinctive insight into the nineteenth century American temporal imaginary since grief both underwrote the social arrangements that supported the nation s standard chronologies and sponsored other ways of advancing history Nineteenth century appeals to grief as Luciano demonstrates diffused modes of sacred time across both religious and ostensibly secular frameworks at once authorizing and unsettling established schemes of connection to the past and the future Examining mourning manuals sermons memorial tracts poetry and fiction by Harriet Beecher Stowe William Apess James Fenimore Cooper Catharine Maria Sedgwick Susan Warner Harriet E Wilson Herman Melville Frances E W Harper Frederick Douglass Abraham Lincoln Elizabeth Keckley and Ralph Waldo Emerson Luciano illustrates the ways that grief coupled the affective body to time Drawing on formalist Foucauldian and psychoanalytic criticism Arranging Grief shows how literary

Diversifying Greek Tragedy on the Contemporary US Stage Melinda Powers, 2018-08-16 In its long history of performance and reception Greek drama has been interpreted and adapted in ever changing ways to share in the preoccupations and tensions of particular historical moments Diversifying Greek Tragedy on the Contemporary US Stage explores this tradition by investigating a cross section of theatrical productions that have reimaged Greek tragedy in order to address social and political concerns in the US Studying performance and its role in creating social historical and cultural identities this volume draws on cutting edge research to move discussion away from the interpretation of dramatic texts in isolation from their performance contexts and towards an analysis of the dynamic experience of live theatre The study focuses particularly on the ability of engaged performances to pose critical challenges to the long standing stereotypes and political policies that have contributed to the misrepresentation and marginalization of underrepresented communities However in the process it also uncovers the ways in which such performances can inadvertently reinforce the very stereotypes they aim to challenge demonstrating that ancient drama can be a powerful yet dangerous tool in the search for justice

The Greek Trilogy of Luis Alfaro Luis Alfaro, 2020-09-03 Winner of the London Hellenic Prize 2020 The Greek Trilogy of Luis Alfaro gathers together for the first time the three Greek plays of the MacArthur Genius Award winning Chicana playwright and performance artist Based respectively on Sophocles Electra and Oedipus and Euripides Medea Alfaro's Electricidad Oedipus El Rey and Mojada transplant ancient themes and problems into the 21st century streets of Los Angeles and New York in order to give voice to the concerns of the Chicana and wider Latinx communities From performances around the world including sold out runs at New York's Public Theater these texts are extremely important to those studying classical reception Greek theatre and Chicana writers This unique anthology features definitive editions of all three plays alongside a comprehensive introduction which provides a critical overview of Luis Alfaro's work accentuating not only the unique nature of these three urban adaptations of ancient Greek tragedy but also the manner in which they address present day Chicana and Latinx socio political realities across the United States A brief introduction to each play and its overall themes precedes the text of the drama The anthology concludes with exclusive supplementary material aimed at enhancing understanding of Alfaro's plays a Performance History timeline outlining the performance history of the plays an alphabetical Glossary explaining the most common terms in Spanish and Spanglish appearing in each play and a Further Reading list providing primary and secondary bibliography for each play The anthology is completed by a new interview with Alfaro which addresses key topics such as Alfaro's engagement with ancient Greek drama and his work with Chicana communities across the United States thus providing a critical contextualisation of these critically acclaimed plays

Extravagant Camp Chris A. Eng, 2025-02-04 Winner of the 2023 2024 CLAGS Fellowship Award Illuminates an irreverent queer cultural strategy for grappling with and remaking abject histories of violence Extravagant Camp takes as its point of critical departure the multiple valences of the word camp the camp as a geopolitical space and process of concentrating racialized populations and the campy as a mode of queer expressiveness Engaging its double meaning Chris A Eng explores how camp and encampment have contoured the figure of the Asian American The book follows campy performances that imaginatively restage the camps that have been central to dominant narratives of Asian American history Chinese railroad labor Japanese American incarceration Vietnam War refugee resettlement and counterinsurgency camps across US imperial entanglements in the Philippines Illuminating an eclectic ensemble of performances that grapple with Asian American history from classical works in the Asian American literary tradition to emerging works of theater and film Extravagant Camp uncovers Asian American camp as a prevalent yet underappreciated cultural strategy for contesting accounts of Asian American racialization that overly rely on terms of abjection Theorizing Asian American camp as both a performance strategy and reading practice Eng examines how artists drag up the maligned racial roles of the coolie the internee the refugee and the diva to make different sense of these histories Extravagant Camp shows how Asian American camp takes on queerness as a resource to enliven modes of joy beauty and pleasure within structures of constraint revealing the types of power camp retrieves for racialized communities in the face of abjection Geared toward the extravagant Asian American camp demands a recognition of queer abjection not as the basis for our undoing but rather the grounds for a more radical social remaking

