Quest For Religious Realism Some Paradox:

The Quest for Religious Realism Paul Arthur Schilpp, 1938      A Re-appraisal of Kierkegaard Howard Alexander Slaatte, 1995

A Re Appraisal of Kierkegaard provides the reader with a critical summation of Kierkegaard's basic existential insights into the problems and meanings of time and eternity as related to existence knowledge and faith. Slaatte accentuates Kierkegaard's philosophy of time and destiny as related to daily existence giving meaning and purpose to human life in the present tense of existence as related to the past and the future.

The Monstrosity of Christ

Slavoj Žižek, John Milbank, 2011-02-25

A militant Marxist atheist and a Radical Orthodox Christian theologian square off on everything from the meaning of theology and Christ to the war machine of corporate mafia. What matters is not so much that Žižek is endorsing a demythologized disenchanted Christianity without transcendence as that he is offering in the end despite what he sometimes claims a heterodox version of Christian belief.

John Milbank: To put it even more bluntly my claim is that it is Milbank who is effectively guilty of heterodoxy ultimately of a regression to paganism in my atheism. I am more Christian than Milbank.

Slavoj Žižek: In this corner philosopher Slavoj Žižek, a militant atheist who represents the critical materialist stance against religion's illusions.

In the other corner Radical Orthodox theologian John Milbank, an influential and provocative thinker who argues that theology is the only foundation upon which knowledge, politics and ethics can stand.

In The Monstrosity of Christ, Žižek and Milbank go head to head for three rounds employing an impressive arsenal of moves to advance their positions and press their respective advantages.

By the closing bell they have not only proven themselves worthy adversaries they have shown that faith and reason are not simply and intractably opposed.

Žižek has long been interested in the emancipatory potential offered by Christian theology.

And Milbank, seeing global capitalism as the new century's greatest ethical challenge, has pushed his own ontology in more political and materialist directions.

Their debate in The Monstrosity of Christ concerns the future of religion, secularity and political hope in light of a monstrous event: God becoming human.

For the first time since Žižek's turn toward theology we have a true debate between an atheist and a theologian about the very meaning of theology: Christ, the Church, the Holy Ghost, Universality and the foundations of logic.

The result goes far beyond the popularized atheist-theist point-counterpoint of recent books by Christopher Hitchens, Richard Dawkins and others.

Žižek begins and Milbank answers.

countering dialectics with paradox The debate centers on the nature of and relation between paradox and parallax between analogy and dialectics between transcendent glory and liberation Slavoj i ek is a philosopher and cultural critic He has published over thirty books including Looking Awry The Puppet and the Dwarf and The Parallax View these three published by the MIT Press John Milbank is an influential Christian theologian and the author of Theology and Social Theory Beyond Secular Reason and other books Creston Davis who conceived of this encounter studied under both i ek and Milbank

Religious Education and Critical Realism Andrew Wright, 2015-11-19 Religious Education and Critical Realism Knowledge Reality and Religious Literacy seeks to bring the enterprise of religious education in schools colleges and universities into conversation with the philosophy of Critical Realism This book addresses the problem not of the substance of our primal beliefs about the ultimate nature of reality and our place in the ultimate order of things but of the process through which we might attend to questions of substance in more attentive reasonable responsible and intelligent ways This book unpacks the impact of modern and post modern thought on key topics whilst also generating a new critically realistic vision Offering an account of the relationship between Religious Education and Critical Realism this book is essential reading for students scholars and practitioners interested in philosophy theology and education Religion and Realism Davor

Džalto, 2016-05-11 This volume revisits the concepts of reality and realism with regard to their relation to religion and the religious real Religion remains one of the most significant social forces and cultural constituencies and it can even be said that religion and religious truths are becoming increasingly important in these so called post secular times when the sphere of the secular social political and the sphere of the religious have to be reconsidered The relevancy of religious truths and the way they structure our understanding of reality overcomes the sphere of theology and particular religious practices Religion truth and reality and the way these concepts are approached and understood continue to be vital for a broader cultural discourse as well from philosophy and science to politics mass media and show business The book presents ten essays that offer methodologically diverse and intellectually challenging analyses of various aspects of the topics of Religion and Realism The essays are based on papers presented at the international conference on Religion and Realism which took place at the American University of Rome in 2014 Christian Realism and Liberation Theology Dennis P. McCann, 2001-08-30