Brown Boys and Rice Queens Eng-Beng Lim, 2014 A transnational study of Asian performance shaped by the homoerotics of orientalism Brown Boys and Rice Queens focuses on the relationship between the white man and the native boy Eng Beng Lim unpacks this as the central trope for understanding colonial and cultural encounters in 20th and 21st century Asia and its diaspora Using the native boy as a critical guide Lim formulates alternative readings of a traditional Balinese ritual postcolonial Anglophone theatre in Singapore and performance art in Asian America Tracing the transnational formation of the native boy as racial fetish object across the last century Lim follows this figure as he is passed from the hands of the colonial empire to the postcolonial nation state to neoliberal globalization Read through such figurations the traffic in native boys among white men serves as an allegory of an infantilized and emasculated Asia subordinate before colonial whiteness and modernity Pushing further Lim addresses the critical paradox of this entrenched relationship that resides even within queer theory itself by formulating critical interventions around Asian performance Eng Beng Lim is Assistant Professor of Theatre Arts and Performance Studies at Brown University and a faculty affiliate of the Center for the Study of Race and Ethnicity Department of East Asian Studies and Department of American Studies He is also a Gender and Sexuality Studies board member at the Pembroke Center for Teaching and Research on Women In the Sexual Cultures series Transforming Citizenships Isaac West, 2014 Transforming Citizenships engages the performativity of citizenship as it relates to transgender individuals and advocacy groups Instead of reading the law as a set of self executing discourses Isaac West takes up transgender rights claims as performative productions of complex legal subjectivities capable of queering accepted understandings of genders sexualities and the normative forces of the law Drawing on an expansive archive from the correspondence of a transwoman arrested for using a public bathroom in Los Angeles in 1954 to contemporary lobbying efforts of national transgender advocacy organizations West advances a rethinking of law as capacious rhetorics of citizenship justice equality and freedom When approached from this perspective citizenship can be recuperated from its status as the bad object of queer politics to better understand how legal discourses open up sites for identification across identity categories and enable political activities that escape the analytics of heteronormativity and homonationalism

Mama Dada Sarah Bay-Cheng, 2004-06 Sarah Bay Cheng offers an examination of Gertrude Stein's drama within the history of the theatrical and cinematic avant-gardes Acts of Gaiety Sara Warner, 2023-06-20 Acts of Gaiety explores the mirthful modes of political performance by LGBT artists activists and collectives that have inspired and sustained deadly serious struggles for revolutionary change The book explores antics such as camp kitsch drag guerrilla theater zap actions rallies manifestos pageants and parades alongside more familiar forms of legitimate theater Against queer theory's long suffering romance with mourning and melancholia and a national agenda that urges homosexuals to renounce pleasure if they want to be taken seriously by mainstream society Acts of Gaiety seeks to reanimate notions of gaiety as a political value for LGBT activism The book mines the archives of lesbian feminist activism of the 1960s 70s highlighting the outrageous gaiety that lay at the center of the social and theatrical performances of the era and uncovering original documents long thought to be lost Juxtaposing historical figures such as Valerie Solanas and Jill Johnston with more recent performers and activists including Hothead Paisan Bitch Animal and the Five Lesbian Brothers Warner shows how reclaiming this largely discarded and disavowed past elucidates possibilities for being and belonging Acts of Gaiety explores the mutually informing histories of gayness as politics and as joie de vivre along with the centrality of liveliness to queer performance and protest

Performing Queer Modernism Penny Farfan, 2017-07-12 Focusing on some of the best known and most visible stage plays and dance performances of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Penny Farfan's interdisciplinary study demonstrates that queer performance was integral to and productive of modernism that queer modernist performance played a key role in the historical emergence of modern sexual identities and that it anticipated and was in a sense foundational to the insights of contemporary queer modernist studies Chapters on works from Vaslav Nijinsky's Afternoon of a Faun to Noël Coward's Private Lives highlight manifestations of and suggest ways of reading queer modernist performance Together these case studies clarify aspects of both the queer and the modernist and how their co-productive intersection was articulated in and through performance on the late nineteenth and early twentieth century stage Performing Queer Modernism thus contributes to an expanded understanding of modernism across a range of performance genres the central role of performance within modernism more generally and the integral relation between performance history and the history of sexuality It also contributes to the ongoing transformation of the field of modernist studies in which drama and performance remain under represented and to revisionist historiographies that approach modernist performance through feminist and queer critical perspectives and interdisciplinary frameworks and that consider how formally innovative as well as more conventional works collectively engaged with modernity at once reflecting and contributing to historical change in the domains of gender and sexuality

Queer Lasting Sarah Ensor, 2025-02-04 Queer Lasting asks what contemporary environmentalism's seemingly necessary emphasis on the future has rendered unthinkable and looks to the literatures from two periods of queer extinction the 1890s and the 1980s for grammars of care continuance and collective action that emerge only at the last

Another Country Scott Herring, 2010-06 Another Country expands the possibilities of queer studies beyond the city limits investigating the lives of rural queers across the United States from faeries in the Midwest to lesbian separatist communes on the coast of Northern California

The Tragedy of Heterosexuality Jane Ward, 2022-03 The Tragedy of Heterosexuality is an exploration of the so called straight culture

Afro-Fabulations Tavia Nyong'o, 2018-11-27 Winner 2019 Barnard Hewitt Award for Outstanding Research in Theatre History given by the American Society for Theatre Research Honorable Mention 2021 Errol Hill Award given by the American Society for Theatre Research Argues for a conception of black cultural life that exceeds post blackness and conditions of loss In Afro Fabulations The Queer Drama of Black Life cultural critic and historian Tavia Nyong'o surveys the conditions of contemporary black artistic production in the era of post blackness Moving fluidly between the insurgent art of the 1960s and the intersectional activism of the present day Afro Fabulations challenges genealogies of blackness that ignore its creative capacity to exceed conditions of traumatic loss social death and archival erasure If black survival in an anti black world often feels like a race against time Afro Fabulations looks to the modes of memory and imagination through which a queer and black polytemporality is invented and sustained Moving past the antirelational debates in queer theory Nyong'o posits queerness as angular sociality drawing upon queer of color critique in order to name the gate and rhythm of black social life as it moves in and out of step with itself He takes up a broad range of sites of analysis from speculative fiction to performance art from artificial intelligence to Blaxploitation cinema Reading the archive of violence and trauma against the grain Afro Fabulations summons the poetic powers of queer world making that have always been immanent to the fight and play of black life

Single Michael Cobb, 2012-07-02 A radical defense of a solitary life What single person hasn't suffered Everyone it seems must be or must want to be in a couple To exist outside of the couple is to assume an antisocial position that is ruthlessly discouraged because being in a couple is the way most people bind themselves to the social Singles might just be the single most reviled sexual minorities today Single Arguments for the Uncoupled offers a polemic account of this supremacy of the couple form and how that supremacy blocks our understanding of the single Michael Cobb reads the figurative language surrounding singleness as it traverses an eclectic set of literary cultural philosophical psychoanalytical and popular culture objects from Plato Freud Ralph Ellison Herman Melville Virginia Woolf Barack Obama Emily Dickinson Morrissey Georgia O'Keeffe and Hannah

Arendt to the Bible Sex and the City Bridget Jones Diary Beyonc s Single Ladies Put a Ring On It and HBO s Big Love Within these flights of fancy poetry fiction strange moments in film and video paintings made in the desert bits of song and memoirs of hiking in national parks Cobb offers an inspired eloquent rumination on the single which is guaranteed to spark conversation and consideration