Christian Realism and Liberation Theology provides the best interpretation and critique we have of liberation theology Equally important however is McCann s interpretation of Reinhold Niebuhr For it is McCann s contention that Niebuhr is best appreciated as attempting to provide a form of spirituality sufficient to sustain the frustrations of political struggle By bringing Niebuhr and liberation theology into creative contrast McCann not only illuminates the contributions and shortcomings of each but helps us better understand the issues confronting the development of an adequate Christian social ethic This is a book that has needed writing for some time We are in McCann s debt Stanley Hauerwas Gilbert T Rowe Professor of Theological Ethics Divinity School Duke University The Quest of the Historical Jesus Albert

greater diversity and depth than has been attempted before the relationship between film and religion Combining perspectives from traditional film criticism and from religious studies Religion in Film asserts that it is no longer possible to view films simply in terms of their moral impact nor is it reasonable to limit religious meaning only to those films that make an explicit appeal to religious elements The essays offer a variety of theoretical reflections on the religious interpretation of film explore particular cinematic variations on the archetypal images of savior and demon analyze significant cultural trends of a religious nature related to film and assess thirteen sensibilities Altman Bergman Bunuel Chaplin Coppola Fellini Hitchcock Jutra Kubrick Peckinpah Russell Truffaut and Wertmuller The contributors provide a firm basis for analysis while respecting a variety in interpretation As the overall structure of the book leads from the universal to the particular from theory to individual directors and films so its concern with religious interpretation flows naturally from the universally religious to particular religious worldviews Among world religions Christianity claims attention in proportion to its dominant cultural influence in the West where film has more obviously flourished The insights and interpretations presented in these essays will be of importance to cinema scholars film critics and students of religion and of interest to film buffs particularly those who are sensible of the religious dimension of films

The Emerging Church, Millennials, and Religion: Volume 2 Terry Shoemaker, Rachel C. Schneider, Xochitl Alvizo, 2022-03-01 Millennials and progressive Christians are continuing their work of creating alternative spaces for spiritual and religious expressions in North America The practices and beliefs of progressive Christian movements like the emerging church and millennials who tend toward spirituality over and against religion have been the targets of much criticism Yet millennials and progressive Christians continue to both curate spaces for self and collective expression while also engaging within contexts often critical or hostile This collection analyzes these movements from theological religious studies and social scientific perspectives to provide a more holistic view of what is taking shape in religious and spiritual trends and it ventures to project what may lie ahead for the progressive Christianity that is emerging and enduring

Pragmatic Realism, Religious Truth, and Antitheodicy Sami Pihlström, 2020-02-03 As a traditional theological issue and in its broader secular varieties theodicy remains a problem in the philosophy of religion In this remarkable book Sami Pihlström provides a novel critical reassessment of the theodicy discourse addressing the problem of evil and suffering He develops and defends an antitheodicy view arguing that theodicies seeking to render apparently meaningless suffering meaningful or justified from a God's Eye View ultimately rely on metaphysical realism failing to recognize the individual perspective of the sufferer Pihlström thus shows that a pragmatist approach to the realism issue in the philosophy of religion is a vital starting point for a re-evaluation of the problem of theodicy With its strong positions and precise arguments the volume provides a new approach which is likely to stimulate discussion in the wider academic world of philosophy of religion

Good and Bad Ways to Think about Religion and Politics Robert Benne, 2010-09-23 There is nothing greater than indignation to stimulate a writer to write says Robert Benne and my outrage has been stirred mightily by reading so many wrongheaded takes on how religion and politics ought to be related
